Off-the-Field Impact

Since the inception of the Foundation in 2000, the Leadership Council has been at the forefront of the organization's efforts to help improve the lives of children in our community. These men and women are business leaders who provide financial resources, access to their professional network and expertise. Their generosity and support are second to none and are essential components of the success of the Washington Redskins Charitable Foundation.

"I am proud to say that 2013 was an incredible year for the Charitable Foundation – a year in which we were able to help more young people achieve their goals, conduct more events in the community and support more worthy causes."

—Dan Snyder

Exercising Young Minds

Redskins Read

A child's favorite book is one that can create a lasting memory and foster a desire to continue learning. In the D.C. Metro area, however, many children struggle to find that favorite story as they lack the necessary resources to develop reading skills, or have yet to recognize the value of literacy. The Redskins Read program strives to change this.

Through a variety of programming such as the Redskins Read Challenge powered by NRG, Redskins Read Across Prince George's County and the Redskins Read FedEx Special Delivery, the Charitable Foundation encourages and energizes students to explore the joys of reading and the power of imagination with the help of its generous partners. Appearances from players and alumni helped solidify the message to more than 20,000 children that being literate is essential to flourishing in life, regardless of their desired path.

For High-Performance Engines

Fuel Up to Play 60

Milk, veggies and grains—oh my! Studies show that children who eat breakfast perform better in school, achieve higher standardized test scores, work faster and are more creative. By partnering with the Mid-Atlantic Dairy Association on the Fuel Up to Play 60 program, the Washington Redskins Charitable Foundation has made strides in bridging the gap between hungry kids and kids hungry for education and activity. Fuel Up to Play 60 empowers students to take charge in making small, everyday changes at school to support their fellow students with the goal of being healthy.

Through exciting and innovative events, registered dietitians provide children with the knowledge necessary to make positive eating choices. Interactions with current and former Redskins players and cheerleaders emphasize the importance of the message and provide incentives for schools and students. From "Milk Toasts" to celebrate the end of a hard workout to hearing Brian Orakpo's favorite breakfast foods, the Mid-Atlantic Dairy Association fuels our next generation of athletes for success in the classroom and on the field.

The Game of Life

Finishing Strong

Realistically, less than 1 percent of high school football players will go on to play in the National Football League. The Washington Redskins Charitable Foundation aims to provide high school student-athletes with resources and opportunities to become well-rounded citizens, ultimately preparing them for the next step in life. In addition to providing academic support staff in select Coaches in the Classroom high schools, the Charitable Foundation focuses on the student-athletes' experience as a whole by creating academic and community service opportunities to enhance their lives.

The lesson from running back Alfred Morris at the 4th & Life High School Football Forum presented by Coca-Cola is a simple one: "Character is what you do when no one else is watching." While most high school athletes may never stand in the shoes of Redskins football players, the positive message of being a well-rounded person rings loud and clear from those they look up to.

A Season of Giving

Holiday Events

The holiday season is an opportunity for the Washington Redskins Charitable Foundation to level the playing field for local children and families by providing them with Thanksgiving meals, winter coats and holiday gifts straight from 'Santa's Workshop'.

The pinnacle of the Charitable Foundation's giving season, the Harvest Feast presented by Ryan Homes, provided over 3,000 families in Prince George's County with the fixings for a home-cooked turkey dinner. In 2013 the community filled FedExField the Saturday before Thanksgiving while being greeted by Redskins owner Dan Snyder, Mrs. Tanya Snyder, General Manager Bruce Allen, Kiersten Allen, as well as current and alumni Redskins players and their wives.

Splitting for a Good Cause

50/50 Raffle

As fans marched to FedExField for the start of the 2013 football season, unfamiliar sights and sounds filled the tailgating area with the addition of 50/50 Raffle sellers decked out in neon vests, yellow aprons and handheld signs. 2013 marked the activation of the Washington Redskins Charitable Foundation 50/50 Game Day Raffle. During each home game of the 2013 season, 50/50 Raffle tickets were sold by Charitable Foundation volunteers in an effort to raise money for the Foundation and its non-profit partners. Fifty percent of net proceeds from ticket sales went to one lucky fan, while the remainder supported the work of the Charitable Foundation to level the playing field for youth across the greater D.C. area. In 2014, our sellers will be out at FedExField at each game. Help us help the community by purchasing your ticket at every home game.

It's a Family Reunion

Welcome Home Luncheon

The annual Redskins Welcome Home Luncheon heralds the beginning of the season and is the only time the entire organization gathers for a single event off the field. The luncheon offers the unique opportunity for Redskins fans and corporate partners to celebrate the Burgundy and Gold while spending an afternoon with members of the team. This year, the event highlighted the programs of the Washington Redskins Charitable Foundation by shining the spotlight on some of the incredible youth served by our programs.

DANIEL M. SNYDER

REDSKINS OWNER

A self-made man and an entrepreneur at heart, Dan Snyder's life has been consumed by an enduring passion for the people, the team and the community he loves.

Growing up in the D.C. area and attending Redskins games with his father, Gerald, his youth and young adulthood were shaped and inspired by his devotion to the Washington Redskins. Now in his second decade as owner, Snyder has put his passion into action. He has consistently led the franchise to new prominence in the community, the business world and the National Football League. Under his leadership, the team has raised millions of dollars for charitable efforts and maintained its place in the top tier of the world's most valuable sports franchises.

Snyder, 49, continues to be one of the Washington area's most prominent community leaders and philanthropists. Shortly after purchasing the franchise in 1999, one of Snyder's first actions as owner was to create the Washington Redskins Charitable Foundation (WRCF) in 2000 to utilize the assets of the Redskins and their corporate and community partners to make a positive and measurable impact on youth development in the greater Washington, D.C., region. The foundation focuses on the areas of education, community outreach, and health and wellness, and since its inception, Charitable Foundation programs have made an impact on millions of lives and given back well over $15 million to individuals, groups and organizations in the community.

Both current and former Redskins players also donate their time, talents and resources to WRCF by providing toys, coats, and clothes to children, inspiring young football players and making wishes come true for little fans battling big diseases. In addition, since 2003, Snyder, Redskins players, and other volunteers have also gifted more than 864,100 pounds of packaged and fresh food and 385,500 pounds of turkey to area families in need at the team's annual Harvest Feast. In 2013, the Redskins gifted more than 103,000 pounds of packaged and fresh food and 42,000 pounds of turkey at the annual event at FedExField.

In addition to his efforts with WRCF, Snyder has provided significant support to Washington's Children's Hospital and the National Center for Missing and Exploited Children (NCMEC). His support enabled construction of the Snyder Family Emergency Medicine and Trauma Center at Children's Hospital. He is a member of the Children's Hospital Foundation Board of Directors. He also funded construction of the Daniel M. Snyder and Family Communication Center at the Center for Missing and Exploited Children. Each day the Center handles hundreds of calls from around the nation from law enforcement organizations, parents of missing children, runaways seeking help, and people responding to the Center's well-known awareness campaigns on behalf of missing children. In May 2014, Snyder and his wife, Tanya, were honored with the Charles B. Wang International Children's Award at the NCMEC annual Hope Awards Dinner.

During the 2014 offseason, Snyder and the Washington Redskins launched the Washington Redskins Original Americans Foundation. In an open letter, Snyder detailed that the organization's intent was to provide genuine opportunities for Tribal communities, saying that, "With open arms and determined minds, we will work as partners to begin to tackle the troubling realities facing so many tribes across our country. Our efforts will address the urgent challenges plaguing Indian country based on what Tribal leaders tell us they need most. We may have created this new organization, but the direction of the Foundation is truly theirs." Prior to the Foundation's formal inception, the group distributed more than 3,000 cold-weather coats to tribes and assisted in the purchase of a new backhoe for the Omaha Tribe in Nebraska.

Beyond his charitable efforts, Snyder is prominent in the affairs of the NFL, where his expertise in the fields of marketing and media has been recognized with appointments to the Broadcast Committee, the Business Ventures Committee, the Digital Media Committee, the Hall of Fame Committee (which oversees the Pro Football Hall of Fame in Canton, Ohio), and, separately, as a member of the Board of Directors of the Pro Football Hall of Fame.

The Redskins, who continue to be ranked among the world's most valuable sports franchises on Forbes magazine's annual list, remain at the forefront of NFL marketing and business organizations. Since buying the team, Snyder has launched a highly successful retail arm, with several Official Redskins Stores in Virginia and Maryland, as well as mobile units for use at home games and other events.

In the summer of 2013, Snyder the Redskins moved their annual Training Camp to Richmond, Va., hosting the team's training sessions at the brand new Bon Secours Washington Redskins Training Center. During the team's inaugural three-week stay in the capital, more than 165,000 attended walkthroughs and practices. In addition, the Redskins' outreach in the community included more than 5,000 kids impacted by the Charitable Foundation's Play 60 programs and cheerleading programs, as well as 200 high school coaches invited to a concussion clinic held by the Redskins.

In June 2012, Snyder and the Redskins reaffirmed the team's commitment to the Commonwealth of Virginia, announcing that team will retain its corporate headquarters by improving Redskins Park, its Loudoun County training facility. In the 2013 offseason, Snyder and the Redskins began improvements to Redskins Park, including upgrades to the weight room, athletic training facility, locker room, hydrotherapy stations, media availability areas, in-house cafeteria and more.

During Snyder's 15 seasons as owner of the team, 24 different Redskins have earned a total of 40 Pro Bowl appearances, nine different Redskins have been named All-Pro, and 12 Redskins draft picks have been selected to the All-Rookie Team. In addition, three players from his tenure as owner, Darrell Green, Bruce Smith and Deion Sanders, have gone on to induction into the Pro Football Hall of Fame.

FedExField, the team's wholly-owned stadium in Landover, Md., boasts seating capacity for 85,000 people. Tickets to Redskins games have been sold out for more than 40 years. Since he purchased the team, Snyder has invested more than $100 million in improvements to the facility, including high-speed escalators to the upper deck, updated signage, more than 1,000 flat-screen TVs in concourses and other areas, as well as the League standard-setting Owner's Club East and Owner's Club West private luxury suites. In 2010, the Redskins installed two new video boards – 30 feet high and 100 feet wide – in each of the end zones at FedExField. The screens feature state-of-the-art high definition LED displays and tripled the size of the previous end zone video displays. The team also enhanced the fans' gameday experience with all-new game clocks, play clocks, other in-stadium video displays and Party Deck Platforms.

The club's media ventures include Redskins Nation, produced by the Redskins Broadcast Network, which is the league's only year-round, daily 30-minute television show. The team also produces television and radio broadcasts via Redskins.com, a robust editorial and social media staff, and Extremeskins.com, the team's fan forum. The team also produces a variety of other television programs, broadcast independently as well as in partnership with local television outlets.

Snyder was Founder, Chairman and CEO of Snyder Communications, Inc. and was the youngest CEO of a New York Stock Exchange company at the time. From its launch in 1985, the company grew to a global organization of 12,000 employees, with 77 offices in 17 countries, and more than $1 billion in annual revenues. The company's client base included 200 of the Fortune 500, to which it provided targeted marketing solutions, including advertising and marketing services. In March 2000, the company was acquired by the French marketing firm Havas for more than $2.3 billion, at the time the largest such merger in the history of the advertising/marketing industry.

Snyder is founder and Chairman Emeritus of inVentiv Health (NASDAQ: VTIV). Additionally, Snyder is founder and Managing Member of the Board of Red Zebra Broadcasting, LLC, which operates radio stations in Maryland, Virginia and the District of Columbia airing Redskins broadcasts, popular national radio shows and locally generated programming. Snyder is active in a variety of other private business ventures, both as an investor and as an advisor to management. He is a frequent invitee to share his experiences and views with business organizations nationwide, and he is enshrined in the Jewish Sports Hall of Fame.

In 2010, Snyder was honored by Beacon House, a nonsectarian, neighborhood-based organization that supports at-risk youth and families of the Edgewood Terrace community in Washington, D.C., during a community celebration to dedicate the football field at Edgewood Department of Parks and Recreation Center. The Charitable Foundation assisted in renovating the center with a newly resurfaced field, bleachers, and an electronic scoreboard. In April 2014, Snyder and WRCF announced a partnership to fund a brand new, synthetic, multi-sport field at Park View High School in Sterling, Va., one of 37 fields the foundation has helped provide since its inception.

In April 2012, Snyder was presented Youth For Tomorrow's Distinguished Leader Award in recognition of his years of support for the organization's private, residential school and counseling center in Bristow, Va., which has provided year-round care for more than 900 homeless and at-risk children ages 11-17 from Northern Virginia and the District of Columbia. The honor is periodically awarded to individuals who have demonstrated long and generous support to Youth For Tomorrow. In announcing the award at YFT's annual Burgundy and Gold Banquet, Hall of Fame Redskins Coach Joe Gibbs, who is also Founder and Chairman of Youth For Tomorrow, said, "Dan Snyder began his support of the kids at Youth For Tomorrow long before I ever considered returning to coach the team in 2004."

Snyder and his wife, Tanya, have three children and live in Potomac, Md.

TANYA SNYDER

NATIONAL SPOKESPERSON FOR BREAST CANCER AWARENESS

An extraordinary role model, experienced business owner, dedicated advocate on breast cancer awareness and philanthropist, Tanya Snyder is committed to making an impact on the Washington Redskins and the community at large. Mrs. Snyder's far-reaching efforts are in addition to what she considers her most important job – her role as a mother to her children and a wife, advisor and companion to her husband, Redskins owner Dan Snyder.

Mrs. Snyder, herself a breast cancer survivor, was vital in the creation of the team's Breast Cancer Awareness initiatives. Since, she has become a prominent national presence in the fight against breast cancer, serving as one of the NFL's National Spokespersons for Breast Cancer Awareness in the League's "A Crucial Catch" campaign. She remains one of the driving forces behind the franchise's annual All-Stars Survivors Celebration at Redskins Park.

Mrs. Snyder and Zeta Tau Alpha (ZTA) started the THINK-PINK!® campaign for breast cancer awareness in 1999, at which time, the Redskins were the only team in the league to participate. With the founding and continuous support of Mrs. Snyder and the Washington Redskins, ZTA created a national model for THINKPINK!® throughout the NFL. In 2013, 28 of the 32 teams in the NFL had participated in the campaign, which distributed its five millionth pink ribbon that season.

In May 2013, Mrs. Snyder was honored at the American Cancer Society's annual Mother of the Year DC luncheon. This marked the first time the Mother of the Year was honored in Washington, D.C., as the event raised more than $400,000 for the American Cancer Society. In October 2011, Mrs. Snyder and Secretary of the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services Kathleen Sebelius joined cancer advocates and survivors to emphasize the importance of breast cancer awareness and recognize the National Breast and Cervical Cancer Early Detection Program. The program has given low-income, uninsured, and underinsured women access to lifesaving breast and cervical cancer screenings since 1991. She accepted the American Cancer Society Impact Award on behalf of the NFL in both 2011 and 2012.

Though she prefers a low profile, Mrs. Snyder has an ongoing interest and commitment to support causes related to women and children. Her most public charitable activities are focused on Children's National Medical Center, where the family's endowment enabled construction of the Snyder Family Foundation emergency center in addition to the Snyder Family Foundation communications center at the National Center for Missing and Exploited Children.

For the Redskins, she has guided activities such as the Hurricane Katrina relief fund, the team's annual Thanksgiving food program, NFL Play 60 events, the Redskins Read program and the Women of Washington Redskins (WOW!) fan club – the largest women's club in the NFL. As the leader of the "team behind the team," Mrs. Snyder is the driving force behind the Washington Redskins' social and community activities, as she leads the players' and coaches' wives organization.

Mrs. Snyder also has a passion for fashion as well as the league's female fan base. She has been directly involved in the women's NFL apparel campaign since its inception in 2010 and even serves as a model for the annual campaigns.

The Snyders have three children and live in Potomac, Md.

Robert Rothman

Dwight C.
Schar

Frederick W.
Smith

Since the early days of his business career, from his home office as a teenager through the founding of Snyder Communications in Bethesda, Md., to ownership of the Washington Redskins, Daniel M. Snyder has surrounded himself with trusted advisors and supporters. It is those family members and associates who round out the ownership group of the Washington Redskins.

Before launching a business initiative or making a critical business decision, they are the key individuals Snyder has turned to as partners, advisors, and confidants.

Snyder's sister Michele Snyder, a founder of Snyder Communications, shares his ambitious spirit. Her creativity, operational skills, and business instincts have played an instrumental role in the success of Team Snyder over the years.

A calm and steady influence have been the contributions of Gerry and Arlette Snyder, parents of the Redskins owner. A long-time journalist and author with more than two dozen books to his credit, Gerry Snyder was editor-in-chief of Snyder Communications during the early years of the company. Gerry Snyder died in 2003 at age 69. The team training facility at Redskins Park has been named in his memory.

Arlette Snyder, who maintains the family ownership position in the team, continues her role as a primary advisor to the owner and his other partners.

Robert Rothman is Chairman and CEO of the Board of Florida Bank Group, Inc., in Tampa, Fla. He was Chairman and Chief Executive Officer of Consolidated International Group, Inc., which owned and operated insurance companies in Europe and North America, from 1987 to 1999.

He obtained a B.A. in Economics from Queens College of the City University of New York, and an MBA from the University of Chicago, Graduate School of Business.

Rothman is active in numerous charities. Prior to Super Bowl XLIV in South Florida, Rothman and his wife Peggy, along with Redskins Executive Vice President/General Manager Bruce Allen and his wife Kiersten, served on the host committee for an event honoring NFL all-time winningest coach Don Shula and benefiting the H. Lee Moffitt Cancer Center & Research Institute in Tampa. He is Chairman of the Board of H. Lee Moffitt Cancer Center & Research Institute, Inc., and a member of the Advisory Council for the University of Chicago Graduate School of Business.

Dwight C. Schar is Chairman of the Board of NVR, Inc., the fifth-largest homebuilder in the United States. The company is comprised of the building operations of Ryan Homes and NVHomes. Also under the NVR umbrella is NVR Financial, which is comprised of NVR Mortgage and NVR Settlement Services. The company is based in Reston, Va., and is traded on the New York Stock Exchange. Schar has been extremely active in the greater Washington community, involved in numerous business and educational groups. Previously, Schar served as a trustee of the Virginia Commonwealth University School of Engineering Foundation, was a member on the Virginia Business and Higher Education Council and was appointed to the President's Advisory Committee on the Arts for the Kennedy Center.

Schar has also served as National Finance Chair of the Republican National Committee. In addition, he was a member of the Board of Directors for the Pittsburgh Pirates, First American Banks, the Northern Virginia Building Industry Association, Bell Atlantic Company of Virginia, and the United Way of the Capital Area. Schar served on the Board for the Mercatus Center at George Mason University and has also been a trustee for the George Mason University Foundation, Ashland University and the Virginia Foundation of Independent Colleges. He has also been a council member of the Northern Virginia Roundtable, and the Governor's Regional Economic Development Council. Schar is a graduate of Ashland University.

Frederick W. Smith is chairman, president and chief executive officer of FedEx Corporation, a $38-billion global transportation, business services and logistics company.

Smith is responsible for providing strategic direction for all FedEx Corporation operating companies, including FedEx Services, FedEx Express, FedEx Ground and FedEx Freight. FedEx serves more than 220 countries and territories with operations that include 677 aircraft and over 70,000 vehicles. More than 260,000 employees and independent contractors worldwide handle more than 7.5 million shipments each business day. Since founding FedEx in 1971, Smith has been an active proponent of regulatory reform, free trade and "open skies agreements" for aviation around the world.

FedEx has continued to strengthen its industry leadership over the past 35 years, and has been widely acknowledged for its commitment to total quality service. FedEx Express was the first service company to win the Malcolm Baldrige National Quality Award in 1990. In addition, FedEx has consistently been ranked on FORTUNE Magazine's industry lists, including "World's Most Admired Companies" (No. 4, 2006); "America's Most Admired Companies" (No. 2, 2006); No. 1 on the Delivery Industry list (2005); FedEx is in the "Hall of Fame" for claiming a spot on the "100 Best Companies to Work For" list since its inception (1998-2005) and is a FORTUNE Blue Ribbon Honoree for having appeared on five of the magazine's exclusive trademarked lists in 2005.

Smith has served on the boards of several large public companies and the St. Jude Children's Research Hospital and Mayo Foundation Boards. He is currently the chairman of Alcon Entertainment.

He was formerly chairman of the Board of Governors for the International Air Transport Association and the U.S. Air Transport Association. Smith is a member of the Business Roundtable, the Business Council and the CATO Institute. He served as chairman of the U.S.-China Business Council and is the current chairman of the French-American Business Council. Smith served as cochairman of the U.S. World War II Memorial Project and was named Chief Executive Magazine's 2004 "CEO of the Year."

Born in 1944 in Marks, Miss., Smith attended Yale University, where he earned a B.A. in 1966. Smith served as an officer in the U.S. Marine Corps from 1966-1970.

BRUCE ALLEN

PRESIDENT AND GENERAL MANAGER

“Bruce Allen is the personification of an NFL winner. Our fans know his heritage; we know his abilities. He is the right person to lead our club.” – Redskins owner Dan Snyder

Bruce Allen has come full circle. More than 30 years have passed since Allen resided in the Washington, D.C., region and was a ball boy for his father, George Allen, the late Hall of Fame head coach who led the “Over the Hill Gang” Washington Redskins to an NFC Championship in 1972 and an appearance in Super Bowl VII.

Allen joined the Redskins as the team’s Executive Vice President/General Manager on December 17, 2009, after a decorated career spanning more three decades as a general manager and executive with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers and the Oakland Raiders and a successful run in the USFL with the Chicago Blitz and the Arizona Wranglers.

“It’s exciting because of the history, the tradition, the comfort about coming home,” Allen said. “Everybody who knows me, knows that the principles of football in my mind are simple – it’s a team. It’s 53 men, the entire staff, everybody in the building going in the same direction for one common goal, and that’s to win.”

In May 2014, during an offseason in which Allen helped guide the franchise through a coaching transition and provided public leadership for the organization, the Redskins formally announced Allen as the team’s President and General Manager.

“I think the world of Bruce Allen and giving him both titles is appropriate,” Owner Dan Snyder said.

Allen played a key role in identifying Jay Gruden as the 29th head coach in franchise history, citing Gruden’s passion for the game and passion for the Washington Redskins.

“So what we found is the guy that – I really come back to one of the greatest quotes I know in sports or life that former Washington Redskins coach Marv Levy, who is in the Hall of Fame, who said, ‘Where would you rather be than right here, right now?’” Allen said.

Early in his Redskins tenure, Allen oversaw the construction of Washington’s 2012 NFC East championship squad. The division championship was Allen’s sixth since 2000, marking the third different franchise (Oakland, Tampa Bay and Washington) he had helped lead to a division crown in that timeframe. Since 2000, only Allen and Rich McKay have guided multiple franchises to division titles as General Manager.

Aside from his management of the Redskins football operations, Allen has led an initiative to extend the Redskins’ outreach to their former players. Since the summer of 2010, he has been the impetus behind numerous alumni gatherings, which started with a barbecue coinciding with the team’s minicamp. The Redskins welcomed more than 100 former players, coaches and staff members to Redskins Park, where they watched practice, reminisced with each other and interacted with current players and members of the organization.

“This is a great day for the Washington Redskins,” Allen said. “It’s a special time to bring back not only the legends of the game but also some of the architects of the Washington Redskins that our fans have loved over the decades. You get to see that they are great people and it’s wonderful to have them here.

“We owe them a great debt of gratitude for their accomplishments for building this game. Not just the three Super Bowl trophies, but the way they have represented themselves in the burgundy and gold. I think they’re going to give great lessons for our current players to follow. We’re fortunate that we have such great alumni.”

Last fall, Allen and the Redskins welcomed back Redskins Alumni for the team’s annual Homecoming Weekend, which culminated with Washington’s 30-24 overtime win against the San Diego Chargers. Not including staff and coaches, former players in attendance at various events during the weekend accounted for more than 600 seasons of Redskins service, 98 Super Bowl appearances and 56 Super Bowl wins. The team welcomed back 32 of the 80 Greatest Redskins, 19 Ring of Fame members and six Pro Football Hall of Famers as part of the celebration. In addition, the Redskins honored their 1987 Super Bowl XXII championship team at halftime as the squad celebrated its 25th anniversary.

In addition to his ongoing connection with Redskins Alumni, Allen is actively involved with the Redskins community outreach efforts. Allen has taken the time to personally connect with Redskins fans all over the world via one-on-one meetings, Redskins Rally events, fan forums, phone calls and e-mails to foster and strengthen the organization’s relationship with its fans.

In August of 2011, he assumed the role of President of the Board of the Washington Redskins Charitable Foundation. Even before taking over these duties, Allen participated in many of the Foundation’s signature events, including the Redskins Alumni Golf Classic, where he serves as Chairman, the Redskins Easter Egg Hunt, the Fields for Tomorrow field dedication, the Mickey Steele Memorial Golf Outing, and, the Leukemia & Lymphoma Golf tournament, among others. Allen has also lent his time to helping other Redskins greats’ philanthropic works, including Doug Williams’ Washington Football Legends for Charity and Joe Gibbs’ Youth For Tomorrow.

Allen and his wife, Kiersten, have a son, George, and a daughter, Mikayla. Kiersten serves on the Moffitt Cancer Foundation Board of Directors, where she and Bruce have worked to aid in the Foundation’s mission to contribute to the prevention and cure of cancer.

Allen was drafted by the Baltimore Colts as a 12th-round selection in 1978 out of the University of Richmond. He played for the Spiders from 1974-77, earning All-ECAC and All-South Independent honors in his junior season, when he ranked 16th in the nation and broke a school punting record with a 42.9-yard average. He earned his degree in business marketing.

Allen’s late father George, who was elected to the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 2002, was Head Coach of the Redskins from 1971-77. He amassed a 67-30-1 record and an appearance in Super Bowl VII in seven seasons in Washington. George never had a losing campaign in 12 seasons as an NFL head coach including his seven years at the helm of the Redskins.

Like his father, who developed the original Redskins Park, Bruce helped spearhead the effort for facility improvements to provide the Redskins a state-of-the-art team headquarters equipped with every necessary amenity and competitive advantage to support the football operation. Allen also played a key role in the team moving its annual training camp to Richmond, Va., beginning in 2013 at the world-class Bon Secours Washington Redskins Training Center. The brand new facility in Virginia’s capital city welcomed team-record crowds in excess of 165,000 people during its first camp, and also helped directly impact more than 5,000 children through youth programs in the community during the team’s stay.

Bruce’s brother George served as Virginia governor and as a U.S. Senator from Virginia. He also has two other siblings, Greg, a psychologist specializing in family counseling and Founder of Freedom4U in Southern California, and Jennifer Allen Richard, an author and contributor to the NFL Network.

JAY GRUDEN

HEAD COACH

11TH NFL SEASON // 1ST WITH REDSKINS

Jay Gruden was named the 29th head coach of the Washington Redskins on January 9, 2014.

Excluding interim coaches, Gruden, 46, became the team's youngest head coaching hire since hiring eventual Pro Football Hall of Famer Joe Gibbs at 40 years of age in 1981. He became the first Redskins coach hired directly from an offensive coordinator role on another team since Norv Turner in 1994.

Before joining the Redskins, Gruden spent his previous three seasons as offensive coordinator for the Cincinnati Bengals. In his tenure in Cincinnati, the Bengals averaged 10 wins a season, making three consecutive playoff appearances and earning an AFC North championship in 2013. Members of the Bengals' offense accounted for seven Pro Bowl selections in his three seasons in Cincinnati.

Gruden was tasked with the development of quarterback Andy Dalton, a 2011 second-round pick. In three seasons together, Gruden helped Dalton to a 30-18 regular season record as a starter (.625), as Dalton's 30 wins in that time frame ranked tied for fifth-most among NFL quarterbacks. Dalton's 80 passing touchdowns rank third-most in NFL history for a quarterback in his first three seasons, trailing only Dan Marino (98) and Peyton Manning (85).

Prior to joining the Bengals, Gruden served two years with the Florida Tuskers of the United Football League from 2009-10. In 2009, Gruden served as offensive coordinator under current Redskins defensive coordinator Jim Haslett as the Tuskers compiled a 6-0 regular season record and earned a UFL championship game berth. In 2010, he assumed the roles of head coach and general manager and led the Tuskers to their second consecutive championship game appearance.

Gruden coached for seven seasons (2002-08) with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers, earning a Super Bowl championship ring as an offensive assistant in 2002. There he worked under his brother, Jon, then the Bucs' head coach, and current Redskins Executive Vice President/General Manager Bruce Allen, the Bucs' general manager from 2004-08. Gruden helped guide the Buccaneers to the team's first league championship, a 48-21 victory in Super Bowl XXXVII.

Gruden also ranks among the most outstanding players and coaches in the history of the Arena Football League, having won six combined league championships – four as a quarterback and two as a head coach. Gruden played quarterback (2002-03) and served as head coach (2004-08) of the AFL's Orlando Predators, all while simultaneously working as an offensive assistant with the Buccaneers. In all, Gruden served as head coach of the Predators for nine seasons (1998-2001 and 2004-08), leading the Predators to four championship game appearances and two league titles as a coach. During a two-year hiatus from coaching the Predators in 2002-03, he returned to the playing field as Orlando's quarterback, leading the Predators to playoff appearances in both seasons.

In his eight seasons as a player in the AFL, Gruden completed 1,673-of-2,775 passes (60.3 percent) for 21,578 yards with 398 touchdowns and 99 interceptions. In addition to his time with Orlando, he spent six seasons (1991-96) at quarterback for the Tampa Bay Storm, winning four AFL titles and being named MVP of ArenaBowl VII in 1993. He was also named the 1992 AFL Most Valuable Player and was honored with induction into the AFL Hall of Fame in 1999.

Gruden played quarterback for four seasons for former Redskins draft pick Howard Schnellenberger at the University of Louisville (1985-88) and was a two-time team MVP.

Gruden was born March 4, 1967 in Tiffin, Ohio. He and his wife, Sherry, have three sons — J.J., Joey and Jack.

WHAT THEY SAID ABOUT GRUDEN'S HIRE

"I'm ecstatic for Jay. From the first time we met I've been a Jay Gruden fan, and I'm grateful for what he did for us, his work with a young quarterback and helping take us where we've been, the last three seasons in the playoffs. I knew he might get this kind of opportunity, of course, so it's not a surprise, and I just wish him all the best."

*- Bengals Head Coach Marvin Lewis
Coached with Gruden for the Cincinnati Bengals from 2011-13*

"Jay's first year was my rookie year, and it was cool coming in together and growing and getting better. One thing that really helped make it smooth for me was that from the start, Jay was big on asking my input, what I'm most comfortable with and any ideas I had. With Jay I had a very positive transition from college to the NFL. I feel fortunate to have had him as my only pro coordinator. He's helped me in a lot of ways."

*- Bengals quarterback Andy Dalton
Coached by Gruden on the Cincinnati Bengals from 2011-13*

"I'm really proud of my brother. He's worked extremely hard to get this opportunity. The Washington Redskins are one of the great NFL franchises. I fully expect him to make the most of this opportunity."

- Monday Night Football analyst Jon Gruden Jay's brother, coached together with Tampa Bay from 2002-08

"I think it was a great hire... The Grudens have a coaching history in that family. The dad worked with the 49ers, and I knew him, and then I know Jon. They're well-suited, they know the ins and outs of this, besides the X's and O's and all that. They know how to handle people, they know what comes with the job, the pressures and all. So I think they did their homework and came up with a guy that will be suited well for the town and for the organization and the football part of it."

- Former Redskins General Manager Bobby Beathard, as told to ESPN 980

"The Washington Redskins got it right Thursday in hiring Jay Gruden as their next head coach."

- Jason Reid of The Washington Post in his Jan. 9 column

On Jan. 9, 2014, Redskins Executive Vice President/General Manager (right) introduced Jay Gruden as the 29th head coach in franchise history. "There's a great history here for the Washington Redskins and there's a lot of pride here," Gruden said. "They [fans] want a winner. They don't expect anything else."

"I called him and left a message. I said, 'Hey, congratulations for this wonderful opportunity that the Redskins have given you and that you're my pride and joy because you've exemplified, more than any of my quarterbacks, perseverance, mental toughness, team above self and just plain stubbornness.' He was my quarterback at Louisville in the first year where we went 2-9. He was my quarterback when we went [3-8] and in the third year we go [3-7-1]. Then for his senior year we go 8-3 and even at 8-3 we couldn't get a bowl yet... He persevered and took the long trip. He didn't go up a smooth trail. He took a winding, hard trail to a head coaching job in the National Football League by being the best quarterback that ever was in Arena Football and being the best coach we've ever had in Arena Football. So now he gets his due reward."

- Former Coach Howard Schnellenberger Coached Gruden at Louisville from 1985-88

"We are very excited for Jay to seize this incredible opportunity with the Washington Redskins. He was an exceptional player and coach in the AFL for many years and has been a tremendous ambassador for the sport of Arena Football. We are proud of all that Jay has been able to accomplish since he first stepped onto an AFL field in 1991 and we look forward to seeing him do great things in Washington for years to come."

- Arena Football League Commissioner Jerry B. Kurz

SEAN MCVAY OFFENSIVE COORDINATOR

6TH NFL SEASON // 5TH WITH REDSKINS

Sean McVay was named the Redskins' offensive coordinator on January 15, 2014. McVay enters the 2014 season in his new role after three seasons as the team's tight ends coach (2011-13) and one as an offensive assistant (2010).

In 2013, McVay was instrumental in the development of rookie tight end Jordan Reed, who compiled 45 receptions for 499 yards – both Redskins' single-season rookie tight end records – despite Reed playing in only nine games. Under McVay's tutelage, Reed joined Chris Cooley (2004) as the only Redskins tight ends named to the PFWA All-Rookie Team. In addition, McVay helped tight end Logan Paulsen from an undrafted free agent into a 30-game starter from 2010-13, with Paulsen increasing his reception totals each season.

During Washington's NFC East championship season in 2012, McVay's unit produced despite losing starting tight end Fred Davis to a torn Achilles tendon in Week 7. Davis had led the team in both receptions (24) and receiving yards (325) through seven games before being placed on the Reserve/Injured list. McVay guided a unit that provided reliable receiving options on top of contributing significantly as blockers to the Redskins' league-leading 2,709 rushing yards.

In 2011, McVay played an integral role in Davis' emergence, as the then-fourth-year tight end surpassed his previous career highs despite playing in only 12 games. Davis caught 59 passes for 796 yards, the second-highest total on the team in both categories. Before missing the final four games of the season, Davis was on pace to set a franchise record in receiving yards by a tight end and was on pace to post the first 1,000-yard receiving season by a tight end in Redskins history.

McVay served as an offensive assistant to the Redskins in 2010, in addition to working with the tight ends during the final four weeks of the season following coach Jon Embree's departure. The Redskins offense ranked eighth in the NFL in passing yards per game (244.6) and tight end Chris Cooley ranked second among NFL tight ends in receptions (77) and third in receiving yards (849). The offensive unit also set a franchise record for completions in a season (349), and registered a touchdown pass in 15 consecutive games for the first time in team history. The Redskins' offense led the NFL with nine completions of at least 50 yards, including one in four consecutive games for the first time since 1987.

McVay joined the Redskins prior to the 2010 season after an undefeated regular season with the Florida Tuskers of the United Football League (UFL), where current Redskins Defensive Coordinator Jim Haslett served as the head coach. The Tuskers finished a perfect 6-0 before losing in the UFL's inaugural championship game. McVay served as the Tuskers tight ends coach in addition to working closely with the team's running backs. McVay originally entered the National Football League as an offensive assistant with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers in 2008.

During his time in Tampa Bay, McVay worked closely with wide receiver Antonio Bryant, who recorded career highs in receptions (83), receiving yards (1,248), and touchdowns (seven), en route to winning The Sporting News Comeback Player of the Year Award.

McVay graduated from Miami University (Ohio) where he played wide receiver from 2004-07, earning Miami's Scholar-Athlete Award in 2007. His grandfather, John, served in various roles – including vice president/director of football operations from 1983-94 – for the San Francisco 49ers from 1979-95, overseeing five Super Bowl championship squads and earning induction into the 49ers Hall of Fame in 2013.

JIM HASLETT DEFENSIVE COORDINATOR

30TH NFL SEASON // 5TH WITH REDSKINS

Jim Haslett, who has experienced success in all facets of the National Football League, including as a player, coordinator and head coach, enters his fifth season as the Redskins' defensive coordinator in 2014 after having joined the team on January 15, 2010. He is the only person to be recognized as a College Football Hall of Famer (2001), AP NFL Coach of the Year (2000) and AP Defensive Rookie of the Year (1979).

Haslett is a veteran of 29 NFL seasons, including nine as a player, 13 as an assistant coach and seven as a head coach. Upon joining the Redskins as the team's defensive coordinator prior to the 2010 season, he immediately began emphasizing the importance of turnovers after assuming control of a unit that had produced only 71 takeaways in a four-year span from 2006-09, the Redskins' lowest in a four-year timeframe since the 1970 merger. In Haslett's four years from 2010-13, the Redskins accumulated 105 takeaways, the team's highest four-year total since recording 110 across the 2002-05 seasons.

In 2012, Haslett and his staff sent three linebackers to the Pro Bowl, including second-team All Pro London Fletcher, who won the NFC Defensive Player of the Month award for December. Haslett's unit was in the top five in the NFL in takeaways, rushing yards allowed and passes defended in 2012 despite losing two starters for the season in Week 2. The Redskins finished fourth in the NFC and tied for fifth in the NFL with 31 takeaways. The Redskins' 31 takeaways were the team's most since registering 34 in 2001. The Redskins had seven games in which they registered two or more interceptions for the first time since 1999, coincidentally the last time they were crowned NFC East division champs until 2012. The Redskins finished the season as one of seven teams in the league to allow fewer than 100 rushing yards per game (95.8), ranking third in the NFC, fifth in the NFL and 11th-best in team history.

In 2011, Haslett's defense vastly improved in its second year in a 3-4 scheme, finishing as the 13th-ranked defense in the league after ranking 31st in 2010. His defensive secondary also improved to 12th in the NFL in passing yards allowed per game (222.1) after ranking 31st (261.7) in 2010. His unit produced 41 sacks in 2011, the most for the Redskins since 2000 (45).

Haslett was instrumental in helping transition veteran defensive lineman Barry Cofield from a 4-3 defensive tackle to the nose tackle position as well as help transition rookie linebacker Ryan Kerrigan to a two-point stance after playing defensive end throughout college at Purdue. His tutelage of Kerrigan paid dividends instantly, as the rookie caused a turnover in three of his first four career NFL games (one interception vs. NYG, and a forced fumble in games at DAL and at STL) and was named the NFL's Defensive Rookie of the Month for September. With Haslett's revamped defensive line of Cofield, free agent acquisition Stephen Bowen and a career-best season from Adam Carriker, linebacker London Fletcher amassed an NFL-high and career-high 166 tackles in 2011. Fletcher was also named to the Associated Press 2011 NFL All-Pro Team.

STAFF BIOS

In 2010, Haslett transitioned the Redskins into a 3-4 scheme, a move that helped the team increase its takeaways. The Redskins' 27 takeaways and 14 interceptions were both the team's highest total since 2005. His unit produced three Pro Bowlers, Fletcher, linebacker Brian Orakpo and cornerback DeAngelo Hall, with Hall being named the game's Most Valuable Player. Hall tied a career high with six interceptions in 2010, including an NFL record-tying four-interception performance at Chicago in Week 7. Haslett's scheme helped Orakpo become one of the league's predominant edge rushers, as Orakpo became the first Redskins player ever selected to Pro Bowls in each of his first two seasons.

Haslett served as the head coach for the New Orleans Saints from 2000-05 and was the interim head coach for the St. Louis Rams for a portion of the 2008 season. Haslett previously served as defensive coordinator of the New Orleans Saints in 1996, the Pittsburgh Steelers from 1997-99 and the St. Louis Rams in 2006, 2007, and for the first four games of 2008 before being elevated to head coach. Haslett spent the 2009 season coaching the UFL's Florida Tuskers, which he led to a perfect 6-0 regular season record and a championship game appearance and earning UFL Coach of the Year honors.

During Haslett's first head coaching stint, the Saints were 42-38 during his first five seasons, including one NFC West Championship, with just one losing season (7-9 in 2001). He was a unanimous selection as Associated Press NFL Coach of the Year in 2000, when he led the Saints to their first playoff victory in franchise history. He was also honored as NFL Coach of the Year by The Sporting News and Pro Football Weekly.

Prior to becoming the Saints' head coach, Haslett made his mark as defensive coordinator in Pittsburgh, where he helped the Steelers win the AFC Central division in 1997. In his three years there, Haslett guided his defense to NFL rankings of sixth, 12th, and 11th, respectively. The units were particularly stout against the run, leading the league twice, and finishing third once, in rushing yards allowed per attempt. Linebacker Chad Brown, linebacker Levon Kirkland (twice), safety Carnell Lake (twice), defensive tackle Joel Steed and cornerback Rod Woodson all earned Pro Bowl selections under Haslett's watch.

Haslett began his NFL coaching career as the Los Angeles Raiders' linebackers coach in 1993. After two seasons there, he took the same role in New Orleans in 1996, before being promoted to defensive coordinator in 1997. Haslett also served as defensive coordinator for the World League of American Football's Sacramento Surge (1991-92) and the University at Buffalo (1989-90), where he joined the coaching profession in 1988 as linebackers coach.

Haslett originally entered the NFL as a second-round draft choice of the Buffalo Bills in 1979. As an inside linebacker, he would go on to win Associated Press Defensive Rookie of the Year that season and followed it up with an All-Pro selection in 1980. He played seven seasons for the Bills (1979-85) and was later named to the franchise's Silver Anniversary Team. Haslett finished his playing career with the New York Jets in 1987.

Haslett was born December 9, 1955, in Pittsburgh, where he attended Avalon High School. He played collegiately at Indiana University of Pennsylvania, where he was a four-time Little All-America selection, playing defensive end and linebacker. He was inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame in 2001.

Haslett is married to his wife, Beth, with whom he has three children. His oldest daughter, Kelsey, is a Clemson graduate. His son, Chase, is a quarterback at Indiana University of Pennsylvania, and his youngest daughter, Libby, is entering her freshman year of college. The family currently resides in Ashburn, Va.

BEN KOTWICA

SPECIAL TEAMS COORDINATOR

8TH NFL SEASON // 1ST WITH REDSKINS

Ben Kotwica was named as the Redskins' special teams coordinator on January 15, 2014.

Kotwica is entering his eighth NFL season after spending the first seven years of his NFL career in various coaching capacities with the New York Jets. Before assuming the role of coordinator in 2013, Kotwica assisted with the Jets' special teams in multiple roles across the 2007-12 seasons.

The Jets accounted for 10 combined kick and punt return touchdowns during his time as an assistant, tied for most in the AFC and tied for second-most in the NFL. The Jets averaged a league-best 24.6 yards per kick return in those six seasons and had a kick returner finish in the Top 5 in the NFL in kick return four times (Joe McKnight, 2012; Joe McKnight, 2011; Brad Smith, 2010; and Leon Washington, 2007). Kotwica helped Leon Washington earn his first career Pro Bowl berth as a kick returner following the 2008 season.

In addition to his football career, Kotwica's background includes his time as a decorated officer who spent eight years in the United States Army after graduating from the United States Military Academy at West Point. His military career included operations in Bosnia-Herzegovina, Korea and Iraq.

Kotwica was commissioned as a 2nd Lieutenant in the Aviation Branch of the Army and was selected to fly the AH-64 Apache Longbow, the world's best attack helicopter. He was an Attack Helicopter Platoon Leader in support of the 82nd Airborne Division from 1998-2001, where he was responsible for the health and welfare of 20 soldiers.

In 2000, Kotwica deployed to Bosnia-Herzegovina for eight months before returning to the states to attend the Aviation Captain Career course. He completed the course in the top 10 percent of his class. Two years later, he returned overseas to Camp Page, Korea where he served as a Military Intelligence Officer for six months. In early 2003, he was selected to serve as the Battalion Executive Officer for a unit comprised of more than 300 soldiers, 24 attack helicopters and more than $400 million worth of equipment.

In January 2004, he briefly returned to Fort Hood, Texas to serve as the Training Officer for the 1st Cavalry Division. Two months later, he deployed in support of Operation Iraqi Freedom II, serving as a Combat Attack Helicopter Commander and flying more than 1,000 combat hours in support of five maneuver Brigades within the 1st Cavalry Division. His missions included convoy security operations; VIP escorts for former President George W. Bush, former Secretary of Defense Donald Rumsfeld and former Secretary of State Condoleezza Rice; and search and destroy missions to suppress insurgent activities.

During his service, Kotwica was awarded with the Army Achievement Medal, the Army Commendation Medal, the Meritorious Service Medal and the Bronze Star.

Kotwica played at Army from 1993-96 and was a three-year starter at linebacker. He was the captain of the only 10-win team in Army history, leading the Black Knights to a 10-2 record and the program's most recent Commander-in-Chief's Trophy in 1996.

Kotwica and his wife, Christina, have four children: daughters, Analyssa and Arianna, and sons, Christian and Brayden.

BRIAN BAKER

OUTSIDE LINEBACKERS

19TH NFL SEASON // 1ST WITH REDSKINS

Brian Baker was named the Redskins' outside linebackers coach on January 15, 2014.

Baker joined the Redskins with 30 years of coaching experience to his credit, the last 18 at the NFL level. Prior to coming to Washington, he served as the Cleveland Browns' outside linebackers coach, helping the Browns finish third in the AFC and ninth in the NFL in total defense (332.4 yards per game).

Baker spent the 2011-12 seasons as the defensive line coach with the Dallas Cowboys. Under Baker, nose tackle Jay Ratliff earned a Pro Bowl selection in 2012, and Baker also contributed to the Pro Bowl selections of linebackers DeMarcus Ware and Anthony Spencer as part of his responsibilities overseeing the pass rush.

Prior to his time in Dallas, Baker spent two seasons as the Carolina Panthers' defensive line coach from 2009-10. In 2010, defensive end Charles Johnson led the Panthers with 11.5 sacks, tied for the fourth-most in the NFL. In 2009, defensive end Julius Peppers led the team with 10.5 sacks en route to a Pro Bowl selection.

Baker spent three seasons coaching the St. Louis Rams' defensive line alongside current Redskins Defensive Coordinator Jim Haslett in 2006-08. In 2008, his unit notched 20 of the team's 30 sacks. In 2006, defensive end Leonard Little tied for fifth in the league with 13.0 sacks, while defensive tackle La'Roi Glover finished sixth among NFC defensive tackles with 5.5 sacks.

From 2001-05, Baker worked in various capacities for the Minnesota Vikings, serving as defensive line coach in 2001 and 2004-05 and as linebackers coach from 2002-03. He helped defensive tackle Kevin Williams earn his first of six Pro Bowl selections following the 2004 season. That season, Williams recorded a career-best 11.5 sacks and was selected to the AP All-Pro team. Along with Williams, defensive end Lance Johnstone totaled 11 sacks in 2004 to give the Vikings the third-most prolific sack duo in the league that year with 22.5.

Baker was the Detroit Lions' defensive line coach from 1997-2000, helping defensive linemen Robert Porcher (1997 and 1999) and Luther Elliss (1999 and 2000) earn Pro Bowl selections. In 1999, Porcher registered 15 sacks, the most by any Lion in a single-season since sacks became official in 1982.

Baker made his NFL coaching debut as the defensive line coach with the San Diego Chargers in 1996 after spending 12 years on the collegiate level. He had stints at Georgia Tech (1987-95), Army (1986) and Maryland (1984-85). While with Georgia Tech, the Yellow Jackets claimed the 1990 National Championship as the nation's only unbeaten team with an 11-0-1 record.

A native of Baltimore, Baker played outside linebacker at the University of Maryland from 1980-83 and helped the Terps win the Atlantic Coast Conference in 1983. After his playing career, he helped coach outside linebackers as a student coach and graduate assistant from 1984-85 and earned a degree in marketing in 1985. Baker and his wife, Nevada, have three daughters, Nicole, Jade and Jasmine.

BRADFORD BANTA

ASSISTANT SPECIAL TEAMS

18TH NFL SEASON // 1ST WITH REDSKINS

Bradford Banta was named the Redskins' assistant special teams coach on February 4, 2014.

Prior to joining the Redskins, Banta spent six seasons with the Detroit Lions in various coaching capacities. From 2012-13, Banta served as the Lions' assistant linebackers coach. Under his guidance in 2012, the Lions linebacker corps of Stephen Tulloch, Justin Durant and DeAndre Levy led the Lions in total tackles, finishing with 112, 103 and 81, respectively. In 2013, he contributed to a breakout season for Levy, who led all NFL linebackers with six interceptions.

Banta served as the Lions' assistant special teams coach for four seasons from 2008-11. Banta helped John Wendling tie for first in the NFL in special teams tackles over the 2010-12 seasons (51). Under Banta in 2011, kicker Jason Hanson finished with 126 points, the fourth-best single-season total in Lions history, and Hanson's five 50-yard field goals made him the first player in NFL history to kick 50 50-yard field goals in his career.

In 2010, the Lions' kick return unit was the third-most improved unit in the NFL in kickoff return average with 3.5 more yards per return than in 2009. Detroit also had the NFL's 10th-most significant improvement in punt return average in 2010 (8.8 avg. in 2009, 12.1 avg. in 2010). Detroit had the fourth-most improved kickoff coverage unit, allowing an average of 2.7 less yards per each kick return in 2010.

STAFF BIOS

Before joining the Lions as a coach in 2008, Banta spent the 2007 season as a tight ends coach for the University of Tennessee-Chattanooga.

After being drafted by the Indianapolis Colts in the fourth round of the 1994 NFL Draft, Banta spent six seasons with the Colts and established himself as one of the league's best long snappers. He joined the New York Jets for the 2000 season before playing three seasons with the Detroit Lions from 2001-03. He finished his 11-year playing career with Buffalo in 2004.

Upon his retirement from the NFL, Banta worked with George Wright Construction, as a supervisor, for a year and in Chase's Home Financial Division for nearly two years in Chattanooga, Tenn.

Banta was a two-year starter at tight end at the University of Southern California (1989-93) as well as a four-time letter-winner. He earned Honorable Mention All-Pac 10 Conference honors as a junior and senior and received his bachelor's degree in communications with a minor in sociology in 1993.

A native of Baton Rouge, La., Banta was a Parade All-American as a senior at University High School and helped them to the state championship (1988) while playing tight end and linebacker. He and his wife, Amy, have three children.

MALCOLM BLACKEN

DIRECTOR OF
PLAYER DEVELOPMENT

17TH NFL SEASON // 8TH WITH REDSKINS

Malcolm Blacken enters his second season as the Redskins' Director of Player Development in 2014 after being named to the position on March 13, 2013.

Blacken's hiring served to start his third stint with Washington, having previously served as a strength and conditioning coach for the Redskins on two previous occasions (1996-2000 and 2010). In his last season in Washington in 2010, Blacken was responsible for assisting Ray Wright in all aspects of the Redskins' strength and conditioning program.

From 2011-12, Blacken served as the Director of Speed, Strength & Conditioning for the University of Colorado. He worked directly with the football program on a day-to-day basis while overseeing the speed, strength and conditioning needs of all 16 of Colorado's varsity programs.

In between his first two stops in Washington, Blacken spent nine years as Detroit Lions' strength and conditioning coach from 2001-09. Blacken was an assistant strength coach for the University of Virginia's football program in 1995 and worked with all other sports in the Cavaliers' athletic department as well. For three years (1992-94), Blacken served as the head strength and conditioning coach for George Mason University, where he oversaw the program for all of the university's varsity sports.

Blacken began his coaching career at the University of South Carolina in 1990-91 as the football program's assistant strength and conditioning coach.

Blacken graduated from Virginia Tech in 1989 with bachelor's degrees in art and physical education. He was a Hokies running back from 1984-88 and was a four-time letter winner. While at Virginia Tech, Blacken was a two-time winner of the Super Iron Hokie Award (1987-88), which is given yearly to the football program's strongest player at each position.

Off the field, Blacken is an accomplished artist whose paintings have been displayed across the country. Recently, he participated in the 2014 NFLPA Smocks & Jocks Jazz Brunch and Art Auction during Super Bowl Week in New York City. More about Blacken's art can be accessed by visiting ArtByMalcolm.com.

JACOB BURNEY

DEFENSIVE LINE

20TH NFL SEASON // 5TH WITH REDSKINS

Jacob Burney enters his fifth season with the Washington Redskins in 2014 after being named the Redskins' defensive line coach on January 21, 2010.

In 2013, despite shuffling through defensive ends because of injuries and a suspension, Burney oversaw a group that helped the Redskins rank as the fourth-best in the NFL on third downs (34.0 percent). His unit was particularly disruptive in the run game, tying for second in the NFL in negative rushing plays forced (72).

In 2012, Burney's line helped the defense hold opponents to 95.8 rushing yards per game, which ranked fifth in the NFL and was the 11th-best figure in team history. Nose tackle Barry Cofield had a team-best 35 quarterback pressures/hits as credited by the coaching staff. Cofield and defensive end Stephen Bowen were both voted as defensive captains at midseason, after which point the team concluded with a seven-game winning streak and its first NFC East title since 1999.

In 2011, Burney's defensive line surpassed their full-season sack output from 2010 (9.0) by Week 7, finishing with 18.0 sacks on the year. The line accounted for 44 percent of the team's 41 sacks that season compared to 31 percent of the team's 29 sacks from 2010. The defensive line helped make the Redskins' pass rush one of the most multi-faceted threats in the NFL in 2011. With defensive ends Stephen Bowen (6.0) and Carriker's (5.5) sack totals combined with linebackers Ryan Kerrigan (7.5) and Brian Orakpo (9.0), the Redskins were one of only three NFL teams to have four players with at least 5.5 sacks on the season.

Burney's unit helped the overall defense improve to the 13th-ranked defense in the league from 31st a year before. Carriker's 5.5 sacks in 2011 surpassed his combined total of 3.5 sacks during his first four seasons in the NFL. Cofield, playing at nose tackle for the first time in his career, led all interior linemen with eight pass deflections, while helping free up linebacker London Fletcher to lead the league in tackles with a career-high 166.

In 2010, Burney's defensive line occupied offensive linemen to help free Orakpo and Fletcher to make plays en route to Pro Bowl appearances. His unit helped hold eventual Super Bowl champion Green Bay to 13 points in a Week 5 overtime win, Green Bay's lowest output of the season.

Prior to coming to Washington, Burney spent seven seasons in Denver (2002-08), following stints with Carolina (1999-2001) and Cleveland/Baltimore (1994-98).

Over the course of Burney's seven years in Denver, the Broncos allowed the 10th-fewest yards and 12th-fewest rushing yards in the NFL. They ranked in the top five in rush defense three times during that span.

In 2007, Burney's group recorded nine takeaways (seven fumble recoveries and two interceptions), which led the AFC and ranked second in the NFL among defensive lines. He was instrumental in the development of 2006 fourth-round draft pick Elvis Dumervil, who recorded 26 sacks over his first three seasons, including 12.5 in 2007, his first year as a starter. That total was sixth in the league and Dumervil's four takeaways tied for the most among NFL defensive linemen.

Burney coached defensive ends in 2006 when Denver was one of just three NFL clubs to have a trio of defensive ends register at least six sacks. In 2005, Denver finished 13-3 en route to an AFC West division title, thanks in large part to a run defense that surrendered just 85.2 yards per game, the second-best mark in the NFL. Twice that season the Broncos held opponents to less than 20 yards rushing in a game.

Burney's 2004 defensive line helped the Denver defense rank fourth overall and fourth against the run. Defensive end Reggie Hayward racked up a career-high 10.5 sacks, a figure that ranked third in the AFC that season. The year prior, in 2003, Denver also ranked fourth in the league in overall defense, while defensive end Bertrand Berry racked up a career-high 11.5 sacks and fellow defensive ends Hayward and Trevor Pryce had 8.5 apiece. Pryce was a Pro Bowl selection in 2002 in leading a defense that finished sixth overall in the league and fourth against the run.

In Burney's final two seasons in Carolina (2000-01), the Panthers registered 74 takeaways, which was the fourth-highest total in the league over that period. In 2001, defensive end Mike Rucker registered a career-high and team-leading nine sacks.

Before joining Carolina, Burney spent five seasons with Cleveland/Baltimore as defensive line coach. In his first year with the Browns in 1994, he oversaw a defensive line that helped their defense surrender only 204 points (12.75 per game), nine rushing touchdowns and 3.6 yards per rush attempt. In his final season with the franchise, in Baltimore in 1998, Burney helped develop defensive end Michael McCrary into a Pro Bowl starter, while the defense ranked sixth in the league.

Before entering the professional coaching ranks, Burney spent 11 years coaching on the college level, including stops at New Mexico (1983-86), Tulsa (1987), Mississippi State (1988), Wisconsin (1989), UCLA (1990-92) and Tennessee (1993). He coached the defensive line at each stop, except for Mississippi State where he tutored the inside linebackers.

Burney was a three-time All-Southern Conference selection at Tennessee-Chattanooga, where he earned a bachelor's degree in 1981. A native of Chattanooga, Burney was born Jan. 24, 1959. He and his wife, Madrinna Patton, have two sons: Jacob, who was a four-year letter winner at Bucknell (2002-05) and Benjamin, who was an honorable mention All-Big 12 cornerback as a senior at Colorado in 2009.

SHANE DAY

ASSISTANT OFFENSIVE LINE

6TH NFL SEASON // 1ST WITH REDSKINS

Shane Day joined the Redskins as an assistant offensive line coach on February 4, 2014.

Day joins the Redskins with 13 years of coaching experience across the high school, collegiate and professional levels. He spent the 2012-13 seasons as the quarterbacks coach for the University of Connecticut. In 2013, Day helped the Huskies reverse an 0-9 start to the season, helping the team throw for seven touchdowns to only one interception in a three-game winning streak to close the season after adding play-calling duties.

Day is a veteran of five NFL seasons, having assisted the San Francisco 49ers in a quality control role from 2007-09 and coaching quarterbacks for the Chicago Bears from 2010-11. As a member of the Bears' staff, Day helped the Bears to an 11-5 record in 2010, securing an NFC North championship and an NFC Championship Game appearance. He worked alongside offensive coordinator and former NFL head coach Mike Martz during his time in Chicago.

Prior to his time with the Bears, Day spent three seasons with the San Francisco 49ers, helping the team's quarterbacks in 2007, running backs in 2008 and offensive line in 2009. During Day's time in San Francisco, running back Frank Gore gained 3,258 rushing yards, fifth-most in the NFL in that three-year span.

Day was an offensive quality control coach at Michigan in 2005-06. Among his duties in Ann Arbor were the evaluation of quarterback recruits and the development of the quarterbacks already in the program. Day helped the Wolverines earn a berth in the 2007 Rose Bowl against USC.

Day began his coaching career at Auburn (Wash.) Riverside H.S., where he spent one season coaching the wide receivers (2001) and three overseeing the quarterbacks (2002-04), adding the duties of offensive coordinator during his final two years.

Day played collegiate football as a wide receiver at Rhodes College in Memphis, Tenn., where he also lettered in baseball. A native of Manhattan, Kan., he graduated from Kansas State in 1999 with a degree in English.

Day and his wife Christie are the parents of a daughter, Vivienne.

CHAD ENGLEHART

ASSISTANT STRENGTH AND CONDITIONING

5TH NFL SEASON // 5TH WITH REDSKINS

Chad Englehart is entering his fifth season with the Redskins as the team's assistant strength and conditioning coach.

Prior to joining the Redskins, Englehart served as the head strength and conditioning coach with the Florida Tuskers of the United Football League in 2009. He was a member of Redskins Defensive Coordinator Jim Haslett's staff, who at the time was the Tuskers' head coach. The Tuskers finished with a perfect 6-0 regular season record before losing in the UFL's inaugural championship game.

In 2008, Englehart served as director of strength and conditioning at X-Cel Sports Performance in Louisiana. Before that, he was head strength and conditioning coach at HS2 Athletic Performance in Mandeville, La. (2007) and at the University of New Orleans (2006).

Englehart holds an M.S. in human movement with a concentration in corrective exercise from A.T. Still University. He also holds a B.S. in kinesiology with a concentration in exercise science from Southeastern Louisiana University. He is a certified strength and conditioning specialist with the National Strength and Condition Association and is a Performance Enhancement Specialist and Corrective Exercise Specialist with the National Academy of Sports Medicine (NASM). Englehart also holds certifications with USA Weightlifting and USA Track and Field in addition to a Functional Movement Screen and TRX Suspension Training certifications as well as a Fitness Nutrition Specialist certification from the NASM.

Englehart and his wife, Lyndsey, have two daughters, Blair and Elise.

CHRIS FOERSTER

OFFENSIVE LINE

22ST NFL SEASON // 5TH WITH REDSKINS

Chris Foerster is entering his 22nd season of developing some of the game's top offensive linemen in 2014 in his fifth season as Offensive Line Coach of the Washington Redskins.

Foerster presided over the offensive line partially responsible for the NFL's top rushing attack across the 2012-13 seasons, helping the Redskins amass a league-leading 4,873 in that two-season span. Washington (5.01) was one of only two NFL teams to average at least 5.0 yards per carry across those two years. In 2013, Foerster's unit powered the Redskins to the fifth-most rushing yards in the league (2,164) and helped the Redskins rush for 2,000 yards in consecutive seasons for the first time since 2005-06. He oversaw the continued development of tackle Trent Williams, who earned his second consecutive Pro Bowl berth for his play in 2013.

Foerster led a unit in 2012 that was maligned by many before the start of the season but proved to be one of the league's most productive and most consistent groups. Behind Foerster's unit, Washington rushed for a team-record 2,709 yards, marking the franchise's first team rushing crown since 1933, the team's second year of existence. The line was an integral part of Washington's first NFC East championship since 1999, blocking for the team's young backfield in 2012 that featured rookie quarterback Robert Griffin III (who set the NFL rookie record for passer rating - 102.4), rookie quarterback Kirk Cousins (who threw for a team-season-high 329 yards in his only start) and rookie running back Alfred Morris (who became the team record holder for rushing yards in a season - 1,613).

In 2011, Foerster played an integral role in developing an offensive line that featured 10 different starting combinations in 16 games. Foerster helped groom two rookies as starters, as undrafted rookie tackle Willie Smith and seventh-round rookie guard Maurice Hurt started a combined 11 games for the Redskins in Weeks 9-16. The line helped pave the way for three different rushers to compile a total of six 100-yard single-game rushing performances, including three by rookie running back Roy Helu, two by rookie running back Evan Royster, and one by running back Ryan Torain.

During the 2010 season, Foerster molded an offensive line featuring four new starters into a unit that helped Washington feature one of the league's most explosive downfield passing attacks. The protection of Foerster's line played an integral role in allowing the Redskins to lead the league in 50-plus-yard receptions in 2010 (nine). He continues to help develop left tackle Trent Williams, the team's 2010 first-round pick (fourth overall), who started 14 games as a rookie.

Prior to joining the Redskins in 2010, Foerster spent two years as the offensive line coach of the San Francisco 49ers. In 2009, Foerster's line helped running back Frank Gore rush for 1,120 yards, the second-highest total of his career and his fourth consecutive 1,000-yard season. Gore also set a career high with 10 rushing touchdowns and earned his second Pro Bowl selection.

Foerster was originally hired as the 49ers Co-Offensive Line Coach on February 15, 2008 before assuming the title of Offensive Line Coach in Week 8 of the 2008 season.

Foerster's 2008 line helped pave the way for running back Frank Gore's third consecutive 1,000-yard rushing season, while also blocking for an offensive unit that ranked fifth in the NFL in plays of 20-or-more yards (64). In the final eight games of the season, the offensive line limited opponents to two sacks per game after allowing four sacks per contest during the first half of the year.

During his 21-year NFL coaching career, Foerster's teams have combined for 11 playoff appearances and two championship games. During that time, he has coached at least one Pro Bowl player in 13 of those seasons.

Prior to joining the 49ers, Foerster spent three years (2005-07) as the offensive line coach and assistant head coach for the Baltimore Ravens. Under Foerster, 2013 Pro Football Hall of Fame inductee Jonathan Ogden made the Pro Bowl in all three seasons. In 2007, the offensive line cleared the way for running back Willis McGahee to rush for 1,207 yards, the second-highest total of his career, and earn a trip to the Pro Bowl. The 2006 Ravens offense set team records for fewest sacks allowed (17) and most wins in a season (13).

Before joining the Ravens, Foerster served as the offensive coordinator for the Miami Dolphins (2004), tight ends coach for the Indianapolis Colts (2002-03) and offensive line coach for the Tampa Bay Buccaneers (1996-2001). While in Tampa Bay, Foerster helped three players make a combined five Pro Bowl appearances - Tony Mayberry (1997-99), Jeff Christy (2000) and Randall McDaniel (2000). As the assistant offensive line/tight ends coach for the Minnesota Vikings (1993-95), Foerster helped tutor Hall of Fame guard Randall McDaniel, who earned Pro Bowl appearances in all three seasons and was inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 2009.

Now entering his fourth decade in coaching, Foerster has also previously made an impact in the collegiate ranks, serving as the offensive line coach for the University of Minnesota (1992), assistant offensive line/special teams coach for Stanford (1988-91) and offensive line coach for Colorado State (1983-87). He began his coaching career in 1982 as a graduate assistant at Colorado State after a successful career with the Rams as a center from 1979-82. Foerster originally joined the Rams football team as a walk-on before earning a scholarship as a sophomore.

IKE HILLIARD

WIDE RECEIVERS

16TH NFL SEASON // 2ND WITH REDSKINS

Ike Hilliard returned for his second stint as the Redskins' wide receivers coach on January 20, 2014.

Hilliard served in the same capacity with the Buffalo Bills in 2013, helping mold a young group that included rookie second-round pick Robert Woods (40 receptions for 587 yards with three touchdowns) and rookie third-round pick Marquise Goodwin (17 receptions for 283 yards with three touchdowns).

In his first stint with the Redskins in 2012, Hilliard guided the team's receivers to the franchise's first division title since 1999. He integrated free agents Pierre Garçon and Joshua Morgan into the offense, helping Garçon lead the team in receiving yards (633 in only 10 games) and helping Morgan lead the Redskins in receptions (48). Hilliard also oversaw the resurgence of veteran slot receiver Santana Moss, who caught 41 passes for 573 yards and eight touchdowns, his most since recording nine receiving touchdowns in his first season in Washington in 2005. The group's toughness on the perimeter also helped the offense rush for a league-best 2,709 yards, a franchise record.

In 2011, Hilliard served as the assistant wide receivers coach for the Miami Dolphins. He helped in the development of wide receiver Brandon Marshall, who was selected for his third Pro Bowl and first as a member of the Dolphins. Additionally, Marshall finished third in the AFC in receiving yards with 1,214 and recorded his fifth-consecutive 1,000-plus yard season.

Prior to joining the Dolphins, Hilliard spent two seasons coaching for the Florida Tuskers of the United Football League. Hilliard worked as a volunteer coach with the Tuskers in 2009 under current Redskins Defensive Coordinator Jim Haslett, who served as the team's head coach. Hilliard was elevated to the position of Receivers Coach for 2010 under current Redskins Head Coach Jay Gruden.

As a player, Hilliard was a first-round selection in the 1997 NFL Draft (No. 7 overall). He played 12 seasons, eight with the New York Giants (1997-2004) and four with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers (2005-08). In 161 career games (106 starts), Hilliard caught 546 passes for 6,397 yards and 35 touchdowns.

Hilliard played collegiately at the University of Florida from 1994-96, catching 126 passes for 2,214 yards and 26 touchdowns. He earned first-team All-SEC and All-America honors as a junior and, in the final game of the season, finished with seven catches for 150 yards and three touchdowns in leading the Gators to a 52-20 Sugar Bowl win to secure the school's first national championship.

Hilliard is a native of Patterson, La.

RANDY JORDAN

RUNNING BACKS

11TH NFL SEASON // 1ST WITH REDSKINS

Randy Jordan was named the Redskins' running back coach on January 26, 2014.

Jordan is a veteran of nine NFL seasons as a player from 1993-2002, appearing in 122 career games with the Raiders and Jaguars. He was the recipient of the NFL Unsung Hero Award and the Ed Block Courage Award in 2001 and served as special teams captain for the Raiders' AFC Championship team in 2002.

Before joining the Redskins, Jordan spent two years as the running backs coach at the University of North Carolina. In his first season with UNC in 2012, Jordan's Tar Heels averaged 193.8 rushing yards per game, third-most in the Atlantic Coast Conference and the program's highest average since 1994. That season, he tutored tailback Giovani Bernard – who played for current Redskins Head Coach Jay Gruden in Cincinnati in 2013 – to one of the best seasons in UNC history, helping Bernard average 122.8 rushing yards per game, most in the ACC and 11th in the nation.

Jordan was part of an offensive staff that helped Carolina set more than 35 school records, including total points, points per game and total offense.

Jordan coached running backs at Texas A&M for four seasons from 2008-11. In 2011, the Aggies averaged 199.1 rushing yards per game, fourth-most in the Big 12 Conference, and had two different backs – Cyrus Gray and Christine Michael – finish among the top five in the conference in rushing yards per game. Under Jordan's tutelage, Gray was a three-time All-Big 12 performer and exiting ranking third in conference history in all-purpose yards.

Jordan came to Aggeland from the University of Nebraska where he served as the running backs coach for the Cornhuskers from 2004-07. Jordan helped shape the I-back position, coaching two 1,000-yard rushers in Cody Ross in 2004 and Marlon Lucky in 2007. He oversaw a committee of backs in 2006 that produced nearly 2,400 rushing yards and 26 rushing touchdowns, as an improved effort on the ground helped NU move from 107th in 2005 to 23rd nationally in rushing offense in 2006.

Jordan began his coaching career with the Oakland Raiders as a special teams assistant midway through the 2003 season. He played nine years in the NFL as a running back, playing in 122 career games from 1993 through 2002. He began his career with the Los Angeles Raiders before joining the expansion Jacksonville Jaguars in 1995 and playing three seasons. Jordan holds the distinction of scoring the very first touchdown for the Jacksonville club, a 71-yard reception against Cincinnati in 1995.

After the 1997 season, Jordan rejoined the Raiders' organization where he played five more seasons. In 1998, Jordan rushed for 159 yards for the Raiders. He had a career-high 213 yards rushing and three touchdowns in helping the Raiders reach the AFC Championship Game in 2000. He also caught 27 passes for 299 yards and a touchdown that same season.

Jordan finished his career with 574 yards rushing and seven touchdowns, while making 58 catches for 596 yards and two touchdowns. Jordan was also a standout special teams player. He finished his career with 801 yards on 38 career kick returns, including a season best of 553 yards on 26 returns for Jacksonville in 1996. He also recorded 64 career tackles on special teams.

Jordan played for the University of North Carolina and head coach Mack Brown from 1989-92. He earned three letters for the Tar Heels rushing for 1,134 yards and nine touchdowns in his career, including 618 yards and seven touchdowns in 1991.

Jordan earned his degree in speech communication from North Carolina in 1993. He was born in Manson, N.C. Jordan and his wife, Romonda, have a daughter, Raven, and two sons, Jalen and Justin.

PAUL KELLY

DIRECTOR OF FOOTBALL OPERATIONS

16TH NFL SEASON // 5TH WITH REDSKINS

Entering his 16th NFL season in 2014, Paul Kelly begins his fifth as the Redskins' Director of Football Operations. Kelly, who was named to the post on February 16, 2010, will work directly with Head Coach Jay Gruden and is responsible for coordinating the team's daily operations, including all travel and accommodations for home and away games, managing all football department budgets, coordination of training camp logistics and managing the year-round football schedule.

Additionally, Kelly serves as the coaching staff's liaison on all matters relating to the athletic training, equipment, video and the public relations departments, serving as the point of communication in administering every Redskins practice and team function, including all mini-camps, OTA days and training camp.

The 2012 season represented the third season in which Kelly had overseen football operations for the Redskins, ending the season as NFC East champions.

Kelly previously spent five seasons with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers (2004-08) and six seasons with the Oakland Raiders (1998-2003). He spent the 2009 season assisting the broadcast team of ESPN's Monday Night Football.

In his five seasons with the Buccaneers, Kelly worked directly with Head Coach Jon Gruden in organizing football operations for the club and directed many of the day-to-day operations of the team. During Kelly's five seasons as a member of the Buccaneers' staff, the Buccaneers captured NFC South titles in 2005 and 2007.

Kelly spent six seasons (1998-2003) as an assistant on the Oakland Raiders coaching staff, which included three consecutive Division Championships (2000, 2001 & 2002). In 2002, he helped Head Coach Bill Callahan guide Oakland to its first Super Bowl appearance in 19 years as the Raiders represented the AFC in Super Bowl XXXVII.

Kelly graduated with a degree in business administration with an emphasis in new ventures and small business management from California State University Hayward in 1990. Prior to joining the Raiders, he owned and managed his own San Francisco Bay Area-based businesses.

Kelly and his wife, Catherine, have three children. His oldest, Colin, is a student at William & Mary. His daughter Lauren and son, Hunter, are high school students.

RAHEEM MORRIS

DEFENSIVE BACKS

12TH NFL SEASON // 3RD WITH REDSKINS

Raheem Morris is entering his third season with the Washington Redskins after having been hired as the team's defensive backs coach on January 23, 2012.

In 2012, Morris' unit helped the defense finish fourth in the NFC and tied for fifth in the NFL with 31 takeaways, surpassing their total of 21 from 2011. The Redskins defense scored four defensive touchdowns for the first time since 1999, including two from the secondary. Morris oversaw a unit that tied a league-high in passes defended (94) and ranked fifth in the NFC in interception rate (3.3 percent).

From 2009-11, Morris was the head coach of the Tampa Bay Buccaneers after having been hired as the league's youngest head coach in 2009. In 2010, his team finished with a 10-6 record one season removed from finishing 3-13, marking the best single-season turnaround in the NFL in 2010 and the largest turnaround in Buccaneers' history.

Prior to his tenure as head coach, Morris served in multiple capacities with the Buccaneers during two different stints with the team. He spent two seasons as the team's defensive backs coach from 2007-08, during which time the Buccaneers allowed only 170.5 passing yards per game, the lowest total in the NFC and the second-lowest total in the league. In those two seasons, the Buccaneers totaled 22 interceptions, tied for the most in the NFC.

Morris spent one year as the defensive coordinator at Kansas State University in 2006. Morris helped garner conference recognition for seven players on his defensive unit, including two first-team All-Big 12 honorees and one second-team selection.

Morris' NFL coaching debut came in 2002, when he served as the defensive quality control coach for the Buccaneers en route to the team's first championship in Super Bowl XXXVII. That season, the Buccaneers' defense allowed a league-low 12.3 points per game, the third-lowest average allowed by an NFL team since 2000. He served as a defensive assistant in 2003 and as an assistant defensive backs coach from 2004-05.

During his 10 seasons with the Buccaneers, Tampa Bay finished ranked in the Top 5 in the NFL in total defense five times, including No. 1 rankings in 2002 and 2005. Additionally, the defense finished as the top-ranked pass defense on three occasions (2002, 2004 and 2007) and seventh or better in seven of 10 seasons with Morris on the staff.

Morris began his collegiate coaching career as an undergraduate assistant coach at Hofstra in 1998, where he was responsible for coaching the offensive scout team, developing scouting reports and handling video breakdown and computer input and analysis. He then landed at Cornell University as defensive backs coach and special teams assistant for the 1999 season. Morris joined Tampa Bay after spending 2000-01 seasons as defensive backs coach at Hofstra University. He also spent time in the fall of 2001 with the New York Jets, serving a defensive minority internship.

Morris played collegiately as a safety at Hofstra from 1994-97, and received his Bachelor of Science degree in physical education. Morris, an Irvington, N.J. native, was presented the Key to the City in his hometown during "Raheem Morris Day" on June 5, 2009.

KIRK OLIVADOTTI

INSIDE LINEBACKERS

12TH NFL SEASON // 12TH WITH REDSKINS

Kirk Olivadotti was named the Redskins' inside linebackers coach on January 16, 2014.

Olivadotti returned to the Redskins – with whom he spent 11 NFL seasons in various capacities from 2000-10 – after three years coaching inside linebackers at the University of Georgia from 2011-13. Olivadotti is one of 11 members of the Redskins' assistant coach honor roll, which recognizes coaches with at least 10 seasons of service as an assistant in Washington.

At Georgia, Olivadotti coached a linebacker corps that produced NFL draft picks Jarvis Jones and Alec Ogletree. The Bulldogs averaged 10 wins a season in Olivadotti's three years, including ending the 2012 season with a 12-2 record and a No. 5 national ranking.

During Olivadotti's initial 11-season stint with the Redskins, Washington finished in the top 10 in the NFL in overall defense on eight occasions. The Redskins allowed an average of 313.1 yards per game in Olivadotti's 11 years on staff, fourth-fewest in the NFC and seventh-fewest in the NFL in that time frame.

In 2009, he tutored a pair of linebackers to their first Pro Bowl in London Fletcher, who earned his initial trip in his 12th season, and Brian Orakpo, who was one of four NFL rookies selected. Fletcher led the Redskins in tackles with 172 and added two sacks, one interception and 10 passes defended. He eclipsed the 100-tackle mark for the 11th consecutive season.

Orakpo became the first Redskins defensive rookie to make the Pro Bowl since the 1970 merger. He is only the second Redskins rookie to be chosen, joining kick returner Tony Green (1978). Orakpo finished with 60 tackles, including three for loss, 11 sacks for 76 yards lost, one forced fumble and two passes defended. He led all rookies in sacks and tied for most among NFC linebackers with Dallas' DeMarcus Ware. Orakpo's 11 sacks finished tied for seventh in the NFL and fourth in the NFC, and set the franchise rookie record, surpassing the previous mark of six by Dean Hamel (1985) and Andre Collins (1990).

In 2008, Olivadotti's linebackers played a pivotal role in Washington ranking fourth overall in yards allowed per game (288.8), sixth in points allowed per game (18.5) and eighth in rushing yards allowed per game (95.4 yards).

The previous year, in Olivadotti's first season as linebackers coach, Washington finished eighth in the NFL in overall defense (305.3 yards per game) and fourth in the league in rush defense (91.3 yards per game). The tandem of Fletcher (156 tackles) and Rocky McIntosh (105 tackles) finished as the team's top tacklers.

Throughout his NFL coaching career, Olivadotti has worked with some of the best defensive minds in the NFL, including Ray Rhodes, Marvin Lewis, Gregg Williams, Greg Blache and Jim Haslett. Olivadotti began his NFL coaching career with the Redskins in 2000 as a defensive quality control coach. He served in that role for four seasons and also helped coach the defensive backs.

He continued as quality control coach in 2004, but also took on a role assisting the Redskins' special teams units. In 2006, Olivadotti's role expanded to working with the Redskins' defensive line.

Olivadotti began his coaching career on the college level, working with wide receivers and tight ends at Maine Maritime for one season (1997). He moved to Indiana State as an assistant coach for two years (1998-99) before making the transition to Washington and the NFL.

Olivadotti was a four-year letter winner as a wide receiver at Purdue from 1993-96. He earned his bachelor's degree in education and his master's degree in education administration, both from Purdue. He is the son of Tom Olivadotti, a long-time defensive coach in the NFL with Cleveland, Miami, Minnesota, the New York Giants and Houston. Kirk and his wife, Keely, have a daughter, Kasyn, and a son, Kruz.

JAKE PEETZ

OFFENSIVE QUALITY CONTROL

6TH NFL SEASON // 1ST WITH REDSKINS

Jake Peetz joined the Redskins as an offensive quality control coach on February 4, 2014.

Peetz spent the 2013 season as an offensive analyst for the football program at the University of Alabama, assisting the quarterbacks and helping the Crimson Tide to an 11-2 record. Alabama spent the first 13 weeks of the season as the nation's top-ranked team and boasted the nation's consensus top recruiting class for 2014, according to Rivals.com, ESPN.com, Scout.com and 247sports.com.

Peetz spent five seasons with the Jacksonville Jaguars from 2008-12. He initially joined the Jaguars as a scouting assistant in May 2008 and later was named the team's BLESTO scout in June 2010. In 2012, the team named Peetz as an offensive assistant, where he assisted quarterbacks coach Greg Olson with the quarterbacks in addition to handling quality control duties.

Peetz began his college coaching career in 2006 at Santa Barbara City College, where he served as the safeties coach and strength & conditioning coordinator. He served as a defensive quality control coach at UCLA in 2007 and moved to offensive quality control in 2008, assisting offensive coordinator Norm Chow with the quarterbacks before joining the Jaguars in May 2008.

Peetz earned his bachelor's degree in Exercise Science in December of 2005 while playing football at the University of Nebraska. A walk-on, Peetz served in a reserve role on in the Husker secondary and on special teams.

WES PHILLIPS

TIGHT ENDS

8TH NFL SEASON // 1ST WITH REDSKINS

Wes Phillips was named the Redskins' tight ends coach on January 17, 2014.

Prior to joining the Redskins, Phillips spent seven seasons in various capacities with the Dallas Cowboys. He joined Dallas in 2007 as the club's quality control/offensive assistant coach before relinquishing his role as a quality control coach in 2011 to become the club's assistant offensive line coach in addition to continuing to assist special teams. In 2013, Phillips was named the tight ends coach, helping Jason Witten post the second-most touchdowns in a season in his career (eight).

In 2012, Phillips assisted with an offensive line that helped the Cowboys finish with 5,994 net yards, the third-most in a season in franchise history, and set a single-season club record with 4,729 passing yards despite having Phil Costa, the team's starting center, for only three games. In 2011, the unit integrated new starters at four of the five positions, helping Tony Romo post his third career 4,000-yard season while rookie running back DeMarco Murray established a single-game team rushing record with a 253-yard performance against St. Louis (10/23).

In Phillips' four seasons as Dallas' quality control/offensive assistant coach from 2007-10, the Cowboys' offense posted total yardage numbers ranking in the Top 10 in team history three times, including setting single-season club records in 2010 that included 6,390 yards of total offense – marking the first time a Cowboys team topped 6,000 yards in a season in team history – and 4,287 passing yards. The offense as a whole finished second in the league in total offense, averaging 399.4 yards per game.

Before landing in Dallas, Phillips coached quarterbacks at Baylor in 2006. His work with quarterback Shawn Bell paid dividends as Bell established school single-season records despite missing the final three games with a knee injury.

Prior to his one-year stint at Baylor, Phillips spent two seasons as the quarterbacks coach at West Texas A&M University. The Buffaloes celebrated their most successful season in almost 55 years in 2005, finishing 10-2 to post their first winning season since 1998 and the program's first 10-win season since 1950. WTAMU won the Lone Star Conference with an 8-1 record, its first league title since 1986 and advanced to the quarterfinals of the NCAA D-II Playoffs for the first time in school history.

Phillips was an assistant coach at WTAMU and helped the school lead the 2005 Division II ranks in passing offense, racking up 363.8 yards-per-game. He tutored quarterback Dalton Bell, a finalist for the Harlon Hill Trophy, which goes to the top Division II player.

Prior to joining the WTAMU staff, Phillips spent one season as a student assistant coach at his alma mater, UTEP, and played two seasons at quarterback for the San Diego Riptide of the af2.

A three-year letterwinner at UTEP (1999-2001), Phillips was a member of the 2000 Miners team that shared the WAC title, posted the school's highest win total in more than a decade and played in the Humanitarian Bowl. Phillips left the collegiate ranks among the school's single-season leaders in both pass efficiency (ninth – 120.0 in 2001) and completion percentage (eighth – 55.6 in 2001).

Phillips received his degree in philosophy from UTEP in 2001. Phillips and his wife, Anna, were married in 2009 and have one daughter, Ivy, and a son, Mac.

AUBREY PLEASANT

DEFENSIVE ASSISTANT

2ND NFL SEASON // 2ND WITH REDSKINS

Aubrey Pleasant is entering his second season with the Redskins and his first as a defensive quality control coach in 2014. He served as an offensive assistant in his first season in Washington in 2013.

Following the 2012 NFL season, Pleasant was an offensive staff/head coach intern for the Cleveland Browns before joining the Redskins. Prior to his time in Cleveland, he spent two years with the University of Michigan as a defensive graduate assistant, helping the team appear in back-to-back bowl games. Working specifically with the defensive backs in 2011, Michigan allowed 190.5 yards passing per game and 17.4 points per game, ranking No. 16 and sixth in the nation, respectively. Michigan's total defense improved to No. 17 in the nation (322.2 ypg.) after ranking No. 110 (450.8 ypg.) in the year prior to Pleasant's arrival. Michigan's defense allowed only 12 touchdown passes, led the Big Ten with 29 takeaways and tied for first in Football Bowl Subdivision (FBS) with 20 fumble recoveries.

In 2012, Pleasant was promoted to Assistant Defensive Backs Coach, helping Michigan's total defense (320.0 ypg.) and passing yards allowed (169.5 ypg.) improve to No. 13 and No. 5 in the country, respectively. Following Michigan's 2012 season, Pleasant was one of 30 coaches nationwide invited to the NCAA Future Football Coaches Academy in San Antonio.

Pleasant coached defensive backs at Grand Blanc (Mich.) H.S. in 2010 and was a behavioral specialist/special needs teacher in the Flint (Mich.) Community School District. His duties included working directly with cognitively-impaired and academically-neglected adult students to help educate them within the Flint school district.

Pleasant was a three-year letterman at Wisconsin from 2005-08, appearing in 41 career games with 14 starts at safety. He finished his collegiate career with 80 tackles, 4.5 tackles for loss, two sacks, one forced fumble and appeared in four consecutive bowl games: Capitol One (2005 and 2006), Outback (2007) and Champs Sports (2008). Pleasant received a master's degree in education while coaching at Michigan and earned his bachelor's degree in sociology from Wisconsin in 2009.

Pleasant is a native of Flint, Mich., where he graduated from the city's Montrose H.S., receiving Class B all-state honorable mention honor at safety his senior year. He attended Flint Northern H.S. and earned all-city running back honors as a sophomore.

RAY WRIGHT

STRENGTH AND CONDITIONING

15TH NFL SEASON // 7TH WITH REDSKINS

Ray Wright is entering his fifth season of his second stint with the Redskins after being named the head strength and conditioning coach on February 12, 2010.

Wright joined the Redskins after spending eight seasons with the Houston Texans. He was named the Texans' head strength and conditioning coach in 2009 after serving the previous seven seasons as the team's assistant strength and conditioning coach.

Wright oversees all aspects of the Redskins' workout program, getting the team in peak condition for training camp and throughout the season. He is certified by both the National Strength and Conditioning Association and the American College of Sports Medicine.

Before going to Houston, Wright spent one season as the assistant strength and conditioning coach at the University of Maryland in 2001, helping the Terrapins' football team capture the Atlantic Coast Conference title and a berth in the Orange Bowl.

Prior to his stint in College Park, Wright spent six months with the Chicago Bears as a college and pro personnel assistant. He spent the 2000 season as the recruiting coordinator at Cornell University.

This marks Wright's second stint with the Redskins as he originally entered the NFL in 1997 as a scouting intern with Washington. He was promoted to college/pro scouting administrator in 1998, then to the club's director of player programs in 1999.

Wright played football at Duke from 1990-95 before working as a personal trainer for one year in Durham, N.C.

A native of Fort Worth, Texas, Wright is a certified strength and conditioning specialist by the American College of Sports Medicine. He is married to his wife, Angela.

BRET MUNSEY

SPECIAL PROJECTS

2ND NFL SEASON // 1ST WITH REDSKINS

Bret Munsey was hired to oversee Special Projects as part of the team's coaching staff during the 2014 offseason.

Prior to joining the Redskins, Munsey served as a National Football Scout for the Philadelphia Eagles during the 2013 season. He spent the 2011-12 season as the head coach of the Orlando Predators of the Arena Football League. Prior to his stint in Orlando, he served two seasons as the director of player personnel for the Florida Tuskers of the UFL (2009-10), working with current Redskins head coach Jay Gruden and defensive coordinator Jim Haslett.

From 2006-08, Munsey served as head coach of the AFL's Philadelphia Soul, Munsey finished with a 35-20 overall record, including a 13-3 record and Arena Bowl title in 2008. In his first season with the Soul, Munsey led the team to their first postseason appearance in franchise history in his first season, finishing with a 9-7 record.

During his first stint with the Predators in 2003 he served as the team's secondary coach and director of player personnel.

In 2002, Munsey was the head coach of the Tennessee Valley Vipers in the AF2 league where he was named the league's coach of the year. He spent one season with the Carolina Cobras of the AFL in 2001, after beginning his coaching career in 2000 as the defensive coordinator of the Augusta Stallions of the AF2 league.

A native of Winter Park, Fla., Munsey was a three-sport star at Winter Park H.S. He played collegiately at Concord University (W.Va.) and played professionally for the Predators from 1991-95.

FRONT OFFICE

ERIC SCHAFFER

VP OF FOOTBALL ADMINISTRATION/GENERAL COUNSEL

12TH NFL SEASON // 12TH WITH REDSKINS

Eric Schaffer is entering his 12th season with the Redskins and his eighth as Vice President of Football Administration. He is the Club's chief contract negotiator and is responsible for the strategic planning, management, and forecasting of the Redskins' salary cap and cash budgets. In addition, Schaffer conducts extensive research and analysis of NFL player contracts and evaluates the roster composition of each club throughout the NFL. He also serves as the Redskins' primary liaison to the NFL Management Council.

In addition to his role as VP of Football Administration, Schaffer serves as the Redskins' General Counsel, advising the Club on all legal matters and contributing significantly to the Team's business operations. His areas of oversight include sponsorships, licensing, vendor and employment agreements (for football and non-football employees), human resources issues, as well as workers' compensation, among various others.

Schaffer has worked closely with President and General Manager Bruce Allen during his tenure to help reshape the Redskins' roster. In the 2014 offseason, he played an integral role in signing prominent unrestricted free agents DeSean Jackson, Jason Hatcher, Andre Roberts, and Shawn Lauvao among many others. In addition, Schaffer negotiated multi-year contract extensions with Redskins potential free agents DeAngelo Hall, Chris Baker, and Perry Riley prior to the start of the 2014 NFL League Year. In 2013, he played an instrumental role in keeping the core of the 2012 NFC East championship squad together despite the challenge of a $36 million salary cap penalty over the course of the 2012-13 seasons. Such signings included starting offensive linemen Kory Lichtensteiger and Tyler Polunbus and restricted free agents Logan Paulsen, Darrel Young and Rob Jackson. During the 2012 offseason, Schaffer was responsible for signing one of the NFL's most sought-after young free agent wide receivers – Pierre Garçon (25, at the time of signing).

In the 2011 offseason abbreviated by the NFL labor dispute, Schaffer helped the team secure several key players in a flurry of activity after a new Collective Bargaining Agreement was agreed upon by the NFL and NFL-PA. Among those signings were defensive end Stephen Bowen, guard Chris Chester, and nose tackle Barry Cofield. In 12 seasons (2003-14) with the Redskins, Schaffer has negotiated the contracts for every one of Washington's draft picks, including 13 first- and second-round picks.

Schaffer originally joined the Redskins in 2003 as the team's salary cap manager. He was promoted first to Director of Football Administration in 2005 and again to Vice President of Football Administration in 2007. Schaffer added the General Counsel role in 2012.

Prior to joining the Redskins, Schaffer spent 11 years with International Management Group (IMG) in various roles. He started as an intern for IMG's founder, the late Mark McCormack, and moved on to their motorsports division where he sold corporate sponsorships and managed young race car drivers. He eventually became the staff counsel for IMG Football, where he oversaw all legal issues related to 90 NFL clients and negotiated player contracts as an NFLPA registered agent.

Schaffer holds both a bachelor's degree in history from the University of Michigan and a law degree from Case Western Reserve University where he completed his studies while working full time for IMG. A native of Cleveland, Ohio, and a member of the Ohio Bar Association, Schaffer currently resides in Ashburn, Va., with his wife, Jaymie, and three children, Cameron (8), Logan (6) and Bailey (3).

SCOTT CAMPBELL

DIRECTOR OF PLAYER PERSONNEL

28TH NFL SEASON // 14TH WITH REDSKINS

Scott Campbell is entering his 28th NFL season and his 14th with the Washington Redskins in 2014. Campbell has had two different stints overseeing either the club's college or pro scouting departments during his tenure with Washington, and assumed an expanded role directing both departments in the 2008 offseason.

Campbell oversees a department that has retooled the Redskins' roster from one of the oldest in the league into the young nucleus that comprised the bulk of Washington's NFC East championship team in 2012.

He has been part of a group that helped identify impact free agent signings Pierre Garçon, Barry Cofield, Stephen Bowen and others, as well as overseen a draft effort that has produced a Pro Bowler with every first round pick of the Bruce Allen era (2010 - Trent Williams; 2011 - Ryan Kerrigan; 2012 - Robert Griffin III). Since Campbell's return to college scouting in 2006, every first round selection has qualified for the Pro Bowl (Griffin III, Kerrigan, Williams, Brian Orakpo and LaRon Landry).

Campbell also played an integral role in Washington evaluating and eventually selecting running back Alfred Morris in the sixth round of the 2012 NFL Draft. Morris would go from being viewed a marginal prospect — considered by many observers to be better suited at fullback — to consequently shattering the Redskins' single-season rushing record with 1,613 yards in his rookie season. Morris rushed for 2,888 yards across the 2012-13 seasons, the ninth-most rushing yardage of any running back in his first two NFL seasons, and his 2,888 rushing yards from 2012-13 were second-most in the NFL in that time frame.

Campbell originally joined the Redskins in 2001 as Director of College Scouting, overseeing the area scouts and assisting with the Redskins' draft operations before heading up the scouting of pro personnel for the next four seasons. He returned in 2006 to take charge of the college scouting department, where he spent two seasons before being promoted to his current role.

Previously, Campbell spent the 2000 season in Chicago as the Bears' director of pro personnel, after three seasons in Kansas City, serving as the southeast area scout (1997-99).

Campbell began his NFL career with the Atlanta Falcons in 1987, serving as an assistant to his father, Head Coach Marion Campbell - who also served as the defensive coordinator for the NFC Champion Philadelphia Eagles in 1980. Campbell spent three years as the administrative assistant to the coaching staff, helping coordinate training camp, scouting, quality control and additional football logistics. In 1990, he moved over to Atlanta's personnel department full-time for a seven-season run as an area scout.

Campbell earned his bachelor's degree in education from the University of Georgia in 1984, where he played on the offensive line for three SEC Championship squads, including the 1980 National Championship team. He went on to earn a master's degree in education from Auburn University in 1986, while working with the Tigers' coaching staff as a graduate assistant from 1985-86. Campbell and his wife, Cindy, have two daughters, Courtney and Caroline, and live in Ashburn, Va.

FRONT OFFICE

A.J. SMITH
SENIOR EXECUTIVE

30TH NFL SEASON // 2ND WITH REDSKINS

A.J. Smith is entering his second season as a Senior Executive for the Washington Redskins in 2014.

Smith is entering his 30th NFL season and his second in Washington after 14 seasons with the San Diego Chargers in various capacities. After two years as Assistant General Manager/Director of Pro Personnel with the Chargers from 2001-02, Smith served as the team's Executive Vice President/General Manager from 2003-12. His 95 wins as general manager are a Chargers record.

Smith assumed the Chargers' head role following three seasons in which the team had finished a collective 13-35 before eventually winning five AFC West titles under his direction. In his time as General Manager, the Chargers won 98 combined regular season and postseason games, fifth-most in the AFC and sixth-most in the NFL.

Before Smith was named general manager, the Chargers had not been to the playoffs or had a winning record for seven consecutive seasons. Under Smith's leadership, the team did not post a losing record for eight straight seasons from 2004-11.

Smith was widely recognized as one of the National Football League's top executives. He was named the NFL's 2004 Executive of the Year by Pro Football Weekly, the Professional Football Writers of America (PFWA), FoxSports.com and CBS Sportline.com. In 2006, Forbes named him its top NFL General Manager, and in addition, the magazine ranked Smith fourth overall among his counterparts in the four major professional sports leagues in the U.S. and Canada (NFL, NBA, NHL and MLB). In 2009, USA Today ranked Smith sixth on their list of the Top 20 Personnel Executives in the NFL, and Forbes recognized Smith once again in 2010, ranking him fifth on its list of the Top 10 NFL GMs.

"A.J. learned from Bill Polian in Buffalo. And he learned from George Allen in the USFL," Baltimore Ravens General Manager Ozzie Newsome said. "He's been around successful people, so he's learned the right way to do things."

Smith has worked in pro football since 1977, including three years in the United States Football League in the early 1980s. He spent 14 seasons (1987-00) with the Buffalo Bills, joining the team as an area scout in 1987 before being named assistant director of college scouting in 1989. In 1993, Smith became director of pro personnel. During his tenure in Buffalo, Smith worked closely with Hall of Fame coach Marv Levy as the team's assistant director of college scouting. During that time, Buffalo made appearances in Super Bowls XXV, XXVI and XXVII. Smith was promoted to director of pro personnel prior to the Bills' appearance in Super Bowl XXVIII.

Smith served as the Chargers' pro personnel director from 1985-86. He also held scouting positions with the USFL's Chicago Blitz (1982-83) and Pittsburgh Maulers (1984). He began his NFL career in 1977 as a volunteer part-time scout for the New York Giants under the direction of Jim Trimble and moved on to become a part-time scout for the New England Patriots (1978-80) and Houston Oilers (1981).

Smith made his start in football as an assistant coach at Cranston West H.S. in Cranston, R.I., from 1971-76. He was the head coach of the Rhode Island Kings of the Eastern Football League in 1976 and an assistant coach at the University of Rhode Island in 1978.

Smith is a graduate of Bishop Hendricken H.S. in Warwick, R.I. He was a standout on the football and track teams and was inducted into the school's hall of fame in 2003. Smith earned a degree in health and physical education from Kentucky Wesleyan College in 1971 and was inducted into the college's inaugural Athletics Hall of Fame class in 2013. A plaque hangs in his honor in the A.J. Smith Weight Room inside the Woodward Health and Recreation Center at Kentucky Wesleyan.

Smith played semi-pro football as a wide receiver with the Attleboro (Mass.) Kings of the Eastern Football League from 1972-74 and had a try-out with the Redskins in 1974. He was inducted into the American Football Association's Minor Semi-pro Football Hall of Fame in 1990. Smith also taught health and physical education in the Providence (R.I.) junior high school system from 1971-85.

Smith and his wife, Susan, reside in Del Mar, Calif.. The Smiths have two children: a daughter, Andrea, and a son, Kyle. Andrea graduated Cum Laude from Cortland State in New York with a degree in sports management, where she was an honorable mention All-America volleyball player for the Red Dragons. Andrea now lives in Los Angeles and is the Director of Premium Services for AEG at the STAPLES Center.

Kyle graduated from Youngstown State, where he had an outstanding career as a wide receiver and punt returner. Smith now lives in Atlanta and has served as the Redskins' southeast area scout since 2011.

FRONT OFFICE

DOUG WILLIAMS
PERSONNEL EXECUTIVE

18TH NFL SEASON // 5TH WITH REDSKINS

Doug Williams was named the Redskins' Personnel Executive on February 10, 2014. The hiring marked Williams' return to the Redskins, with whom he was one of the most celebrated athletes in franchise history.

Williams, a member of the 80 Greatest Redskins and a Redskins Ring of Famer, played with the Redskins from 1986-89 and led Washington to a Super Bowl XXII title, a 42-10 rout of the Denver Broncos. Williams, the first African-American quarterback to play in a Super Bowl, completed 18-of-29 passes for 340 yards with four touchdown passes to earn Super Bowl XXII MVP honors.

Williams is a veteran of 17 NFL seasons, including nine as a player and eight in scouting/personnel roles. He spent five seasons as Personnel Executive with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers from 2004-08 before being named the team's Director of Pro Personnel for the 2009 season.

Williams joined the Buccaneers' front office in 2004 following a successful tenure as head coach at his alma mater, Grambling State, and one of the most storied playing careers in league and team history. His responsibilities in Tampa included coordinating the scouting and recruiting of all NFL players, while also monitoring NFL transactions and overseeing player tryouts. In addition, he was in charge of Tampa Bay's evaluating efforts of all other professional football leagues, including the Canadian Football League.

Williams, a first-round pick by Tampa Bay in the 1978 NFL Draft (17th overall), led the Buccaneers to the first three playoff appearances in team history. He propelled the team to three winning seasons (10-6 in 1979, 9-7 in 1981 and 5-4 in 1982), the only campaigns in franchise history with a winning record until more than 15 years later, in the 1997 season. Williams, who started 67 career games for the Buccaneers, was a two-time team MVP in 1980 and 1981. He ended his Tampa Bay career in 1982 as the all-time franchise leader in touchdown passes, passing yards, attempts and completions.

In 1986, the Washington Redskins traded for Williams' rights following two seasons with the USFL's Oklahoma Outlaws. In Williams' Super Bowl XXII MVP performance following the 1987 season, he set or tied several Super Bowl passing records, including most TD passes (four), most yards passing (340), longest pass completion (80 yards) and longest TD pass (80 yards). He was the first black quarterback to start a Super Bowl.

In six seasons in his first tenure (1998-2003) at Grambling State University, Williams brought one of the most storied programs in college football history back to prominence, compiling a 52-18 record as head coach after succeeding the legendary Eddie Robinson, who was at the helm for 57 years from 1941-97 and re-wrote the record books as the winningest coach in the history of college football with 408 career wins.

Williams led the Tigers to three consecutive Southwestern Athletic Conference titles from 2000-02 as they were named National Black College Champions during the same three-year span. He was also named SWAC Coach of the Year in each of those three seasons. Williams was a two-time finalist for The Sports Network Eddie Robinson (Division I-AA) National Coach of the Year. He rejoined the program for three seasons from 2011-13, including earning the SWAC title in his first season back in 2011.

Williams started his college head coaching career at Morehouse College in 1997. He also has previous NFL experience as a scout for Jacksonville in 1995 and as offensive coordinator for the Scottish Claymores of the World League in 1995 and tutoring running backs for Navy in 1994. Williams also excelled on the high school level as head coach and athletic director at Point Coupee H.S. in New Roads, La. in 1991, and in 1993, he was head coach at Northeast H.S. in his hometown of Zachary, La., where he guided the team to a 13-1 record and the state semifinals, including a win over Peyton Manning's Isidore Newman squad in the 1993 state quarterfinals.

As Grambling's quarterback from 1974-77, Williams had a spectacular college career as he passed for more than 8,000 yards and 93 touchdowns, leading the Tigers to three National Black College National Championships and two SWAC titles. He posted a 35-5 record as a starter and finished fourth in voting for the 1977 Heisman Trophy.

In 2005, along with Harris, Williams established The Shack Harris & Doug Williams Foundation with the function of providing grants for after-school initiatives, leadership development, mentoring programs and minority higher education assistance for economically disadvantaged youth. In March of 2009, the Foundation put on its first annual Washington Football Legends for Charity in Washington, D.C. A nostalgic evening of tribute, food and fun that honored football legends in our nation's capital, the event's proceeds assisted several charities.

Upon the completion of Super Bowl XLII, the NFL honored the 20th anniversary of Williams' Super Bowl XXII victory as Williams was chosen to present the Lombardi Trophy to the New York Giants following their victory over the New England Patriots.

Williams and his wife, Raunda, have eight children: Ashley, Adrian, Carmelea, Doug, Jr., Jasmine, Laura, Lee and Temessia.

PRO

Enters 2014 having appeared in eight regular season games and one post-season game with four regular season starts... Completed 33-of-48 passes (68.8 percent) for 466 yards with four touchdowns, three interceptions and a passer rating of 101.6 in his rookie season in 2012... With Robert Griffin III, was part of quarterback duo in 2012 that made the Redskins the first team since the 1970 AFL-NFL merger to have two different rookie quarterbacks lead fourth-quarter comeback wins in the same season and the first team in history with two rookie quarterbacks with 300-yard passing games in a single season.

YEAR-BY-YEAR

2013 (REDSKINS)

Appeared in five games, starting the final three of the season... Active but did not play vs. PHI (9/9), at GB (9/15), vs. DET (9/22), at OAK (9/29), at DAL (10/13) and vs. CHI (10/20)... Completed 5-of-9 passes for 48 yards with two interceptions in reserve at DEN (10/27)... Active but did not play vs. SD (11/3), at MIN (11/7), at PHI (11/17), vs. SF (11/25) and vs. NYG (12/1)... Completed 7-of-16 passes for 59 yards in reserve vs. KC (12/8)... Started at ATL (12/15), completing 29-of-45 passes for 381 yards and three touchdowns, all career highs. Became the first Redskins quarterback in the Super Bowl era to throw for 300 yards in each of his first two career starts, according to the Elias Sports Bureau. Threw for 248 yards in the first half, the most in a first half by a Redskins quarterback since Mark Rypien threw for 259 yards in the first two quarters vs. Atlanta on Nov. 10, 1991... Started and completed 21-of-36 passes for 197 yards with one touchdown and one interception vs. DAL (12/22). Also posted two rushing attempts for 10 yards... Started and completed 19-of-49 passes for 169 yards at NYG (12/29).

Played in three regular season games with one start and saw his first post-season action... Was active but did not play as the second quarterback in a season-opening win at NO (9/9), at STL (9/16), vs. CIN (9/23) and at TB (9/30)... Saw his first action vs. ATL (10/7), entering in relief of the injured Robert Griffin III in the third quarter and completing 5-of-9 passes for 111 yards with a touchdown and two interceptions. His first career pass attempt was a four-yard completion to wide receiver Joshua Morgan. In the fourth quarter, he threw the first touchdown pass of his career, finding Santana Moss for a 77-yard touchdown. With the pass, the Redskins became the first team since the 1941 Chicago Cardinals to have two rookie quarterbacks each throw a touchdown pass of 75+ yards in the same season... Active but did not play vs. MIN (10/14), at NYG (10/21), at PIT (10/28), vs. CAR (11/4), vs. PHI (11/18), at DAL (11/22) and vs. NYG (12/3)... Led the first fourth-quarter comeback of his career, replacing Griffin III in the final two minutes of a win vs. BAL (12/9). Led an eight-point fourth-quarter comeback, making the Redskins the first team since the 1970 AFL-NFL merger to have two different rookie quarterbacks lead fourth-quarter comeback wins in the same season. Hit Pierre Garçon for an 11-yard touchdown and then converted the game-tying two-point conversion on a quarterback draw, marking the first time in team history that the Redskins had scored a two-point conversion to send a game to overtime. The comeback was named the NFL GMC Never Say Never Moment of the Week... Made his first career start in a win at CLE (12/16), completing 26-of-37 passes for 329 yards with two touchdowns, all career highs. He and Griffin III became the first duo to each have started a game for the Redskins as rookies in the same season since Heath Shuler and Gus Frerotte in 1994. With Cousins' victory in Week 15 and Griffin III's win in Week 1, the Redskins became the first team in a non-strike season to have two different rookie quarterbacks win their first career starts in the same season since rookies John Elway and Gary Kubiak won their starting debuts with the Denver Broncos in 1983. The game was Cousins' first 300-yard passing performance, as the Redskins became the first team in NFL history to have two different rookie quarterbacks post 300-yard passing games in the same season. Won Pepsi NFL Rookie of the Week and GMC Never Say Never Moment of the Week for his efforts... Active but did not play at PHI (12/23) and vs. DAL (12/30)... Completed three-of-10 passes for 31 yards in relief of an injured Robert Griffin III in the NFC Wild Card Round vs. SEA (1/6).

Connected on his first 12 passes of the game, matching his career best for consecutive completions (12 - at DAL, 2012)... Started and completed 12-of-26 passes for 164 yards with one touchdown and one interception vs. KC (12/8)... Inactive at ATL (12/15), vs. DAL (12/22) and at NYG (12/29).

2012 (REDSKINS)

Started 15 regular season games in helping lead Washington to a 10-6 record and its first division title since 1999... Selected by his teammates as an offensive captain at midseason... Earned his first career Pro Bowl selection, becoming the first Redskins offensive rookie to earn a selection since Larry Brown in 1969... Named PFW/PFWA Rookie of the Year and Offensive Rookie of the Year... Completed 258-of-393 passes (65.6 percent) for 3,200 yards with 20 touchdowns and a passer rating of 102.4... Set NFL rookie records for passer rating (102.4) and percentage of passes had intercepted (1.27) and fell just short of the league rookie record for completion percentage... Shattered virtually every Redskins rookie passing record and every team record for rushing by a quarterback... Made his NFL debut as the starting quarterback in a season-opening win at NO (9/9), becoming the first player born in the 1990s to start at quarterback in NFL history. Completed 19-of-26 passes for 320 yards and two touchdowns and finished with a passer rating of 139.9. Became the first player in NFL history to compile 300-plus passing yards, two or more passing touchdowns and no interceptions in an NFL debut. Threw his first career touchdown on an 88-yard pass to Pierre Garçon, the longest pass play by the Redskins since Ed Rubbert's 88-yard touchdown pass to Anthony Allen in a strike game vs. the St. Louis Cardinals on Oct. 4, 1987, a span of 397 regular season games... Started at STL (9/16) and completed 20-of-29 passes for 206 yards with one touchdown, one interception and a quarterback rating of 86.3. Added 11 carries for 82 yards and his first two career rushing touchdowns, with his 82 rushing yards being the most by a Redskins quarterback since the 1970 merger, surpassing Joe Theismann's 64 rushing yards at Chicago on 11/9/80. Became the first Redskins quarterback to rush for two TD since Mark Rypien vs. Indianapolis on Nov. 7, 1993, a span of 297 regular season games and was the first Redskins rookie QB to do so since Norm Snead at Dallas on 11/19/61... Started vs. CIN (9/23), completing 21-of-34 passes for 221 yards with one touchdown and a 90.4 passer rating. Also added 74 yards on 13 carries with one touchdown. The rushing touchdown was his third of the season, tying him with Al Dorow (1954) and Norm Snead (1961) for the team record for rushing touchdowns a Redskins rookie quarterback... Started at quarterback and registered his first fourth-quarter comeback win at TB (9/30). Finished the game 26-of-35 for 323 yards (all career highs) and added seven carries for 43 yards and a touchdown on the ground. Engineered a seven-play, 56-yard drive in 1:39 to set up Billy Cundiff for a 41-yard game-winning field goal with three seconds remaining. Scored his fourth rushing touchdown of the season on a five-yard run in the second quarter, tying Joe Theismann (1979) and Eddie LeBaron (1955) for the Redskins record of rushing touchdowns by a quarterback in a single season. Became the sixth NFL quarterback since the 1970 merger to register at least four rushing touchdowns in the first four games of a season, joining Cam Newton (2011), Kordell Stewart (1997), Bubby Brister (1988), Steve Grogan (1976) and Terry Bradshaw (1972). With 1,170 passing yards through four games, joined Cam Newton (2011) and Ryan Tannehill (2012) as the only players to reach 1,000 passing yards in their first four games of their rookie seasons. His 300-yard passing performance was the second of his career and the 100th by a Redskins quarterback in team history... Started vs. ATL (10/7) and completed 10-of-15 passes for 91 yards before exiting the game in the third quarter with a head injury. Rushed once for seven yards, giving him 241 on the season, breaking Sammy Baugh's team record for rushing yards by a rookie quarterback in a season (240 in 1937)... Started vs. MIN (10/14) and completed 17-of-22 passes for 182 yards and a touchdown. Also tied a career high in rushing attempts (13) and set a career high with 138 rushing yards with two rushing touchdowns. Set a franchise record for single-game rushing yardage by a quarterback with the first 100-yard rushing effort by a QB in team history. Broke the team record for rushing yards by a quarterback in a single season, surpassing Harry Gilmer, who had 365 rushing yards in 1952 and saw action at both quarterback and left halfback in that season (the previous high by a Redskins player who played strictly quarterback was Joe Theismann, who rushed for 314 yards in 1984). Ended the evening with a 76-yard touchdown run, the longest by a quarterback in team history and the longest by an NFL quarterback since Pittsburgh's Kordell Stewart rushed for an 80-yard touchdown against Carolina on Dec. 22, 1996. The run was the longest by any Redskin since Clinton Portis had a 78-yard run vs. the Kansas City Chiefs on Oct. 18, 2009. Became only the second individual quarterback in team history with at least one rushing touchdown and one passing touchdown in three games three times in a season since 1950 (Joe Theismann, 1980). Joined Michael Vick as the only NFL quarterbacks since 1970 to rush for at least 130 yards and two touchdowns in a game. His six rushing touchdowns are the most by a Redskins quarterback in a single season in team history. He was previously tied with Joe Theismann (1979) and Eddie LeBaron (1955)... Started at NYG (10/21) and completed 20-of-28 passes for 258 yards with two touchdowns, and added 89 rushing yards on nine carries (9.9 avg.). Had a 108.9 passer rating, marking the third time he had eclipsed 100.0 in a game... Started at PIT (10/28), completing 16-of-34 passes for 177 yards with one touchdown and no interceptions. Threw the eighth touchdown pass of his rookie season, finding wide receiver Santana Moss for a one-yard touchdown on fourth down in the second quarter... Started vs. CAR (11/4) and completed 23-of-39 passes for 215 yards. With 23 completions, he tied Norm Snead's team record for completions in a rookie season (172, set in 1961). Also rushed 13 times for 76 yards, making he and running back Alfred Morris the first rookie quarterback-running back tandem in NFL history to each amass 500 rushing yards in a season... Started in a win vs. PHI (11/18) and completed 14-of-15 passes (93.3 percent) for 200 yards with a career-high four touchdowns, finishing with a perfect 158.3 passer rating and also contributing 84 rushing yards on 12 carries. Became only the third NFL player (Randall Cunningham, Michael Vick) and first rookie ever with 200 pass yards, 75 rush yards and four passing TD in a single game. Was five attempts short of meeting the 20-attempt minimum needed to qualify for team records for completion percentage (Mark Brunell - 89.3 on Sept. 24, 2006 vs. Houston) and passer rating (Sonny Jurgensen - 149.3, Sept. 15, 1968 at Chicago). Became only the third rookie to surpass both 2,000 passing yards and 500 rushing yards in a season, joining Vince Young in 2006 (2,199 passing yards, 552 rushing yards) and Cam Newton in 2011 (4,051 passing yards, 706 rushing yards)... In a Thanksgiving Day win at DAL (11/22), completed 19-of-27 passes for 304 yards and four touchdowns. Became the first rookie in NFL history and the first player in Redskins history to pass for four touchdowns in consecutive games. In the game, he broke single-season team records for passing yards by a rookie (Norm Snead's 2,337 in 1961) and passing touchdowns by a rookie (Eddie LeBaron's 14 in 1952). He became the first player in NFL history to have four 60-yard passing touchdowns and a 60-yard rushing touchdown in a season. His four passing touchdowns are the most in a single game by a Redskins quarterback on Thanksgiving Day, surpassing the three Thanksgiving Day touchdowns thrown by Jim Ninowski (Nov. 28, 1968) and Danny Wuerffel (Nov. 28, 2002). Griffin III's 304 yards are also the most by a Redskins quarterback on Thanksgiving Day, surpassing Ninowski's 280... Started in a win vs. NYG on Monday Night Football (12/3), completing 13-of-21 passes for 163 yards with one touchdown. Helped the Redskins overcome a six-point deficit entering the fourth quarter, becoming the first rookie quarterback for the Redskins to engineer a fourth-quarter comeback when trailing after three quarters since Harry

Selected by the Redskins with the draft pick received from Minnesota in exchange for QB Donovan McNabb... Started all 17 games (including post-season) for Washington and rushed 335 times for 1,613 yards and 13 touchdowns, all team rookie records. His 1,613 rushing yards broke Clinton Portis' team record (1,516 in 2005) and were the third highest total by a rookie in NFL history... Named a Pro Bowl Alternate... Started at running back in his NFL debut in a season-opening win at NO (9/9), finishing the game with 28 carries for 96 yards and the first two touchdowns of his career. Became the third Redskins rookie since the merger to score a rushing touchdown in Week 1, joining Michael Westbrook (1995) and Kelvin Bryant (1986)... Started at running back at STL (9/16) and had 16 carries for a team-high 89 yards, in the process becoming the first Redskins running back to post 85-plus-yard games in Weeks 1-2 since Stephen Davis in 1999... Started at running back vs. CIN (9/23), registering 17 rushing attempts for 78 yards and one touchdown on the ground. His third touchdown in the first three weeks made him the first Redskins rookie to score three rushing touchdowns in the first three weeks since Ray McDonald (1967)... Started at running back at TB (9/30), notching his first 100-yard rushing day with 113 yards on 21 carries (5.4 avg.). He and Robert Griffin III became the first pair of rookie teammates in NFL history to each rush for four touchdowns over their team's first four games, according to the Elias Sports Bureau... Started vs. ATL (10/7), and had a then-career-high 115 yards on 18 carries. He joined Eric Dickerson as the only rookies in NFL history to rush for at least 75 yards in each of their team's first five games, according to the Elias Sports Bureau. He joined Larry Brown (1972), John Riggins (1983), George Rogers (1986), Earnest Byner (1991) and Terry Allen (1996) as the only backs in team history since the merger to open a season with at least 75 yards in the first five games of a season... Started and rushed 16 times for 47 yards (2.9 avg.) with a touchdown vs. MIN (10/14)... Started at NYG (10/21) and rushed 22 times for a career-high 120 yards (5.5 avg.), marking his third career 100-yard rushing performance. Also had a career-high two receptions for 10 yards (5.0 avg.). Earned Pepsi Rookie of the Week honors... Started at PIT (10/28) and rushed 13 times for 59 yards (4.5 avg.). Became the first Redskins rookie since at least 1970 to have seven 50-yard rushing games in the first eight games of a season... Started vs. CAR (11/4), and rushed for 76 yards on 13 carries (5.8 avg.). His 793 rushing yards through nine games, the most by a rookie through nine games since Adrian Peterson rushed for 1,081 yards through nine games as a rookie with Minnesota in 2007... Started in a win vs. PHI (11/18) and gained 76 rushing yards on 20 carries, giving him 869 rushing yards through 10 games, making him the 12th NFL rookie since the 1970 AFL-NFL merger to rush for 850 yards or more in the first 10 games of a season. Was the first Redskins rookie to accomplish the feat... Rushed for 113 yards on 24 carries (4.7 avg.) with one touchdown in a Thanksgiving Day win at DAL (11/22)... Started on Monday Night Football vs. NYG (12/3) and rushed for a career-high 124 yards on 22 carries, his fifth 100-yard rushing effort of the season. Morris' five 100-yard rushing games became the most by a Redskins rookie in a single season since the 1970 NFL-AFL merger. With a 19-yard run in the first quarter, he eclipsed 1,000 rushing yards for the season and became the first 1,000-yard rusher for the Redskins since Clinton Portis in 2008. It represents the 23rd 1,000-yard rushing season by a Redskins player in team history and only the second by a rookie. Morris broke the Redskins' record for rushing yards by a rookie with a 16-yard gain in the third quarter that pushed him past Reggie Brooks' former rookie record of 1,063 rushing yards for the Redskins during the 1993 season... Started in a win vs. BAL (12/9) and notched his third straight 100-yard rushing day, being credited with 23 carries for 122 yards and one touchdown. The league later amended his yardage total to 129, a career high. The 100-yard rushing game was his sixth of the season, marking the most 100-yard rushing games in a season by a Redskin since 2008 (Clinton Portis – six). Earned Pepsi Rookie of the Week honors for the performance, his second such award of the season... Started in a win at CLE (12/16) and finished the game with 26 carries for 87 rushing yards and two touchdowns. The two rushing touchdowns gave him nine on the season, surpassing Skip Hicks (eight in 1998) to set the Redskins' record for rushing touchdowns in a rookie season. The game was his' second multi-touchdown game of his career and his first since his NFL debut at New Orleans in Week 1... Started in a win at PHI (12/23) and gained 91 yards on 22 carries with one rushing touchdown. With the touchdown, he tied Pro Football Hall of Famer Charley Taylor for the Redskins' rookie record for total touchdowns in a season (10 in 1964). His 10 touchdowns this season mark the 12th double-digit rushing touchdown season in team history and the first since Clinton Portis in 2007 (11)... Started in a division-clinching win vs. DAL (12/30) and rushed 33 times for 200 rushing yards with three touchdowns, all career highs. Finished the season with 1,613 yards, breaking Clinton Portis' team record for rushing yards in a season (1,516 in 2005). Finished second in the NFL in rushing yards (1,613) and rushing touchdowns (13) this season behind Minnesota's Adrian Peterson and Houston's Arian Foster, respectively. His three rushing touchdowns vs. DAL tied a Redskins' team record, marking the 22nd time a Redskin has rushed for three touchdowns in a game. The 200-yard performance was a Redskins rookie record and the first by a Redskin of any experience level since Gerald Riggs' team-record 221 yards on Sept. 17, 1989, vs. Philadelphia. The game was his seventh 100-yard rushing performance of the season, the most by a Redskin since Portis in 2005 (nine).

2013 (RAIDERS)

Played in and started all 16 games for the first time in his career in his first season in Oakland... Amassed career highs in total tackles (67), solo tackles (53), sacks (1.5) and matched a career high in passes defended (12). Also added two interceptions, one of which he returned 43 yards for the third regular season touchdown of his career... Made Raiders debut in Week 1 at IND (9/8), registering five tackles (four solo) and an eight-yard sack of Andrew Luck... Had a season-high three passes defended vs. JAX (9/15)... Secured his first interception as a member of the Raiders vs. PIT (10/27), picking off Ben Roethlisberger in Raider territory in the fourth quarter... Vs. NYG (11/10), picked off Giants quarterback Eli Manning and returned it 43 yards for a touchdown.

2012 (BRONCOS)

Played in six games with four starts, registering 21 tackles (16 solo) and six passes defended, including an interception he returned 43 yards for a touchdown... Started four of the team's first five games, all at right corner, before an illness sidelined him for nine straight contests... Returned to play in Week 16 but sustained a concussion and missed the final three contests, including the team's playoff loss vs. BAL... In his Denver debut, garnered AFC Defensive Player of the Week honors after icing Denver's Game 1 triumph vs. PIT (9/9), picking off Ben Roethlisberger and scoring on a 43-yard return. Also tied for second on the team's single-game franchise list by matching a career high with five passes defended... Initially suffered a seizure during the preseason and began feeling symptoms apparently related to the incident prior to Denver's Week 6 game at San Diego.

2011 (SAINTS)

Started 11 of 14 games in his final campaign with the Saints, helping the team to its second 13-3 division-winning season in three years and a third straight playoff berth... Totaled 63 tackles (54 solo), one interception, eight passes defended, two forced fumbles and one fumble recovery... Also started both postseason games... Forced a Michael Turner fumble, which flew out of bounds, in the third quarter at ATL (11/13)... Racked up a career-high 14 tackles (11 solo) at NYG (11/28), one on which he forced a third-quarter fumble recovered by New Orleans to set up a Saints touchdown two plays later... Helped seal a 31-17 win vs. DET (12/4) by intercepting Matthew Stafford with under three minutes remaining.

2010 (SAINTS)

Registered 63 tackles (48 solo) in 12 games, all starts, as well as one interception, nine passes defended and one fumble recovery, helping New Orleans to the postseason... Also returned punts (two returns for 6 yards) for the first time since college... Underwent knee surgery and missed games 5-8 before returning to the lineup... Preserved a fourth-quarter Saints lead in eventual 25-22 win on Monday Night Football by intercepting Alex Smith at the New Orleans 10-yard line at SF (9/20).

2009 (SAINTS)

Helped Saints to triumph in Super Bowl XLIV, starting 11 of 12 games played during the regular season and all three in the postseason... Recorded 69 tackles (50 solo), four interceptions and two forced fumbles to assist team to NFC South title, then added 19 stops (15 solo), another forced fumble and two more interceptions in the postseason... Overcame a knee injury that forced him out of four games from Weeks 11-14... Intercepted Kevin Kolb deep in Saints territory on the final play of the game at PHI (9/20)... Broke up three passes vs. NYG (10/18)... Defensed five Chad Henne passes at MIA (10/25), including one tipped into the arms of teammate Darren Sharper en route to a 42-yard touchdown return. Returned an interception of his own for a touchdown, the first of his career, with 1:53 remaining in a 40-34 game to put the game out of reach... Picked off a pass in a second straight game, intercepting Matt Ryan in the fourth quarter to set up a touchdown, the Saints' final points in a 35-27 win vs. ATL (11/2)... Intercepted Josh Freeman in the Saints' end zone vs. TB (12/27)... Played a key role in two fourth-quarter takeaways, helping send the NFC Championship to overtime and sustain New Orleans' playoff run vs. MIN (1/24). Forced a Bernard Berrian fumble, recovered by Jonathan Vilma, at the Saints' 10-yard line with Vikings driving for game-tying touchdown. Intercepted Brett Favre with 19 seconds left at the Saints' 22-yard line with Minnesota in range for a game-winning FG... Sealed the Saints' Super Bowl XLIV win vs. IND (2/7) by returning a Peyton Manning interception 74 yards for a touchdown with 3:12 remaining, the Saints' final score in a 31-17 victory.

2008 (SAINTS)

Started the Saints' first five games before a wrist injury landed him on injured reserve, truncating his rookie season... Finished with 32 tackles (26 solo), including his first career sack. Also posted one interception among six passes defended... Made his NFL debut vs. TB (9/7), starting the season opener and breaking up a pair of passes... Helped Saints to 31-17 win vs.

SF (9/28), posting his first NFL sack and interception in the same contest. Sacked J.T. O'Sullivan late in the first half, then picked him off in the Saints' end zone... Dislocated his wrist and did not return vs. MIN (10/6)... Placed on injured reserve on Oct. 7.

COLLEGE

Started 43 career games at Indiana from 2004-07 and graduated with 16 interceptions, second in school history behind Tim Wilbur (19, 1978-82)... Racked up a school-record 413 interception return yards... Also finished with 212 tackles (175 solo), two forced fumbles and four fumble recoveries... Additionally, returned 35 punts for 477 yards (13.6 avg.), with one TD, becoming the first player in program history to score on a punt, fumble recovery and interception return... Named as a first-team All-Big Ten performer as a senior in 2007, starting every game and posting 83 tackles (63 total), with six interceptions... Majored in recreational sports management.

PERSONAL

2013 GAME RECAPS

Sept. 9, 2013

GAME 1

FedExField (Landover, Md.)

EAGLES 33, REDSKINS 27

LANDOVER, Md. – The Washington Redskins scored 20 unanswered points in the second half but ultimately fell short in their comeback bid, dropping their season debut to the Philadelphia Eagles, 33-27, in front of 82,743 people at FedExField.

Quarterback Robert Griffin III completed 30-of-49 passes for 329 yards with two passing touchdowns, two interceptions and a quarterback rating of 77.7. Griffin III set career highs in completions (30), pass attempts (49) and passing yards (329) in attempting to rally the Redskins from a 33-7 third-quarter deficit. Both touchdowns were thrown to receiver Leonard Hankerson, who registered the second multi-touchdown game of his career.

Cornerback DeAngelo Hall scored the Redskins' first points of the season, and returning a fumbled lateral 75 yards for a touchdown in the first quarter. The fumble return for touchdown was the fourth of Hall's career, and it marked the first time since 1973 that the Redskins' first points of a season were scored via fumble return. That season, defensive end Verlon Biggs scored on a two-yard fumble return for the first points of the Redskins' season debut vs. San Diego on Sept. 16, 1973.

Linebacker London Fletcher earned his 200th consecutive regular season start, becoming only the second linebacker in NFL history to accomplish the feat (Derrick Brooks – 208). The game was also the 241st consecutive regular season game played by the league's active Iron Man.

2013 GAME RECAPS

GAME 2

Lambeau Field (Green Bay, Wis.)

PACKERS 38, REDSKINS 20

GREEN BAY, Wis. – The Washington Redskins fell to the Green Bay Packers, 38-20, in front of an announced crowd of 78,020 people at Lambeau Field in Week 2. Washington scored 20 second-half points but was unable to close an early deficit.

Quarterback Robert Griffin III completed 26-of-40 passes for 320 yards with three passing touchdowns and an interception. Running back Alfred Morris rushed for 107 yards on 13 carries and added 13 receiving yards on two receptions. With their performances, Washington had a 300-yard passer and 100-yard rusher in the same game for the first time since Rex Grossman and Roy Helu, Jr. accomplished the feat on Nov. 27, 2011 at Seattle.

Griffin III completed passes to 10 different receivers, tied for the most in a game in team history. The last time the Redskins completed passes to 10 different receivers in a game was Jan. 3, 2010 at San Diego. It was the ninth time in team history the Redskins have had 10 different receivers register a catch in a game. Wide receiver Pierre Garçon finished the game with eight receptions for 143 yards and one receiving touchdown. Garçon's 143 yards represented the third-highest single-game total of his career and his most in a game as a member of the Redskins.

Morris averaged a career-high 8.2 yards per carry, surpassing his previous high of 6.4 against Atlanta on Oct. 7, 2012. His 100-yard effort was the eighth of his career and broke a streak of the team's last 13 100-yard rushing games having been posted by rookies.

FedExField (Landover, Md.)

LIONS 27, REDSKINS 20

LANDOVER, Md. – The Washington Redskins fell to the Detroit Lions, 27-20, in front of an announced crowd of 80,111 people at FedExField in Week 3.

Linebacker London Fletcher played in his 243rd consecutive regular season game, tying Bill Romanowski for the most by a defensive player since the 1970 AFL-NFL merger. Fletcher registered a sack on the game's first offensive play, dropping Lions quarterback Matthew Stafford for a seven-yard loss.

Redskins cornerback DeAngelo Hall opened the scoring, returning an interception of Stafford 17 yards for a touchdown. The interception was the 40th of Hall's career, allowing him to join Ed Reed, Charles Woodson, Champ Bailey and Asante Samuel as the only active players to reach 40 career interceptions. The touchdown was his second of the season and the eighth combined touchdown of his career (four via rumble return, four via interception return).

Washington quarterback Robert Griffin III set career highs in pass attempts (50) and completions (32), finishing the game with 326 passing yards, the second-highest total of his career. He became the first Redskins quarterback in the Super Bowl era to throw for 300 yards in three consecutive games. His 32 completions were one shy of the team record set by Jason Campbell on Nov. 18, 2007 (33).

Running back Alfred Morris scored on a 30-yard touchdown run in the second quarter, his 15th career rushing touchdown. Morris joined Mike Thomas as the only two Redskins running backs since the 1970 merger to score 15 touchdowns in their first two NFL seasons.

Kicker John Potter converted his first made field goal of his career on a 43-yard attempt in the third quarter, and followed that up with a 21-yarder in the fourth quarter to pull the Redskins within seven.

O.co Coliseum (Oakland, Calif.)

REDSKINS 24, RAIDERS 14

OAKLAND, Calif. – The Washington Redskins earned their first win of the season in Week 4, scoring 24 unanswered points en route to a 24-14 win against the Oakland Raiders in front of an announced crowd of 53,549 people at O.co Coliseum. With the 24-point output, the Redskins pushed their streak of scoring 20 or more points to eight consecutive regular season games, dating back to 2012, marking the first time the Redskins have scored 20-plus points in eight straight regular season games since Weeks 9-16 of the 1998 season.

Rookie cornerback David Amerson began the scoring for the Redskins by picking off a Matt Flynn pass and returning it 45 yards for a touchdown on the first interception of his NFL career. Including an interception return for touchdown by cornerback DeAngelo Hall vs. Detroit in Week 3, with Amerson's score, the Redskins recorded interception returns for touchdowns in consecutive weeks for the first time since Weeks 5-6 of the 2012 season when Ryan Kerrigan and Madiou Williams scored on pick sixes in two straight games. The 45-yard interception return for touchdown by Amerson was the longest by a Redskins' rookie since cornerback Champ Bailey scored on a 59-yard interception return at Arizona on Oct. 17, 1999.

The defense registering seven sacks, the Redskins' most in a game since compiling seven sacks at St. Louis in Week 4 in 2011, a span of 31 games. Three different Redskins – nose tackle Barry Cofield and linebackers Ryan Kerrigan and Brian Orakpo – each finished the game with two sacks. Prior to Week 4, the last time the Redskins had three different players register at least two sacks in a single game was on Dec. 19, 1993 vs. Atlanta (Monte Coleman, Al Noga and Sterling Palmer).

On offense, wide receiver Pierre Garçon led the Redskins with six receptions for 59 yards and a five-yard third quarter touchdown. Running back Roy Helu, Jr. entered the game in place of Alfred Morris and finished with 41 yards on 13 carries as well as catching two passes for 43 yards. He scored his first touchdown of the season and third rushing touchdown of his career on a 14-yard run with 6:59 left in the fourth quarter to seal the victory for the Redskins.

GAME 5

AT&T Stadium (Arlington, Texas)

COWBOYS 31, REDSKINS 16

ARLINGTON, Texas – The Washington Redskins dropped a 31-16 decision to the Dallas Cowboys in front of an announced crowd of 90,239 at AT&T Stadium in Week 6.

The defense had its best performance of the young season, holding the Cowboys to 213 total yards of offense, the Redskins' best defensive performance since holding the St. Louis Rams to 172 yards in Week 4 of the 2011 season, a span of 32 regular season games. The output was also the lowest offensive yardage total for the Cowboys since Week 9 of the 2010 season, a span of 45 games. Linebacker Rob Jackson, in his first action since completing his four game suspension, registered his first interception of the season in the second quarter.

Washington rushed for a season-high 216 yards on a season-high 33 carries. Both totals were the most by the team since rushing for 274 yards on 42 carries vs. Dallas in Week 17 last season. The Redskins also passed for 217 yards. This was the first game of at least 200 passing yards and 200 rushing yards for the Redskins since Week 7 of the 2012 season at the New York Giants. Alfred Morris continued to be productive against the Cowboys, scoring his third rushing touchdown of the season, the 16th of his career, on a career-long 45-yard run in the third quarter.

Quarterback Robert Griffin III completed 19-of-39 passes for 246 yards. He also added nine rushing attempts for 77 yards, both season highs. Griffin III posted his fourth career game of 200-plus passing yards and 75-plus rushing yards, his first since Week 11 vs. Philadelphia last season. He is two shy of matching Randall Cunningham and Michael Vick, both of whom are responsible for six career games with 200 passing yards and 75 rushing yards. Griffin III's nine carries and 77 rushing yards were his most since posting 12 carries for 84 yards vs. Philadelphia in Week 11 last season.

Wide receiver Pierre Garçon built on his stellar start to the season, becoming the first Redskin in the Super Bowl era to post at least six receptions in each of the team's first five games of a season. Garçon's 35 receptions are the most by a Redskin through the first five games of a season in the Super Bowl era, surpassing teammate Santana Moss' 33 receptions through the first five games of the 2005 season.

FedExField (Landover, Md.)

REDSKINS 45, BEARS 41

LANDOVER, Md. – The Redskins earned their second win of the season in comeback fashion in Week 7, scoring in the final minute to complete a 45-41 win against the Chicago Bears. The game was played in front of an announced crowd of 83,147 people at FedExField.

Washington gained 499 yards offensively, the team's most since posting 511 yards vs. San Francisco on Dec. 26, 1999, a game which went into overtime. The last time the Redskins posted at least 499 yards in a game that ended in regulation was on Nov. 10, 1991 vs. Atlanta. The 45-point performance was the Redskins' most in the Shanahan era and the team's most since scoring 52 points vs. San Francisco on Oct 23, 2005, a span of 128 regular season games.

Running back Roy Helu, Jr. tied a team record with three rushing touchdowns. He became the first player to score three rushing touchdowns for Washington since Alfred Morris vs. Dallas in Week 17 last season. Washington broke the 200-yard rushing mark in consecutive games for the first time since Weeks 4-5 of the 1984 season. Redskins' rookie tight end Jordan Reed set career highs in receptions (nine) and receiving yards (134). Reed set the Redskins' mark for receiving yards in a game by a rookie tight end. The record was previously held by Jerry Smith, who registered 78 receiving yards on six catches vs. Dallas on Nov. 28, 1965.

Quarterback Robert Griffin III completed 18-of-29 passes for 298 yards and two touchdowns. He also posted season highs in rushing attempts (11) and rushing yards (84). Also on offense, wide receiver Aldrick Robinson caught two passes for a career-high 75 yards, including his first touchdown of the season on a 45-yard pass in the fourth quarter.

On the first play from scrimmage following Helu, Jr.'s first touchdown, linebacker Brian Orakpo intercepted Bears quarterback Jay Cutler and returned it 29 yards for a touchdown. The interception and the defensive touchdowns were both career firsts for Orakpo. According to Orakpo, the interception was the first of his life at any level. The defensive touchdown also marked the Redskins' fourth such score of the season, matching their full-season total from a year ago.

GAME 7

Sports Authority Field at Mile High (Denver)

BRONCOS 45, REDSKINS 21

DENVER – The Washington Redskins fell to the Denver Broncos, 45-21, in front of an announced crowd of 77,031 people at Sports Authority Field at Mile High in Denver in Week 8. The game marked Redskins Executive Vice President Mike Shanahan's return to Denver, where he won two Super Bowl titles in 14 years as the Broncos' head coach from 1995-2008.

Wide receiver Leonard Hankerson opened the Redskins' scoring on the day when he caught his third touchdown pass of the season, a seven-yard pass from Robert Griffin III in the second quarter. The touchdown pass was the culmination of a 16-play, 95-yard drive, both season longs for the Redskins. The 95-yard scoring drive was the longest Redskins scoring drive by yardage in the Shanahan era.

Tight end Jordan Reed finished the game with team highs in receptions (eight) and receiving yards (90) for the second straight game. With 90 yards on Sunday he pushed his season total to 388, breaking the team record for receiving yards by a rookie tight end, previously set by Stephen Alexander in 1998 (383).

The Redskins defense posted a season-high four takeaways against the league's top offense. It was the Redskins' first four-takeaway game since forcing six turnovers at Chicago on Oct. 24, 2010. Linebacker Ryan Kerrigan forced his third fumble of the season on a sack of Peyton Manning, which was recovered by Brian Orakpo and led an Alfred Morris touchdown run. On the following possession, cornerback DeAngelo Hall intercepted Manning and scored on a 26-yard interception return. The pick-six was Hall's fifth in his career and his second of the season, a new career high.

The defensive touchdown was Hall's team-record third of the season. Hall later added another interception in the fourth quarter. The two picks were his 21st and 22nd as a Redskin, pushing him past Vernon Dean (1982-87) and Lemar Parrish (1978-81) for sole possession of 10th in team history.

FedExField (Landover, Md.)

REDSKINS 30, CHARGERS 24 (OT)

LANDOVER, Md. – After a goal line stand at the end of regulation, the Washington Redskins earned a 30-24 overtime victory against the San Diego Chargers in front of an announced crowd of 80,115 people at FedExField in Week 9. The Redskins improved to 24-14-1 all-time in games decided in overtime with the win. The win snapped a three-game losing streak to San Diego and gave Washington its first win against the Chargers since Dec. 6, 1998.

Washington compiled 500 total yards for the first time since registering 511 at San Francisco on Dec. 26, 2009. The Redskins rushed for 209 yards, their third 200-yard rushing game of the season.

Fullback Darrel Young tied a team record and set a career high with three rushing touchdowns, including a walk-off four-yard touchdown run in overtime. Young's three touchdowns were his first touchdowns of the season. Young entered the day with one career rushing touchdown, scored on Dec. 18, 2011 against the New York Giants.

Running back Alfred Morris posted season highs in rushing attempts (25) and rushing yards (121). The Redskins improved to 10-1 in games in which Morris records 20 or more rushing attempts, dating back to Morris' rookie season in 2012.

Wide receiver Pierre Garçon caught seven passes for a career-high 172 yards. Garçon's 172 yards were the most by a Redskin since Santana Moss' 178-yard effort at Detroit on Sept. 27, 2009. Tight end Jordan Reed caught four passes for 55 yards. Reed's four catches gave him 38 on the season, setting the Redskins record for receptions by a rookie tight end, held previously by Stephen Alexander (37 in 1998) and Chris Cooley (37 in 2004).

Wide receiver Santana Moss recorded the 700th reception of his career in the third quarter. He became the ninth active player to reach the milestone. The reception was also the 549th of Moss' tenure with the Redskins, tying him with Gary Clark for third-most in team history.

The game was the culmination of the team's annual Homecoming Weekend. Not including staff and coaches, former players in attendance at various events this weekend accounted for more than 600 seasons of Redskins service, 98 Super Bowl appearances and 56 Super Bowl wins. The team welcomed back 32 of the 80 Greatest Redskins, 19 Ring of Fame members and six Pro Football Hall of Famers as part of the celebration.

GAME 9

Mall of America Field (Minneapolis)

VIKINGS 34, REDSKINS 27

MINNEAPOLIS – The Washington Redskins lost to the Minnesota Vikings, 34-27, in front of an announced crowd of 64,011 people at Mall of America Field in Minneapolis in Week 10.

Quarterback Robert Griffin III completed 24-of-37 passes for 281 yards with a season-high-tying three touchdowns and a season-high passer rating of 114.8. Griffin III's three first-half passing touchdowns tied the most in his career, a three-touchdown first half at Dallas on Thanksgiving last season. Griffin III has thrown three first half touchdowns in each of his two career Thursday games.

On the team's second drive, Griffin III connected with wide receiver Pierre Garçon for an eight-yard touchdown. The touchdown was Washington's first first-quarter offensive touchdown of the season.

Garçon recorded seven receptions for 119 yards and the touchdown. He has surpassed 100 receiving yards in consecutive games for the first time since Weeks 4-5 of the 2011 season as a member of the Indianapolis Colts. Including a 172-yard performance last week, Garçon's 291 yards in the last two games represent his best two-game total in his career. He is now tied with Pittsburgh's Antonio Brown for most receptions in the NFL entering the weekend (61).

On defense, the Redskins held Minnesota running back Adrian Peterson to 75 rushing yards. Peterson, who has averaged 98.3 yard per game in his career, has averaged 51.0 yards per game in five career games against the Redskins.

Safety Brandon Meriweather recorded his first interception of the seasons, intercepting Vikings quarterback Christian Ponder on the game's first possession. With the interception, the Redskins pushed their consecutive games turnover streak to 13 straight regular season games.

Running back Alfred Morris posted season highs in rushing attempts (26) and rushing yards (139). Wide receiver Santana Moss caught his 550th pass as a Redskins, passing Gary Clark (549) for sole possession of third-most in team history.

GAME 10

Lincoln Financial Field (Philadelphia)

EAGLES 24, REDSKINS 16

PHILADELPHIA – The Washington Redskins scored 16 points in the fourth quarter but ultimately fell to the Philadelphia Eagles, 24-16, at Lincoln Financial Field in Philadelphia in Week 11.

Linebacker London Fletcher played in his 250th consecutive regular season game, joining Jeff Feagles, Brett Favre and Jim Marshall as the only players in NFL history to accomplish the feat. Fletcher also started his 209th consecutive regular season game, surpassing Derrick Brooks (208) for the most by an NFL linebacker all-time.

The Redskins amassed 427 total yards and have now gained at least 400 yards in three consecutive regular season games for the first time since Weeks 7-9 of the 1983 season. The offense also went over the 100-yard mark in rushing for the ninth consecutive game.

Fullback Darrel Young scored on a career-long 62-yard pass from Robert Griffin III in the fourth quarter. The touchdown reception was Young's first since Week 11 last season vs. Philadelphia. Three of Young's four career touchdown receptions have come against the Eagles. The pass was also Griffin III's longest completion of the season.

Wide receiver Nick Williams made his NFL debut and recorded his first career reception, a five-yard gain on a pass from Griffin III. Williams scored on a two-point conversion on a pass from Griffin III following the Young touchdown reception. It was the team's first two-point conversion since a successful Kirk Cousins run vs. Baltimore in Week 14 last season.

On the following possession, Griffin III connected with Aldrick Robinson for a 41-yard touchdown pass. Griffin III rushed for the first two-point conversion of his career on the ensuing PAT. The Redskins' second two-point conversion of the game matched a team record set previously on Dec. 19, 2010 (at Dallas) and Nov. 6, 1994 (vs. San Francisco).

Wide receiver Santana Moss gained 41 receiving yards on two receptions. With the effort, Moss surpassed the career 10,000-yard milestone, becoming the seventh active player to do so (Tony Gonzalez, Reggie Wayne, Andre Johnson, Steve Smith, Larry Fitzgerald and Anquan Boldin). Moss now has 10,005 career receiving yards.

GAME 11

FedExField (Landover, Md.)

49ERS 27, REDSKINS 6

LANDOVER, Md. – The Washington Redskins fell to the San Francisco 49ers, 27-6, in front of an announced crowd of 79,773 people at FedExField in Week 12.

The Redskins' defense responded strongly in a matchup against the 49ers' potent rushing attack, holding San Francisco to 2.3 yards per carry, the Niners' lowest average in its last 40 regular season games. It marked the third time in 2013 the Redskins had held opponents to less than 3.0 yards per carry (Week 3 vs. Detroit, Week 6 at Dallas, Week 12 vs. San Francisco).

Kicker Kai Forbath opened the scoring for the Redskins in the second quarter, converting on a 36-yard attempt to complete a 13-play, 63-yard drive. Later in the quarter, he added a 35-yard field goal completing the Redskins' 11-play, 63-yard drive to end the first half.

Linebacker Brian Orakpo registered a first-quarter sack, giving him 36.0 for his career and passing Dave Butz (35.5) for fifth on the Redskins' all-time sack list. Defensive end Jarvis Jenkins also added a sack in the first quarter. The sack was the first full sack of his career after he registered his first career half-sack the week before at Philadelphia.

On offense, wide receiver Pierre Garçon registered eight receptions for 48 yards. Garçon now has 75 receptions this season, surpassing his previous career high of 70 with the Indianapolis Colts in 2011.

The Redskins rushed for 100 yards on 27 carries. Washington has rushed for at least 100 yards in 10 straight games, the second longest streak of the Mike Shanahan era (13 across the 2011-12 seasons). Washington's 10 games with 100 or more rushing yards through Week 12 are tied with Carolina and Kansas City for most in the NFL.

GIANTS 24, REDSKINS 17

LANDOVER, Md. – The Washington Redskins fell to the New York Giants, 24-17, in front of an announced crowd of 75,220 people at FedExField in Week 14. The Redskins pushed their NFL-best home sellout streak to 383 games, including both regular season and postseason games.

Washington opened the game with a 14-play, 72-yard drive that resulted in a one-yard touchdown run by Alfred Morris. The opening drive touchdown was Washington's first of the season and first since Week 14 vs. Baltimore last season.

Quarterback Robert Griffin III completed 24-of-32 passes for 207 yards and one touchdown for a quarterback rating of 102.0. He matched his career best for consecutive completions, connecting on his first 12 passes of the game. The last time Griffin III completed 12 consecutive passes came on Nov. 22, 2012 at Dallas during the second and third quarters of the team's Thanksgiving Day win. The 12 consecutive completions were also Griffin III's most to open a game in his career.

During the game, Griffin III surpassed the 3,000-yard passing mark for the season (3,039). He joined Sonny Jurgensen, Joe Theismann, Mark Rypien and Jason Campbell as the only Redskins to accomplish the feat. He also became the fifth quarterback in NFL history to post 3,000 yard passing yards in each of his first two NFL seasons, joining Peyton Manning, Andy Dalton, Cam Newton, and Ryan Tannehill.

Griffin III also registered season and game highs in rushing attempts (12) and rushing yards (88). The effort marked the first time since Week 11 last year vs. Philadelphia that Griffin III had led the Redskins in rushing yardage.

Wide receiver Pierre Garçon caught a season-high nine passes, tying his career high set on Dec. 4, 2011 at New England. Garçon's receptions gained 61 yards, giving him 980 yards for the seasons. He surpassed his previous career high of 947 receiving yards with the Indianapolis Colts in 2011.

On defense, linebacker Brian Orakpo recorded two sacks, the 37th and 38th of his career. It marked the eight time in Orakpo's career he had registered at least two sacks in a game. Orakpo now has at least one full sack in the last four games, marking the first time in his career he has recorded such a streak. The two sacks came in the midst of recording a total of 5.5 sacks in a four-game span, the best four-game stretch of his career.

CHIEFS 45, REDSKINS 10

LANDOVER, Md. – The Washington Redskins lost to the Kansas City Chiefs, 45-10, in front of an announced crowd of 56,247 people at FedExField in Week 14.

Running back Alfred Morris eclipsed 1,000 rushing yards for the season, the 24th 1,000-yard rushing season in team history. Morris became the first Redskins running back to post consecutive 1,000-yard rushing seasons since Clinton Portis in 2007-08. Wide receiver Pierre Garçon surpassed the 1,000-yard receiving mark for the season, the 27th in Redskins history and the first of his career.

The scoring for the Redskins started with Logan Paulsen catching his third touchdown of the season, pulling in a seven-yard pass from Robert Griffin III in the second quarter. The Redskins ended the half with kicker Kai Forbath's 50-yard field goal, matching his career long.

On defense, linebacker Perry Riley Jr. recorded his first career interception in the fourth quarter, picking off Chiefs quarterback Chase Daniel.

The Redskins kickoff return unit produced their best game of the season with 179 yards on kickoff returns, the team's highest total since October 31, 2010 at Detroit.

FALCONS 27, REDSKINS 26

ATLANTA – The Washington Redskins lost to the Atlanta Falcons 27-26, in front of an announced crowd of 70,069 people at the Georgia Dome in Week 15.

Quarterback Kirk Cousins earned his second career start and his first of the season, completing 29-of-45 passes for 381 yards and three touchdowns, all career highs. Including a 329-yard effort in his first start at Cleveland in Week 15 last year, Cousins became the first Redskins quarterback in the Super Bowl era to throw for 300 yards in each of his first two career starts, according to the Elias Sports Bureau. Cousins' 381 passing yards were the most by a Redskins quarterback since Donovan McNabb threw for 426 yards vs. Houston on Sept. 19, 2010.

After an early 14-0 deficit, the Redskins went on a 20-3 run to take a 20-17 lead into halftime. Facing a seven-point deficit in the fourth quarter, Cousins drove the Redskins 80 yards in 13 plays in 3:07 for a touchdown pass to Santana Moss to pull within one point before a potential game-winning two-point conversion attempt fell incomplete.

On defense, the Redskins held the Falcons to 3.92 yards per play, the teams lowest since allowing 3.62 yards per play to Philadelphia in Week 11 last season. They also held the Falcons to 2.57 yards per rush, marking the fourth time this season Washington had held an opponent to less than three yards per carry.

Linebacker Ryan Kerrigan forced his fourth fumble of the season, tying his career high from 2011. The fumble was recovered by linebacker Brian Orakpo, who added 1.5 sacks to reach double digits in sacks for the first time since 2009. Additionally, safety Jose Gumbs recorded his first career interception in the second quarter, picking off Atlanta quarterback Matt Ryan.

The Redskins gained 476 yards, giving them 5,367 yards of offense for the season. With the effort, the Redskins broke 5,000 yards in a season for the ninth consecutive year, matching the longest streak in team history. Washington had a season-high 373 net passing yards, surpassing the team's 314 net passing yards at Green Bay in Week 2. The team's 320 first-half yards were the most in a first half in records available dating back to 1991.

GAME 15

FedExField (Landover, Md.)

COWBOYS 24, REDSKINS 23

LANDOVER, Md. – The Washington Redskins dropped to 3-12 with a 24-23 loss to the Dallas Cowboys in front of an announced crowd of 80,411 people at FedExField in Week 16. The Redskins pushed their NFL-best home sellout streak to 385 games, including both regular season and postseason games.

Wide receiver Pierre Garçon posted a career-high 11 receptions, recording 144 receiving yards and a receiving touchdown. Garçon pushed his season total to 107 receptions, breaking Pro Football Hall of Famer Art Monk's team record for receptions in a single season (106 in 1984). Garçon joined Monk as the only players in team history to record triple-digit catches in a season.

The Redskins rushed for 100 yards, pushing them past the 2,000-yard mark for the season (2,073). Running back Alfred Morris rushed for 88 yards on 24 carries and added a rushing touchdown. The third quarter touchdown was Morris' seventh rushing touchdown of the season. Washington allowed no sacks in the game, the first time the team had done so since Week 9 vs. San Diego.

The Redskins' defense forced two second half turnovers. Cornerback Josh Wilson recorded his second forced fumble of the season in the third quarter, the ninth of his career. Wilson also recovered the fumble, his second fumble recovery of the season and the 10th of his career. Cornerback DeAngelo Hall recorded his fourth interception of the season, picking off Cowboys quarterback Tony Romo on Dallas' next possession.

Safety Brandon Meriweather recorded his first sack as a Redskin, dropping Tony Romo for a four-yard loss in the first quarter. Linebacker Ryan Kerrigan also added a sack in the third quarter, giving him 8.5 on the season, tying his career high set in 2012.

2013 GAME RECAPS

Dec. 29, 2013

GAME 16

MetLife Stadium (East Rutherford, N.J.)

GIANTS 20, REDSKINS 6

EAST RUTHERFORD, N.J. – The Redskins finished the 2013 season with a 20-6 loss to the New York Giants in front of an announced crowd of 80,177 people at MetLife Stadium in Week 17.

Wide receiver Pierre Garçon caught six passes for 56 yards, finishing the season with a team-record 113 receptions for 1,346 yards. Garçon became the third player in NFL history to record at least five receptions in all 16 games of a season since the adoption of the 16-game schedule in 1978, joining Jacksonville's Jimmy Smith (2001) and Pittsburgh's Antonio Brown (2013).

Quarterback Kirk Cousins set a career high with 49 pass attempts. This put the Redskins at 611 attempts on the season, breaking the previous franchise mark of 605 attempts in 2010. The Redskins also finished the season with 355 completions, setting a new team record by surpassing the 349 completions recorded by the 2010 squad.

Running back Alfred Morris gained 62 yards on 16 carries to finish the season with 1,275 rushing yards on 276 carries (4.6 avg.). Morris has rushed for 2,888 yards in his first two NFL seasons, ninth-most in NFL history.

In the second quarter, safety Brandon Meriweather forced his first fumble as a Redskin. It was his first forced fumble since Week 17 of the 2009 season at Houston as a member of the New England Patriots. The fumble was recovered by cornerback Josh Wilson, the 11th of his career and his career-high third of the season. It was his second recovery in as many games, marking the second time in his career he had posted fumble recoveries in back-to-back weeks (Weeks 2-3 of 2012).

On the ensuing possession, kicker Kai Forbath converted a 31-yard field goal attempt. He added a 49-yard field goal later in the quarter, pushing his streak of consecutive successful field goal attempts to end the season to 14.

Wilson later recorded his first interception of the season, picking off Manning in the second quarter. It was his first interception since Week 17 last season vs. Dallas. Safety Reed Doughty registered his first interception of the season in the third quarter, picking off Giants quarterback Curtis Painter.

IMPORTANT DATES

The Start - July 9, 1932

George P. Marshall headed a group (Vincent Bendix, Jay O'Brien, Dorland Doyle) that bought an National Football League franchise in Boston. They contracted to play in Braves Field, home of the National League Baseball team, and were called "The Braves."

The Name

The Boston Gridders moved to Fenway Park, home of the American League Red Sox, and "The Braves" became "The Redskins."

The Franchise - Feb. 13, 1937

The Washington Redskins were officially born as the National Football League approved the transfer of the Boston Redskins franchise to Washington, D.C., and a new history began.

The Band - Aug. 9, 1937

The famed Redskins Band was founded and it was the first of its kind.

First Victory - Sept. 16, 1937

The First Game! The Franchise's Thursday night opener drew 19,941 fans to flood-lighted Griffith Stadium. Riley Smith scored on a 60-yard interception return, while the team added two field goals and an extra point to make the final score - Redskins 13, Giants 3.

First Title - Dec. 5, 1937

Ten thousand fans stomped up Broadway behind the brass band following the franchise's first title. In the game, Sammy Baugh completed 11-of-15 passes, while Cliff Battles had touchdown runs of 75 and 76 yards as the team routed the Giants, 49-14, for the Eastern Championship.

World Champs! - Dec. 12, 1937

Freezing weather, frozen field and the icy-nerved Bears couldn't stop Sammy Baugh (center below). He completed 17-of-33 passes for 335 yards and three touchdowns. Wayne Millner (right), the all-time Notre Dame great, finished with nine catches for 160 yards, including 77- and 55-yard touchdowns.

Westward Ho! - Aug. 2, 1939

The Redskins set forth on their first coast-to-coast football training trip. Training site: Eastern State Normal School in Cheney, Wash.

Zero Hour - Oct. 1, 1939

The Redskins and Giants battled in the mud and rain as the outcome wound up being a scoreless tie, the only scoreless tie in Redskins history.

Record Pass - Oct. 15, 1939

From the kick formation and standing deep in the end zone, Frank Filchock flipped a pass to Andy Farkas who went all the way for the touchdown. It was the longest pass play in National Football League history, 99 yards.

East Champs - Dec. 1, 1940

Miniature-sized Davey O'Brien of the Eagles completed 33 passes in 60 attempts, but the Redskins won 13-6 to clinch the Eastern Championship.

73-to-Ohhh! - Dec. 8, 1940

Despite the Redskins gaining the same number of first downs as the Bears in the World Championship Game at Griffith Stadium, the team lost 73-0.

California - Aug. 18, 1941

The Redskins brought pro football on a large scale to California for the first time. They established training quarters in San Diego at Brown Military Academy.

Title Escapes - Nov. 23, 1941

There were 50 seconds to go in the Eastern Championship Game and the Redskins held a 13-10 lead, but the Giants managed to score a field goal and a touchdown to win, 20-13.

Only Loss - Sept. 27, 1942

The Giants are unable to convert a first down, gained only ONE yard rushing, completed just ONE pass...but it was good for a touchdown; then they captured another touchdown on an interception and the Redskins suffered their only 1942 defeat, 14-7.

World Champs! - Dec. 13, 1942

The Bears took an early lead on an errant pass from center, but Sammy Baugh's 85-yard quick kick set them back on their heels. Wilbur Moore then made a vital interception and followed with a sensational catch for a 38-yard touchdown. Andy Farkas capped the victory by carrying the ball 10 of 12 times on an 80-yard touchdown drive. Score: 14-6.

Runner Up- Dec. 26, 1943

Sam Baugh suffered a concussion early tackling Sid Luckman on a punt return and the Bears went on to win the NFL title, 41-21.

To a T - July 30, 1945

Redskins abandoned their double-wing formation and adopted the T-formation.

East Champs - Dec. 9, 1945

The Redskins had two straight shutouts, the first coming against the Steelers, 24-0, on Dec. 2 and the team defeated the Giants, 17-0, en route to an Eastern title.

One Point Shy - Dec. 16, 1945

In subzero weather, the Redskins lost the world title to Rams, 15-14, on freakish plays. Baugh's pass from the end zone hit the goal-post for a safety (no longer allowed); and Waterfield's try-for-point hit the crossbar and bounced over.

Charity Game - Sept. 6, 1946

The First Annual Redskins-Rams game for benefit for the Los Angeles Times Charities, Inc. drew 68,188 to Memorial Coliseum and netted the Times Boys Club $96,711.23.

IMPORTANT DATES

The Diesel Keeps Trucking On - Nov. 20, 1983

John Riggins set an NFL record as his consecutive games with rushing touchdowns reached 12 while notching his 19th touchdown of the year to tie that NFL mark. John's streak ended at 13 consecutive games while he went on to establish an NFL record 24 touchdowns.

Doomsday Showdown - Dec. 11, 1983

Dressed in army fatigues, the Redskins marched into Dallas to do battle. The result was a convincing 31-10 victory in Dallas to gain sole possession of first place in the NFC East. It was a game that saw Tony Dorsett held to 34 yards on 14 carries (one yard on five carries in the second half) and scores from four different Redskins.

Alone on a Hill - Dec. 17, 1983

For the second year in a row, the Redskins finished with the best record in the NFL. Their 31-22 victory over the Giants capped a remarkable 14-2 regular season. It was the first time in the history of the League that an NFC team compiled so many victories.

One-Two Punch - 1983

Mark Moseley's NFL kick scoring record of 161 points, and Riggins' total of 144 points, topped the entire NFL. It was the first time since 1951 that the number one and two scorers played on the same team. Their total of 305 points surpassed the totals of eight other clubs.

Ring Out the Rams - Jan. 1, 1984

The Redskins rang in the New Year by drubbing the L.A. Rams 51-7 in the most lopsided playoff game in 26 years. The team set or tied 13 club playoff marks with the 44-point margin of victory, the greatest in the 47-year history of the Redskins.

Three of a Kind - 1985

The 10 victories marked a third consecutive season the Redskins won 10 or more games, equaling a club-best streak set from 1972-74. The 35 wins in those three seasons were a club record for wins over a three-year period. Threes were also meaningful for offensive linemen Joe Jacoby and Russ Grimm, who each earned a third consecutive trip to the Pro Bowl. Receiver Art Monk (91 catches) went for a second straight time.

Happy Birthday - Feb. 13, 1986

The Washington Redskins entered their 50th season in the Nation's Capital, celebrating the franchise's move from Boston to Washington.

Rally Ho - 1986

Headed by Coach Ray Flaherty of the 1937 World Champions, former players and coaches gathered to kickoff the 1986 season.

Little Mr. Big - Oct. 27, 1986

WR Gary Clark accounted for 241 receiving yards (on 11 catches) to break teammate Art Monk's club record on Monday Night TV.

Showdown - Nov. 23, 1986

Eager to avenge their first loss of 1986, the Redskins came out smokin' against Dallas. The 34-0 first half lead marked the most points the Cowboys had ever allowed in a single half of play. The Redskins 41-14 win was their most points ever against the Cowboys.

Gibbs Gets #70 - Jan. 3, 1987

Relief Pitcher - Dec. 26, 1987

Quarterback Doug Williams connected on 11-of-22 for 217 yards and two touchdowns in Minnesota. The 27-24 overtime victory is highlighted by a Ricky Sanders 51-yard catch-and-run to force sudden death. Haji-Sheikh kicks the game winner.

The Bear Facts - Jan. 10, 1988

For the second time in two years, the 'Skins traveled to Chicago for a divisional playoff game. After trailing 14-0 in the second quarter, the team rallied to win 21-17. Darrell Green provided the game-winning points on an electrifying 52-yard punt return, as the Redskins advanced to the NFC Championship Game for the fourth time in six seasons.

NFC Champs! - Jan. 17, 1988

The Redskins are 17-10 victors over the Minnesota Vikings as Doug Williams connected with Gary Clark to break a 10-10 fourth quarter deadlock. Washington became the first team to advance to the Super Bowl three times in the 1980s.

World Champs! - Jan. 31, 1988

Twenty Super Bowl records were broken en route to a 42-10 decision over the Denver Broncos. Quarterback Doug Williams (below) is named the game's MVP as he connected on 18-of-29 for a record 340 yards. His four touchdown passes tie another record as the team scores five times in five possessions in the second quarter alone.

100 Wins - Dec. 10, 1989

Joe Gibbs registered his 100th career win as head coach of the Redskins as the team defeated San Diego, 26-21. Only six other coaches reached 100 wins faster than Gibbs.

Monk Moves Up - Dec. 10, 1989

Art Monk moved into third place on the all-time NFL receiving list, ahead of friend and receivers coach Charley Taylor, in Washington's 26-21 win vs. SD.

IMPORTANT DATES

OVERTIME GAMES

In 1974, the NFL established overtime to decide regular season games. Since then, the Redskins have compiled a 23-14-1 record in overtime games.

Nov. 2, 1975 - RFK Stadium

Washington 30, Dallas 24

Ken Houston returned a Roger Staubach interception 14 yards, and Billy Kilmer scored the winning touchdown after 6:34 of overtime action.

Nov. 16, 1975 - Busch Stadium

St. Louis 20, Washington 17

The Cards scored with 20 seconds remaining on a catch by Mel Gray to force overtime. St. Louis won the coin toss and marched to set up a 37-yard Jim Bakken field goal to win after seven minutes of play.

Nov. 23, 1975 - RFK Stadium

Oakland 26, Washington 23

George Blanda's 27-yard field goal decided the contest after 7:13.

Sept. 27, 1976 - Veterans Stadium

Washington 20, Philadelphia 17

Mark Moseley's 29-yard field goal won the Monday night game with 12:49 elapsed in overtime.

Nov. 12, 1978 - RFK Stadium

Washington 16, New York Giants 13

Washington won on Moseley's 45-yard field goal after 3:32 elapsed.

Nov. 15, 1981 - Giants Stadium

Washington 30, New York Giants 27

Moseley kicked a 49-yard field goal on the game's final play to force overtime and a 48-yard field goal to win with 3:44 elapsed.

Sept. 12, 1982 - Veterans Stadium

Washington 37, Philadelphia 34

The Redskins sent the game into overtime on a 48-yard field goal by Moseley with :01 to play. Moseley won the game with a 26-yarder.

Nov. 2, 1986 - RFK Stadium

Washington 44, Minnesota 38

Jay Schroeder engineered a four-play, 63-yard drive ending with a Gary Clark 38-yard touchdown pass.

Dec. 26, 1987 - Metrodome

Washington 27, Minnesota 24

Ricky Sanders' 51-yard touchdown reception from Doug Williams with less than two minutes remaining tied the score at 24. Ali Haji-Sheikh kicked the 26-yard game-winning field goal after Sanders' 36-yard kickoff return in overtime.

Dec. 17, 1988 - Riverfront Stadium

Cincinnati 20, Washington 17

Jim Breech connected from 20 yards out seven minutes into sudden death.

Nov. 4, 1990 - Pontiac Silverdome

Washington 41, Detroit 38

Chip Lohmiller's 34-yard field goal 9:10 into overtime capped the Redskins comeback that equalled the team's greatest in history. Down by 21 points in the third quarter and 17 points entering the fourth, Jeff Rutledge's 12-yard run tied the game with :18 seconds remaining.

Nov. 3, 1991 - RFK Stadium

Washington 16, Houston 13

Darrell Green intercepted a Warren Moon pass which set-up Lohmiller's 41-yard field goal 5:01 into overtime moving the Redskins to a 9-0 record. The Oilers tied the game with less than two minutes in regulation and had a chance to win after Brian Mitchell fumbled the kickoff, but Ian Howfield's 33-yard attempt sailed wide left.

Oct. 16, 1994 - RFK Stadium

Arizona 19, Washington 16

Arizona scored the tying touchdown with :19 left in regulation. Arizona's game-winner was set up by Terry Hoage, who intercepted a Heath Shuler pass and returned it 12 yards to the 23. Peterson kicked the game-winning 29-yard field goal.

Oct. 8, 1995 - Veterans Stadium

Philadelphia 37, Washington 34

Down 10 points in the 4th quarter, Gus Frerotte guided the Redskins back with a touchdown pass to Henry Ellard and Eddie Murray's 46-yard field goal tied it up with :52 left. In OT, Washington stalled on its opening drive and the Eagles' Gary Anderson won the game with a 35-yard field goal.

Oct. 22, 1995 - RFK Stadium

Washington 36, Detroit 30

Trailing 30-27, Eddie Murray's 39-yard field goal tied it with :04 to play. Darrell Green's seven-yard interception return of a Scott Mitchell pass for a touchdown 3:41 into overtime ended the game.

Nov. 10, 1996 - RFK Stadium

Arizona 37, Washington 34

In one of the most bizarre games in Redskins history, the Skins led by 14 points in the fourth quarter only to squander the lead. The Cardinals won the coin toss and drove to the Redskins 15, only to have Kevin Butler miss. The Skins' Scott Blanton booted the apparent 38-yard game-winner, but a holding penalty forced a retry from 48 that went wide left. Arizona then missed a 29-yarder that was negated because the Redskins were offside. Butler's third attempt was good from 32 yards.

Nov. 24, 1996 - RFK Stadium

San Francisco 19, Washington 16

San Francisco's William Floyd's 1-yard touchdown run tied the game in regulation. After winning the coin toss in overtime, the 49ers' Jeff Wilkins hit a 38-yard field goal to win.

Sept. 14, 1997 - Jack Kent Cooke Stadium

Washington 19, Arizona 13

In the inaugural game at Jack Kent Cooke Stadium, the Redskins won with 13:24 left in overtime when Gus Frerotte, sidestepping a heavy rush, threw a 40-yard strike to a leaping Michael Westbrook in the end zone. The winning points were set up two plays earlier when rookie defensive end Kenard Lang forced a fumble and rookie linebacker recovers on the Redskins 35-yard line.

Nov. 23, 1997 - Jack Kent Cooke Stadium

Washington 7, NY Giants 7

In overtime, the Redskins turned the ball over three times, but the defense forced two punts and the Giants missed a 54-yard field goal. With under two minutes remaining, the Redskins drove to the Giants 36-yard line, but a 54-yard field goal attempt fell short with 11 seconds left in overtime.

OVERTIME GAMES

Sept. 12, 1999 - FedExField

Dallas 41, Washington 35

Dallas stopped the Skins' first overtime drive and then scored on a 76-yard bomb from Troy Aikman to Rocket Ismail.

Nov. 28, 1999 - FedExField

Washington 20, Philadelphia 17

Brett Conway's game-winning 27-yard FG was set up by a 48-yard kick-off return by James Thrash, which opened the overtime period. The Eagles never had the ball.

Dec. 26, 1999 - 3Com Park

Washington 26, San Francisco 20

The Redskins overcame a 10-point fourth quarter deficit to win their ninth game of the year and clinch the NFC East. Brad Johnson's QB sneak from the 1-yard line with 3:28 left in regulation sent the game into the extra period. On the opening drive, Johnson connected with Larry Centers for a 33-yard TD.

Oct. 1, 2000 - FedExField

Washington 20, Tampa Bay 17

Tampa Bay forced the overtime when Martin Gramatica connected on a 42-yard field goal as the regulation clock fell to 0:00. 10:51 into the extra period, Deion Sanders ignited the crowd with a 57-yard punt return, setting up the game winning 20-yard field goal by Michael Husted.

Oct. 21, 2001 - FedExField

Washington 17, Carolina 14

Placekicker Brett Conway kicked a 23-yard field goal in overtime to seal the Redskins' first victory of the season and the first under Marty Schottenheimer, 17-14. The Redskins forced overtime by overcoming a 14-point deficit in the fourth quarter thanks to a 67-yard interception return for touchdown by LaVar Arrington and an 85-yard touchdown pass from Tony Banks to Rod Gardner.

Sept. 21, 2003 - FedExField

New York Giants 24, Washington 21

With less than five minutes left in regulation, Washington overcame a 21-10 deficit to send the game into overtime. The Giants won the toss and drove downfield from their own 6-yard line. Kicker Matt Bryant connected on a 29-yard field goal to cap off New York's first scoring drive since the second quarter and seal the 24-21 victory.

Oct. 2, 2005 - FedExField

Washington 20, Seattle 17

With a chance to win the game at the end of regulation with 0:01 left on the clock, Seattle kicker Josh Brown missed a 47-yard field goal, sending the game into overtime. After winning the coin toss, the Redskins went on a 5:31 drive that culminated with a Nick Novak 39-yard field goal to seal Washington's victory over the Seahawks.

Nov. 27, 2005 - FedExField

San Diego 23, Washington 17

San Diego running back LaDainian Tomlinson scored a 32-yard touchdown run with 3:37 remaining to tie the game at 17 apiece. With 0:35 remaining, the Redskins had an opportunity to take the lead with a 53-yard field goal but the ball sailed wide right. In overtime, San Diego ran two plays that culminated in a 41-yard touchdown run, again by Tomlinson to seal the victory.

Oct. 1, 2006 - FedExField

Washington 36, Jacksonville 30

Jacksonville sent the game into overtime with :06 on the clock when kicker Josh Scobee connected on a 41-yard field goal. Washington won the coin toss and proceeded to take the ball 80 yards on three plays for the game-winning score. Quarterback Mark Brunell connected with wide receiver Santana Moss for a 68-yard touchdown pass to seal the win.

Dec. 24, 2006 - Edward Jones Dome

St. Louis 37, Washington 31

Washington kicker Shaun Suisham nailed a field goal with 1:15 remaining in regulation to tie the score at 31 and send it into overtime. St. Louis came back in overtime and, six minutes into the extra time, running back Steven Jackson took a handoff 21 yards for the game winning touchdown.

Sept. 9, 2007 - FedExField

Washington 16, Miami 13

In overtime, the Redskins won the coin toss and elected to receive. Running backs Clinton Portis and Ladell Betts combined for 46 rushing yards and quarterback Jason Campbell completed a key third-down pass to tight end Chris Cooley, keeping the drive alive. As soon as the Redskins got into field goal range, kicker Shaun Suisham nailed the 39-yard field goal to seal the victory.

Nov. 4, 2007 - Meadowlands

Washington 23, New York Jets 20

Jets kicker Mike Nugent connected on a 30-yard field goal with 0:15 left in regulation to tie the game at 20-20 and send the game into overtime. Washington running back Clinton Portis bulldozed his way down the field in overtime, setting up the game-winning 46-yard field goal by kicker Shaun Suisham.

Dec. 6, 2009 - FedExField

New Orleans 33, Washington, 30

Saints quarterback Drew Brees drove 80 yards at the end of regulation to tie the game at 30-30. In overtime, the Saints marched down the field setting up an 18-yard field goal by kicker Garrett Hartley to seal the victory.

Sept. 19, 2010 - FedExField

Houston 30, Washington 27

After holding the Texans on the first possession of overtime, the Redskins drove to the Houston 34-yard line, but kicker Graham Gano pushed a 52-yard attempt wide right. On the ensuing drive, Neil Rackers connected on a 35-yard field goal to give Houston the win.

OVERTIME GAMES

Oct. 10, 2010 – FedExField

Washington 16, Green Bay 13

LaRon Landry intercepted an Aaron Rodgers pass on Green Bay's second overtime possession and the Redskins drove 24 yards to set up a game-winning 33-yard field goal by kicker Graham Gano in the team's Week 5 win against the eventual Super Bowl champions.

Nov. 21, 2010 – LP Field

Washington 19, Tennessee 16

After missing a potential game-winning field goal at the end of regulation, Gano redeemed himself in overtime, capping off a 10-play, 57-yard drive with a 48-yarder on the Redskins' first overtime possession to secure a 19-16 road win.

Dec. 26, 2010 – EverBank Field

Washington 20, Jacksonville 17

A 20-yard touchdown run by Jacksonville quarterback David Garrard in the final three minutes of regulation helped the Jaguars force overtime. Jacksonville won the toss and elected to receive, but on their third offensive play of overtime, cornerback Kevin Barnes intercepted Garrard, setting up Gano for a 31-yard game-winning field goal.

Nov. 20, 2011 – FedExField

Dallas 27, Washington 24

Redskins quarterback Rex Grossman lofted a perfect fade to receiver Donté Stallworth in the corner of the end zone with 14 seconds remaining in regulation to force overtime. The Redskins missed a 52-yard field goal attempt on the first possession of overtime, and Dallas responded as kicker Dan Bailey hit a 39-yard field goal above the right upright for a Dallas victory.

Dec. 9, 2012 – FedExField

Washington 31, Baltimore 28

Baltimore took an eight-point lead with less than five minutes to play, but Washington quarterbacks Robert Griffin III and Kirk Cousins led a 13-play, 88-yard drive to tie the game at 28-28. Cousins, in place of an injured Griffin III, threw an 11-yard touchdown pass to Pierre Garçon and followed it with a two-point conversion on a quarterback draw. In overtime, Washington forced the eventual Super Bowl champion Ravens to go three-and-out, and after a 64-yard punt return by rookie Richard Crawford, kicker Kai Forbath (below) hit a 34-yard game-winning field goal.

Nov. 3, 2013 – FedExField

Washington 30, San Diego 24

Leading 24-21 on Homecoming Weekend, the Redskins' defense faced first-and-goal from its own 1-yard line with 21 seconds remaining. After stopping Danny Woodhead on first down, the Redskins forced two Philip Rivers incompletions and forced the Chargers to settle for a game-tying 19-yard field goal by Nick Novak. Washington took the ball on the first possession of overtime and promptly drove 78 yards in 10 plays, winning the game on fullback Darrel Young's team-record-tying third rushing touchdown of the day.

FEDEXFIELD

FedExField is one of the preeminent entertainment venues in the National Football League. Located in Landover, Md., the privately financed FedExField was completed in a record 17 months and hosted the Redskins home opener Sept. 14, 1997 – a 19-13 overtime win against the Arizona Cardinals.

The stadium is located on a 200-acre site and has the largest seating capacity in the NFL with 85,000 seats. FedExField is one of just two stadiums with three tiers of luxury suites. Suites are equipped with restrooms, a refrigerator, televisions, a lounge area, two rows of seats and bar stools.

FedExField increased the Redskins attendance capacity by more than 40 percent when the team left RFK Stadium after 1996. Nevertheless, the Redskins have sold out every home game for the past 46 seasons, pushing their NFL-high sell-out streak to 385 combined regular season and postseason games. All 169 (preseason, regular and postseason) contests at FedExField through the 2013 season have been sellouts.

Construction on FedExField began in March 1996 and cost $250 million. The following year, $30 million was spent to create a 170,000 square-foot atrium encircling the entire stadium making the Joe Gibbs Club Level the most spectacular in the league.

When Daniel M. Snyder became the Redskins owner in July 1999, one of his first tasks was to make improvements to FedExField. Immediately, millions were invested in such projects as replacing metal rails with glass rails in order to provide unobstructed sight lines in the stadium bowl.

Prior to the 2011 season, the Redskins, along with NRG Energy, one of the largest energy companies in the United States, brought the largest solar installation of renewable energy in the region to FedExField– 8,000 solar panels, 10 electric vehicle charging stations and a 30-foot tall solar sculpture. Prince George's County Chamber of Commerce honored the Redskins' innovation in solar installation by recognizing them as the 2011 Green Business of the Year.

Snyder also created unique Executive Suites, upper level and end zone party decks, the NFL's largest video wall and added more than 1,000 cash parking spaces. The Redskins installation of new 100-foot long endzone HD Videoboard and eight new digital ribbon boards provide fans with out-of-town scores and statistics, and the implementation of a text message traffic alert system gives fans updates on the best gameday routes.

Snyder was also instrumental in the multi-million dollar renovation and replacement of the video control room and the movement of the late Sean Taylor's locker for viewing on the stadium's Club Level.

Since his inaugural season, Snyder has spent more than $100 million to enhance FedExField and ensure a best-in-class experience for fans.

FedExField while being the official home of the Redskins, is also host to a variety of special events including premier college football games, world-class performers, like award winning country music artist Kenny Chesney; international matches, such as the soccer friendly between U.S. Men's National Team and Brazil; and much more.

In June 2014, the facility hosted defending World Cup champions Spain's soccer match against local favorite El Salvador in advance of hometown Major League Soccer team D.C. United's match against Columbus Crew in a double-header extravaganza. In July, FedExField will also host top European soccer clubs Manchester United and Inter Milan as part of the 2014 Guinness International Champions Cup (GICC).

The home of the Redskins will also welcome college football teams from the U.S. Naval Academy and Notre Dame in 2014, as the Midshipmen and Irish are scheduled to face one another on Saturday, Nov. 1. Both teams played at FedExField during the 2011 season, with Notre Dame defeating Maryland and Navy earning a win in the 2011 Army/Navy game.

Redskins Special Events opens up a world of possibilities by making its most exclusive areas that host the "who's who" of Washington during Redskins games available for non-game events throughout the year. FedExField is the perfect backdrop for any special occasion. For more information, check out <http://events.redskins.com>.

FedExField went green in 2011, as the Washington Redskins and NRG Energy installed a solar power system at FedExField that provides a portion of the stadium's electricity needs on game days and can generate enough power to serve all of its electrical needs on non-game days.

A DAY OF FIRSTS

On September 14, 1997, the Redskins opened their new stadium with a thrilling 19-13 overtime victory over the Arizona Cardinals in front of a record crowd of Washington fans.

In their first game at their new home, the Redskins were forced into overtime when Cardinals kicker Kevin Butler connected on a 47-yard field goal to tie the score with just two seconds remaining.

The Cards won the toss to start the extra period, but rookie defensive lineman Kenard Lang stripped Arizona running back Leeland McElroy of the football, and Derek M. Smith recovered for the Skins on the 35-yard line.

Quarterback Gus Frerotte (right) was sacked on first down, but on the next play he found Michael Westbrook in the endzone for a game-winning 40-yard drive.

STADIUM GUIDE

The safety and enjoyment of the game day experience is the Redskins' primary concern. Please note that everyone entering FedExField is subject to search by our security staff. This requires fans to enter through predetermined screening locations, which sometimes results in crowding. The Redskins apologize for the inconvenience.

Please be aware that the following items are not permitted into FedExField:

- *Bags, including: backpacks, gym bags, duffel bags, packages, briefcases, large purses, etc.
- *Food and beverages of any kind
- *Umbrellas (ponchos are available for sale at select merchandise areas)
- *Bottles, jugs, thermoses, cans, coolers, or any other container
- *Animals (except for certified guide dogs assisting disabled guests)
- *Whistles, horns and other noise makers
- *Weapons, firearms
- *Illegal drugs
- *Folding chairs

Per NFL policy, fans will be able to carry the following style and size bag, package, or container at stadium plaza areas, stadium gates, or when approaching queue lines of fans awaiting entry into the stadium:

*Bags that are clear plastic, vinyl or PVC and do not exceed 12" x 6" x 12." (Official NFL team logo clear plastic tote bags will be available through club merchandise outlets or at nflshop.com/allclear).

*One-gallon clear plastic freezer bag (Ziploc bag or similar).

Small clutch bags are permissible, if they are approximately the size of a hand, with or without a handle or strap can be taken into the stadium with one of the clear plastic bags.

An exception will be made for medically necessary items after proper inspection at a gate designated for this purpose. For more information, please visit: <http://www.nfl.com/allclear>.

Leafleting or distribution of any literature is prohibited.

Understanding and adhering to these policies will help ensure that all fans enter FedExField in a safe and timely manner. If a ticket holder elects not to consent to these searches or is found attempting to enter with a prohibited item, the ticket holder may be denied entry into the stadium.

AAA Ultimate Fan Zone

Starting three hours before every preseason and regular season game, the AAA Ultimate Fan Zone offers its members a pre-game food and entertainment extravaganza unmatched anywhere else in the NFL. Bar-B-Q food and soft drinks are included in the admission price. Entertainment includes live music, appearances by cheerleaders and former players, video games, giveaways and flat screen televisions showing the early games. For more information, contact the Premium Seat Sales department at 301-276-6800 or by email at clubinfo@redskins.com.

Alcohol Sales

Alcohol is sold only to guests 21 years or older. Proper photo identification is required. There is a two (2) drink maximum per purchase, per person. On the Lower and Upper Levels, all alcohol sales will cease at the completion of the 3rd Quarter of Redskins games. Sales may be discontinued earlier at the discretion of management and for other events.

ATMs

ATMs are located on the following levels:

Lower Level: Sections 103, 111, 116, 124, 131 and 139

Club Level: Sections 304, 325, 330 and 334

Upper Level: Sections 409, 422, 434 and 449

Audi Club

The Audi Club area is a bar with an outdoor patio on the Club Level at Sections 330-334. Club, Field Club, Owner's Club, Suite and Loge ticket holders can enjoy a live band on the patio during the "5th Quarter" for two hours after every Redskins home game.

Automobile Assistance

FedExField provides complimentary automobile assistance for lock-outs, jump starts and flat tires. Please visit the nearest Guest Services Booth or ask a FedExField representative for assistance. Guest Services Booths are located by the elevators at the NRG Gate (Gate A) and the Bank of America Gate (Gate E) on all levels.

Away Games

Ticket and travel packages for all Redskins away games can be purchased through Redskins Travel. Stay at the team hotel, receive souvenirs, and most importantly, get tickets to the game in the Redskins section. Contact Redskins Travel at 1-800-756-6342 or visit www.redskinstravel.com.

Bud Light Party Pavilion

The Bud Light Party Pavilion is located on the exterior plaza (at Gates F and G). This area opens three hours prior to kickoff and has musical entertainment and food and beverage concessions. A game ticket is required to enter the Bud Light Party Pavillion and there is no exit/re-entry allowed.

Cameras

Still cameras, digital cameras and handheld video cameras are permitted at sporting events. Guests may not reproduce any shots for any commercial use without the written permission of the Redskins. For concerts, still cameras, digital cameras, video cameras and audio recording devices are not permitted.

Centerplate

Centerplate is the stadium concessionaire for food and beverage service on the Lower and Upper Levels, Dream Seats, and Club Level. To contact Centerplate, call 301-276-6090.

Cheerleaders

The Washington Redskins Cheerleaders provide in-game entertainment at all Redskins games. They are also available for appearances at special events. Please call 301-276-6775 for more information or visit Redskins Cheerleaders section of web site.

Club Level ("Joe Gibbs Club Level")

The Club Level concourse is enclosed with furnished lounges, big screen televisions, food courts, the Audi Club (Sections 330-334), a sports bar (Sections 309-313), Hooter's (Sections 314-316) and Montecristo Club (Sections 306-308). There is also an EA Sports Arcade (Sections 335-337), plus Party Decks on both the west end zone (Sections 308-314) and the east end zone (Sections 329-335). Guests with a ticket for the Club Level, Dream Seats, Loge, Suites, or Owner's Club may enjoy the Club Level amenities at any time during the event. For more information, contact the Premium Seat Sales department at 301-276-6800 or by e-mail at clubinfo@redskins.com.

Disabled Access

FedExField provides accommodations for fans with disabilities. Seating for the disabled is available on all levels at FedExField in seating areas that can accommodate a wheelchair seat and one companion seat for a guest.

We provide captioning for the hearing impaired for all in-stadium announcements, including play-by-play announcements, on ribbon boards located at the 50-yard lines on both sides of the stadium. In addition, FedExField provides play-by-play captioning on television monitors located throughout the common areas of the stadium.

Parking for disabled/handicapped fans is available with an on-site parking permit and a valid state-issued disabled parking permit and/or license plate. Please display both permits and a parking lot attendant will direct you to the appropriate lot. Should you need additional assistance, please notify a parking lot attendant or text SKINS and your location to 69050. Alternatively, you may also call our Operations hotline at (301) 276-6100.

If you have any questions regarding special accommodations, please contact the Redskins Ticket Office at 301-276-6050 prior to the event, visit the Ticketing Services window located behind Section 103 inside the stadium on the day of the event, or email us at accommodations@redskins.com.

Disabled seating is limited, so please arrive early to secure seats. Team officials will try to relocate any fan with a hearing impairment who is unable to view the in-stadium ribbon boards from his assigned seat.

The Washington Redskins reserve the right to require proof of disability.

Elevators

Elevators are located at the NRG Gate (Gate A) and the Bank of America Gate (Gate E) for the convenience of Loge, Suite, and disabled guests. Disabled guests can get an elevator pass for themselves and one companion at any guest services booth.

Escalators

The Club Level escalators, located at Section 101 and Section 122, are available to Guests with a Club, Dream Seats, Loge, Suite or Owner's Club ticket. An escalator which accesses the Upper Level only is located between the NRG Gate (Gate A) and Gate B at Section 106 for the convenience of our Upper Level Guests and can be accessed either via the concourse or the turnstiles at the NRG Gate (Gate A). The Upper Level escalator drops Guests off at Section 412.

Family Restrooms

Family restrooms with baby-changing stations are located at the elevator towers at the NRG Gate (Gate A) and the Bank of America Gate (Gate E) on all levels.

Fan Code of Conduct

FedExField is committed to creating a safe, comfortable, and enjoyable experience for all fans, both in the stadium and in the parking lot. We want all fans attending our games to enjoy the experience in a responsible fashion. When attending a game you are required to refrain from the following behaviors:

- *Behavior that is unruly, disruptive, or illegal in nature
- *Intoxication or other signs of alcohol impairment that results in irresponsible behavior
- *Foul or offensive language or obscene gestures
- *Interference with the progress of the game (including throwing objects onto the field)
- *Failing to follow instructions of stadium personnel
- *Verbal or physical harassment of opposing team fans
- *Concealment of prohibited items into the stadium

Event patrons are responsible for their conduct as well as the conduct of their guests and/or persons occupying their seats. Stadium staff will promptly intervene to support an environment where event patrons, their guests, and other fans can enjoy the event free from the above behavior. Event patrons and guests who violate these provisions will be subject to ejection or denied entry into the stadium without refund and potential loss of ticket privileges for future games.

To request assistance or report an unruly fan on gameday please text "SKINS" to 69050 or call 301-276-6100.

Dream Seats

The Dream Seats are located on the field and are accessed via the 100 Level portals. The Dream Seats are Sections 1-42 and correspond with those sections on the 100 Level (i.e. Section 2 on the Dream Seats corresponds with Section 102). Guests with Dream Seats can also access the Club Level. For more information, contact the Premium Seat Sales department at 301-276-6800 or by email at clubinfo@redskins.com.

Fifth Quarter

REDSKINS PARK

Since 1992, the Washington Redskins have made their home on a picturesque 162 acres of land in Ashburn, Va., where Redskins Park is home to the Gerald S. Snyder Training Facility, the team's year-round headquarters. More than 20 years later, commitments to construction and renovation are helping Redskins Park stay amongst the upper echelon of team training facilities in all of professional sports.

In the summer of 2012, the Redskins and the Commonwealth of Virginia announced plans for $30 million in renovations to the team's Northern Virginia home. The plan includes financing from both the Commonwealth of Virginia and Loudoun County.

"During the last two years, the Washington Redskins have made significant improvements to modernize FedExField and Redskins Park, ensuring a best-in-class game day experience for our fans and an excellent training environment for our players," said Redskins President Bruce Allen. "We are very pleased to continue our relationship with the Commonwealth of Virginia that my father established 41 years ago. We are proud to call Loudoun County the home of Redskins Park."

In addition, the team officially opened the Redskins Indoor Training Facility in early 2012. The facility stands 96 feet high and houses a 120-yard practice field, complete with hanging uprights and space to accommodate the team's video needs.

"This is going to give us a great opportunity to work when we have some inclement weather," Allen said. "We're trying to find ways to maximize the players' health and efficiency."

The team has called Redskins Park its home since August of 1992, enjoying a private haven away from distractions. The complex features four football fields, strength training and sports medicine facilities, offices and meeting rooms for players, coaches and front office staff, and accommodations for print and broadcast media. The building amasses some 65,000 square feet.

Located in Loudoun County, one of the fastest growing areas in the United States, Redskins Park is tucked away from highways and other office buildings. The two-story concrete and glass structure looks deceiving in size. Visitors enter a bright, spacious lobby that leads to three carefully groomed natural grass playing fields and an additional artificial turf surface.

The lower level of the building is dedicated to football operations, including player and staff locker rooms, an enhanced strength and conditioning center, the equipment room, athletic training rooms and video studio. The athletic training facilities include an x-ray room and dentist office, in addition to private examining rooms for the medical staff that cares for the team throughout the year. During the 2013 renovations, the Redskins expanded their team kitchen on the lower level, allowing players and staff greater access to top-of-the-line, nutritional options. A state-of-the-art players' lounge was added in 2004.

One side of the upper floor consists of coaches' and personnel offices and a large, 105-seat multipurpose auditorium, used for team meetings, press conferences and video sessions. The other side of the building houses offices for the club's accounting, marketing, public relations and administrative offices. The public area of the building consists of large hallways, high ceilings with natural lighting and numerous trophy cases displaying the team's rich history and tradition.

A studio was completed in the rear of the building in 2005. The glassed studio, which houses the Redskins Broadcast Network including Redskins Nation broadcasts, overlooks the facility's four practice fields.

In 2005, an additional building adjacent to the main facility was constructed housing the Redskins Charitable Foundation, information technology and retail departments, as well as the Media Workroom. The Workroom includes work stations, wireless internet, high-definition flat screen televisions, men's and women's restrooms, and a kitchen featuring a full-size refrigerator/freezer, soda machine, microwave, water cooler, coffee maker and storage cabinets.

TRAINING CAMP

The Washington Redskins will hold their 2014 Washington Redskins Training Camp beginning on Thursday, July 24. The schedule features a total of 15 days of practice sessions that will be open to the public, highlighted by Fan Appreciation Day on Saturday, Aug. 2 and joint practice sessions with the New England Patriots on Aug. 4-6.

The team will return to its state-of-the-art Bon Secours Washington Redskins Training Center, featuring two full-size natural grass fields, a natural grass drill field, spectator areas, locker rooms and a high-tech training room. The Bon Secours Virginia Health System ensures the facility serves as a valuable year-round resource for the community when camp is not in session. The facility serves as a full-service sports medicine rehabilitation and men's health center on the property throughout the year, in addition to offering men's health, fitness and education programs. The facility is also home to movin' mania, Bon Secours' healthy kids initiative.

Training camp is an annual ritual in the NFL, an opportunity for fans from all over the country to come see their favorite Redskins players in action on the practice field, and get a first glimpse of the newly signed free agents and draft picks.

Announced practices are open to fans, free of charge, including Fan Appreciation Day on Saturday, Aug. 2. Visitors are encouraged to bring lawn chairs or blankets, as they will be able to sit along the hill overlooking the playing fields. After each practice, fans will have the opportunity to gather autographs and take photos of their favorite players as they walk off the field to the locker rooms.

Credentialed media will have additional access to the players and practice areas, and can coordinate interviews through the Redskins Public Relations Department. All media attending Redskins Training Camp must obtain credentials to gain access to the grounds. For information about credential policies and procedures, media members should contact Susanna Nickell of Redskins Public Relations at nickells@redskins.com.

Detailed training camp practice schedules and more information about the Bon Secours Washington Redskins Training Center can be found by visiting www.redskins.com/trainingcamp.

THE GAMEDAY EXPERIENCE

WASHINGTON REDSKINS MARCHING BAND

The Washington Redskins Marching Band has led sellout crowds in stirring renditions of the team's fight song, "Hail to the Redskins," for generations. The Redskins Marching Band celebrated its 75th anniversary in 2012, having entertained Redskins fans at home games from Griffith Stadium to RFK Stadium to FedExField.

The all-volunteer ensemble formed in 1937, when George Preston Marshall brought the team from Boston to Washington, D.C. with the goal of entertaining fans from the moment they walked into the stadium until the time they exited.

For more than three quarters of a century, the Marching Band has taken great pleasure in entertaining fans with their pre-game and halftime shows.

Over the years, the group has marched between train stations and stadiums before notable games, down Broadway before a New York Giants game in the early 1960s, and around the concourse of Tampa Stadium during Super Bowl XVIII.

"Hail to the Redskins" made its debut as the official fight song of the Washington Redskins on Aug. 17, 1938. The song was written by renowned band leader Barnee Breeskin and the lyrics were penned by Hollywood movie star Corinne Griffith, Marshall's wife.

HAIL TO THE REDSKINS

*"Hail to the Redskins!
Hail Victory!*

Braves on the warpath, Fight for old D.C.!

*Run or pass and score,
we want a lot more.*

Beat 'em, swamp 'em, touchdown, let the points soar!

*Fight on, fight on,
'til you have won,
Sons of Wash-ing-ton! (Rah! Rah! Rah!)"*

RING OF FAME

Hanging on the inside facade of FedExField are some of the most hallowed names in Redskins history. The names, encircling the playing field from above, pay tribute to 45 members of the organization whose contributions still resonate and reverberate through franchise history.

The Redskins Ring of Fame added its 45th member in 2011, inducting former safety and defensive coordinator Richie Petitbon during halftime of the team's Week 16 game.

Petitbon's legacy is closely intertwined with many of the legends associated with the Redskins in the latter part of the 20th century. Petitbon played for the Redskins from 1971-72, as the four-time Pro Bowler and two-time All-Pro was brought in to help form the nucleus of the "Over the Hill Gang." In 1978, he was named as the team's defensive coordinator, a position he held until 1993, when he was named the 21st head coach in Redskins history. He is one of only three Redskins to have participated in all five of the franchise's Super Bowl appearances as either a player or coach, joining Torgy Torgeson and Pro Football Hall of Famer Charley Taylor.

"From being a part of George Allen's 'Over the Hill Gang' to his tenure coaching in Washington, Richie Petitbon played an instrumental role in all five of the Redskins' Super Bowl appearances," Washington Redskins Owner/Chairman Daniel M. Snyder said prior to Petitbon's induction. "His induction into the Ring of Fame will be a proud day for the franchise and a well-deserved honor for one of the organization's most respected figures."

Added Executive Vice President/General Manager Bruce Allen (now team President), "This is a special day for Richie Petitbon, the Redskins, and the coaches that are such an important part of the team's legacy. Our organization and fans are forever grateful for Richie's leadership, especially during all five of our team's Super Bowls."

Former Redskins safety and coach Richie Petitbon (left) was honored with induction into the team's Ring of Fame in 2011. Petitbon was introduced by Hall of Fame cornerback Darrell Green and received a plaque from Executive Vice President/General Manager (now President) Bruce Allen (right).

Meet The Captains

Maigan

Charo

Monique

Brianne

The "First Ladies of Football" have an exciting 2014 season ahead.

The most beautiful, talented and entertaining performers in professional sports just got even better!

This year Monique, Brianne, Charo and Maigan will be the four ladies heading up the Redskins Cheerleaders as line captains. The team added 14 new faces and created brand new signature uniforms. They also created the most unique and cutting-edge swimsuit calendar since production began 16 years ago. For field and stage, they added new sections to the already popular Variety Show, and have been rehearsing since April to bring the best performances to FedExField. You will be entertained by the world's most elite group who not only support the team, but also live, work and attend school in the Washington D.C. metro area. These educated women always find time to mentor youth in the area as well as volunteer to travel overseas to entertain our military men, women and families.

First Ladies of Football

Back in Action

This year marks the 52nd Anniversary of the Washington Redskins Cheerleaders!

They are the longest running NFL Cheerleading team in history!

In July 1999, the Washington Redskins Cheerleaders took the world stage for the first time since 1984 and went on their first Armed Forces Entertainment (AFE) Tour to the Balkans. That trip was their opportunity to be the first entertainers to perform for troops in Kosovo just weeks after the war ended. Since that time they have regularly traveled to entertain the men and women of the U.S. Armed Forces in over 45 countries. While on tour, the Cheerleaders are able to meet thousands of troops and perform their entertaining Variety Show. The Variety Show is a 90-minute, 12-section, fully-costumed theatrical showcase and "Variety" is exactly what this show is: themed sections of rock, country, hip hop and Broadway songs. In 2007 the Variety Show included a new section "A Tribute to our Troops," with a complete replica uniform from the Army, Navy, Air Force, Coast Guard and Marines. In April 2008, 12 cheerleaders and two team choreographers traveled to Bangalore, India helping to bridge two cultures by creating the first ever Cheerleading squad in the country. The Redskins Cheerleaders traveled to Hong Kong, China, in January 2009 and 2014, to help celebrate the Chinese New Year.

JUNIOR REDSKINS CHEERLEADERS

The Junior Redskins Cheerleaders program is a fun, exciting and important part of the Washington Redskins organization. With an enrollment of 200 young ladies, ages 5-17, the program teaches the fundamentals of dance, showmanship and performance. Each year these young ladies are extended the opportunity to perform with the Redskins Cheerleaders at halftime shows, parades and other community events. Each cheerleader also receives a commemorative T-shirt, a tape of their performances, an autographed 2014-2015 Redskins Cheerleaders team photo, as well as memories to last a lifetime! The Junior Redskins Cheerleaders are the exhibition team for our youth dance program. Other exciting programs include our Spirit Explosion halftime show in front of the largest crowd in the NFL. The Redskins Cheerleaders perform a halftime show with hundreds of Dancers, Cheerleaders, and Band Auxiliary from area high schools, universities, and dance studios. It is a fun-filled and rewarding experience for everyone.

REDSKINS RADIO NETWORK

Live broadcasts of Washington Redskins games can be heard in the Washington, D.C. area on ESPN980 (980 AM, 92.7FM and 94.3FM). ESPN980 serves as the home of the Washington Redskins all season long.

Redskins fans are invited to join Pro Football Hall of Famer Sonny Jurgensen and Redskin greats Chris Cooley and Doc Walker for all the analysis as Larry Michael calls the action throughout the season.

The Washington Redskins Radio network provides wall-to-wall coverage with an information-packed pre-game show, halftime analysis with former Redskins great Brian Mitchell, a recap driven post game show and all the play-by-play in-game action.

Outside of the Washington, D.C., metropolitan area, the Redskins Radio Broadcast Network covers six states: Virginia, Maryland, North Carolina, South Carolina, West Virginia and Texas. The games can be heard on-line on ESPN 980, Home of the Redskins.

REDSKINS RADIO PERSONALITIES

Featuring a Pro Football Hall of Fame quarterback, two of the organization's most beloved tight ends and the team's broadcast voice, the Washington Redskins Radio Network is home to more than 100 combined years of professional broadcasting experience. Now entering their 11th season sharing the booth, play-by-play announcer Larry Michael will join Hall of Famer Sonny Jurgensen each week of the 2014 season. In 2013, the group was joined for the first time by Redskins great Chris Cooley, who will once again provide analysis for broadcasts in 2013. Rick "Doc" Walker will be in his seventh season as the team's sideline reporter.

Larry Michael is the "Voice of the Washington Redskins." He also hosts Redskins Nation on a daily basis on Comcast SportsNet as well as The Jay Gruden Coach's Show on NBC-4. He is a 10-time Emmy Award Winner who currently serves as the team's Senior Vice President and Executive Producer of Media. His responsibilities also include production of all video content for Redskins.com TV, as well as production of all Redskins Broadcast Network television shows and broadcasts.

Michael's recent hosting duties have also included WRC's Inside the Redskins and WTTG's Redskins Game Time. Michael has also showcased his vocal talent away from football, working as a part of HBO's Boxing Beat (1997-2003), Comcast SportsNet's Ballroom Boxing (1996-2006), as well as serving as the voice of the George Washington Colonials and as a play-by-play announcer for Westwood One. His resume includes eight Olympic Games, 21 U.S. Open Golf Championships, 12 Masters Tournaments and 12 Super Bowls.

Michael is active in area charities, including the Leukemia and Lymphoma Society, and serves as a member of the Board of Trustees for the Joe Gibbs Youth for Tomorrow Youth Home. He also serves as a member of the Fairfax County Public Schools Citizens Advisory Board.

A legend on the field and a legend in the booth, Sonny Jurgensen has been a part of the Washington Redskins family since 1964. He currently serves as an analyst on radio broadcasts, having called more than 600 games since 1981. Combining his tenures as a broadcaster and a player, Jurgensen has been involved in more than 800 games — including preseason and postseason — as part of the Redskins organization.

Jurgensen played 11 of his 18 NFL seasons in the burgundy and gold, ultimately earning induction into the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 1983. He currently shares the NFL record for most seasons leading the league in passing yards gained (five) and longest pass completion (99 yards against Chicago on Sept. 15, 1968). A five-time Pro Bowl selection, he is the highest-rated passer among qualified players in Redskins history (85.0), and holds team records for most 300-yard passing games (15), most touchdown passes in a season (31 in 1967) and most consecutive games with a touchdown pass (23).

Jurgensen won five passing titles in his career as the NFL's passing yardage leader. He continues to be regarded as one of the best pure passers in the history of the game, as legendary coach Vince Lombardi once called him "the best I have seen." His name resides in the Redskins Ring of Fame, and he was chosen as one of the 70 Greatest Redskins as part of the team's 70th anniversary in 2002, later expanded to the 80 Greatest Redskins during the team's 80th Anniversary celebration in 2012.

Now in his second season as part of the Redskins Radio Network is former Redskins great Chris Cooley. Selected by the Redskins in the third round of the 2004 NFL Draft, Cooley spent nine seasons in Washington from 2004-12. In that time, he became the most prolific tight end in team history, recording 429 receptions, surpassing the great Jerry Smith for the most receptions by a tight end in Redskins annals (421). For his career, Cooley appeared in 117 NFL games with 103 starts, all with the Redskins, gaining 4,711 receiving yards on 429 receptions with 33 receiving touchdowns.

The affable two-time Pro Bowler made three playoff appearances with the Redskins, starting all 16 regular season games during their 2005 and 2007 playoff campaigns and playing in nine games as Washington rattled off seven consecutive victories to secure an NFC East title to close the 2012 season.

Following his retirement from football, Cooley joined ESPN 980 during the 2013 offseason. In addition to his duties for game broadcasts, Cooley serves as co-host of "The Drive with Cooley and Czabe," which airs in drive time each weekday from 4-7 p.m. The former art major at Utah State is also an avid pottery enthusiast and owns The Cooley Gallery in Leesburg, Va.

Serving as the broadcasts' sideline reporter is Rick "Doc" Walker, whose name is synonymous with the "Fun Bunch," the "Hogs," and other pieces of Redskins lore. In addition to sideline reporting for radio broadcasts, Walker co-hosts Inside the Locker Room on ESPN 980 and hosts Doc Walker's ProView on MASN. His broadcast work past and present also includes college football analysis for ESPN, the Big East Network, Prime and Raycom Sports.

Walker appeared in 88 games with 55 starts in his seven-year playing career as a Redskin. His stat line with the team includes 56 receptions for 520 yards and six touchdowns from 1980-85. He helped the Redskins defeat the Miami Dolphins in Super Bowl XVII at the Rose Bowl in Pasadena, Calif., the same stadium in which he played college ball as a UCLA Bruin. Walker caught one pass for 27 yards and ran once for six yards in the Redskins' 27-17 Super Bowl victory.

On top of his broadcast duties, Walker is now an in-demand motivational speaker and hosts annual golf tournament to help fight Alzheimer's.

REDSKINS BROADCAST NETWORK

The Emmy-Award-Winning Redskins Broadcast Network is the TV and Radio production department of the team. The content delivered by RBN includes preseason game broadcasts on NBC4 and Comcast SportsNet. In addition, RBN produces five original TV shows each season, broadcast in the Washington, D.C. region:

- * The Redskins Coach's Show with Jay Gruden, where the Redskins' Head Coach breaks it down each week.

- * Redskins Chronicles, an in-depth look at an element of the team's history – told by some of the franchise's all-time great alumni.

- * Inside the Redskins, which includes all things Redskins including highlights, interviews and features on the team.

- * Redskins Game Time, gets you set for kickoff each Sunday as the team is ready for Game Time.

- * Redskins Late Night, a fun-filled look at the team with player interviews and features.

In addition, RBN produces Redskins Nation, which airs 365 days a year and features exclusive interviews and videos from Redskins Park in an effort to provide complete and immediate news and information to Redskins fans.

The Executive Producer of RBN is Larry Michael, the Voice of the Washington Redskins. His staff includes RBN veterans Charlie Broyhill, Coordinating Producer; Alex Diamond, Manager of Video Production; Luke LeSourd, Senior Producer; Steven Jenkins, Producer; and Ross Hollebon, Social Media Producer. From the sideline to the locker room, Redskins Broadcast Network goes where no other media outlet can go, for the real story on the Washington Redskins, 365 days a year!

REDSKINS ONLINE

Redskins.com is your leading source for breaking news and complete coverage of everything Redskins. The Washington Redskins official team website provides fans and media with all of the latest news, features, photo galleries and statistics involving the Redskins and FedExField.

Redskins.com offers exclusive behind-the-scenes access, interviews with players, coaches, and team officials, an updated roster and depth chart, weekly game previews, a comprehensive history section and a section devoted to the Redskins Cheerleaders. Fans can also sign up for the Season Ticket Waiting List online and weekly e-newsletters, as well as register for team events, such as training camp.

Fans from all over the world can chat about the team on ExtremeSkins.com, a fan forum part of Redskins.com. In the Redskins Official Online Store, fans from near and far can shop for the latest team merchandise, from team jerseys and caps to Redskins card tables and chairs.

The Redskins have also been at the forefront of professional sports' charge into various social media platforms, in the process providing fans unprecedented access and insight into the lives and thoughts of their favorite Redskins players.

The Redskins became the first NFL team to work with Reddit to host a series of Reddit AMAs ("Ask Me Anything" chats) in 2012 and have continued to have players engage Redditors throughout the year. Pro Bowlers Ryan Kerrigan and running back Alfred Morris are among the many Redskins players to welcome fan questions on Reddit.

The organization has also provided fans with access to Redskins personalities through the use of Google+. The team became one of the first professional sports franchises to host a Google+ hangout with active players in the spring of 2012, as quarterback Robert Griffin III chatted with fans via webcam at the team's annual Draft Day Party. During the year, Morris, kicker Kai Forbath, fullback Darrel Young, defensive end Stephen Bowen and others were among those who video-chatted with fans on Google+. In the 2014 offseason, Young and wide receiver Pierre Garçon hosted a hangout specifically for members of the United States military as part of Military Appreciation Month.

The team's official Twitter account (@Redskins) provides up-to-the-minute updates, breaking personnel news, links to Redskins.com content and highlighted quotes from Redskins press conferences. The account was an integral part of the team's 2012 NFL Draft coverage, as followers got a behind-the-scenes look at the team's selection of Robert Griffin III, including photos of the official draft card and his boarding onto the team plane bound for Redskins Park. The account has also featured sneak peeks of the Washington Redskins Cheerleaders' photo shoots in Aruba.

The Redskins' Facebook page (Facebook.com/Redskins) gives fans a chance to sound off about their favorite players, vote in polls, see exclusive photos and win prizes. The team's Instagram account (@Redskins) provides behind-the-scenes looks at day-to-day life at Redskins Park and FedExField, giving fans a peek at the work being done by players and coaches to bring another Super Bowl title to the Washington D.C. area.

Senior Vice President Tony Wyllie enters his fifth season with the Redskins in 2014 in the midst of his third decade of NFL service as a decorated communications professional.

Wyllie and his staffs have earned the Pete Rozelle Award, presented annually by Pro Football Writers of America to the best NFL public relations staff, five times during his career. He is the only executive in the NFL to have won the award with three different teams.

The Brooklyn native began his NFL career as a game day intern with the Houston Oilers in 1991 before working as a summer intern with the San Diego Chargers PR department in 1992. He spent 1993 as an intern in the PR department with the Dallas Cowboys, earning a Super Bowl ring before heading west to Los Angeles to work with the Rams as the Assistant Director of Public Relations. Wyllie moved with the team to St. Louis in 1995 and became the youngest PR director in the NFL three years later when hired by the Tennessee Oilers in 1998. He picked up an AFC championship ring with the Titans in 1999 before joining the Houston Texans staff in the summer of 2000.

Wyllie was instrumental in shaping and molding the image of the Texans in the public and the community. He served as the liaison between the local and national media and the Texans' front office, coaches and players. Wyllie generated publicity for the club while serving as the team spokesman.

Wyllie worked three years in the sports information department of Texas Southern University, where he received his degree in journalism. Wyllie received TSU's "Distinguished Alumnus" award in 2004, and in December 2013, delivered a commencement address at the university. He also earned an MBA from the Jones School of Business at Rice University.

In Houston, Wyllie served on numerous Boards of Directors including the Ensemble Theatre in Houston, the March of Dimes, and the Management Leadership for Tomorrow-Houston, John P. McGovern Museum of Health & Medical Science, the Houston Texans YMCA and the Touchdown Club of Houston.

He and his wife, Natasha, are parents of son James Anthony and daughter Toni Simone. The family resides in Northern Virginia.

703-726-7422 // sampsond@redskins.com

Daniel Sampson is entering his fifth season with the Washington Redskins and his fourth as Assistant Director of Communications in 2014. He is responsible for football publicity efforts, including handling media obligations for coaches and players. He also contributes to the strategic branding of the organization, intertwining initiatives to grow the team's influence internationally.

In 2012, Sampson spearheaded media efforts that resulted in five Redskins players earning Pro Bowl selections for the first time since 1996. Among the honorees were first-timers Lorenzo Alexander, Robert Griffin III, Ryan Kerrigan and Trent Williams. In 2013, his efforts helped secure Pro Bowl berths for Williams as well as Alfred Morris and Brian Orakpo.

Sampson joined the Redskins after working with the Houston Chronicle as a web content producer for the sports department. Prior to working with the Chronicle, Sampson served as a game day intern for the Houston Texans during the 2008 and 2009 seasons, including working with the staff that earned the 2010 Pete Rozelle Award from the Pro Football Writers of America (PFWA). The award is given to the best media relations department in the National Football League (NFL).

In addition, Sampson completed a summer internship at the National Baseball Hall of Fame (NBHOF) in Cooperstown, N.Y. During the internship, he worked closely with the education department and also served as a NBHOF Correspondent prior to the 2009 Hall of Fame induction of Rickey Henderson, Jim Rice and Joe Gordon. Later that fall, Sampson interned at KTRK-TV, the ABC affiliate in Houston.

Beyond his public relations role, Sampson has devoted his time and efforts to helping develop young men and women, creating the Driven By Our Ambitions Educational Seminar and Football Camp and assisting efforts to help the Boys and Girls Clubs of Greater Washington.

Sampson graduated cum laude from Texas Southern University (TSU) in Houston, receiving his bachelor's in journalism in 2010. At TSU, he served as a student assistant to the sports information director. He also worked as a producer for KTSU 90.9 FM, serving as the in-studio host for road football and basketball games.

He is a native of Aurora, Colo., where he attended Gateway H.S. He currently resides in Northern Virginia.

ROSS TAYLOR

COMMUNICATIONS
MANAGER

4TH NFL SEASON // 4TH WITH REDSKINS

Contact Taylor for:

- » Media guide information
- » Historical research inquiries
- » Interview requests for players

703-726-7368 // taylorr@redskins.com

Ross Taylor is entering his fourth NFL season and his fourth with Redskins Public Relations in 2014. Taylor served 18 months as Media Services Assistant before being named Communications Manager in December 2012.

Taylor is responsible for football publicity efforts relating to the editing and design of media materials, including game releases, digital media guides, event releases, game notes, season in reviews, daily transcripts and more. He also serves as a liaison between the organization and members of the media, assists in shaping organizational messaging and provides research support to football operations.

In January 2013, Taylor was part of a select group chosen by the NFL to provide public relations assistance on the league's behalf during the week of the 2013 NFC Championship.

Taylor first joined the Redskins as a public relations intern during the summer of 2010. He joined the team on a full-time basis directly following the conclusion of the NFL lockout in July 2011. Throughout his first three NFL seasons, he provided statistical research expertise to former Executive Vice President/Head Coach Mike Shanahan and football operations staff from 2011-13.

His background includes an internship with The Dallas Morning News in which he served as a staff writer for SportsDay in 2007. Before joining the Redskins, Taylor spent five months interning at the world headquarters of FleishmanHillard International Communications in St. Louis.

Taylor graduated magna cum laude from the esteemed School of Journalism at the University of Missouri in December 2010, earning a Bachelor's of Journalism with an emphasis in convergence journalism in three-and-a-half years. During his time at Mizzou, he completed assignments for a number of media organizations, including KBIA-FM (NPR), the Columbia Missourian, KOMU-TV (NBC), and The Maneater, for which he was the beat writer for the 2008-09 Mizzou men's basketball team that won the 2009 Big 12 Tournament title.

In addition, Taylor served as the play-by-play voice of the Missouri Tigers women's volleyball team for parts of 2009 and all of 2010, culminating in the team's run to the Sweet 16 of the 2010 NCAA Tournament. In his final semester, Taylor and a colleague launched KBIA Sports Extra, which was later integrated into the curriculum by convergence journalism faculty as the genesis of a new Multimedia Sports Reporting course.

Taylor is a native of Coppell, Texas. He currently resides in Northern Virginia.

Susanna Nickell is entering her third NFL season and her third with Redskins Public Relations in 2014. She completed her first season as a full-time staff member in 2013 after interning with the team during its NFC East championship season in 2012.

Nickell is responsible for sustaining a strong corporate image through positive media coverage for the Redskins outside the traditional scope of football, as well as assisting with the implementation of the league's public relations policies. She promotes Redskins' community relations and marketing events, finding ways to project the organizations' coaches and players in a positive light. Nickell develops, coordinates and implements strategic communication plans, including media advisories, press releases, fact sheets and press kits.

Her other responsibilities include credentialing, press box staff supervision and coverage recaps, in addition to serving as a liaison between the organization and the media.

Nickell previously served as a season intern in 2012. She also spent a semester interning with Octagon, a global sports, entertainment and lifestyle marketing and talent representation agency. Nickell also served as a community relations intern for D.C. United of Major League Soccer.

In 2012, Nickell received her undergraduate degree in sports management with a minor in business administration from the University of Tennessee. There she worked for the football team in their recruiting department as well as working two years with Pat Summitt and the women's basketball program. She was a recognized member of Sigma Alpha Lambda National Honors Society, a national leadership and honors organization, and also played an active role in her sorority, Kappa Delta.

Nickell graduated from Georgetown University with a master's degree in Sports Industry Management (SIM) in 2013. She is an active member of the National Academy of Television Arts and Science Capital Chesapeake Bay Area Board of Governors (the region's local Emmy chapter) and the Public Relations Society of America.

Nickell is a native of Franklin, Tenn. She currently resides in Ashburn, Va.

2014 MEDIA INFORMATION — GAME DAY

CREDENTIALS

Only credential requests from accredited working media on specific assignment for a recognized news organization or sports publication will be honored. Credentials will not be issued to freelance writers or photographers unless requested by a recognized news organization or sports publication. Demand for credentials is high, and as such, the size and legitimacy of each media outlet requesting access will be considered on a case-by-case basis and subject to the discretion of Redskins Public Relations.

For home games, all requests must be submitted through the team's on-line credentialing system located at www.redskins.com/credentials no later than 5 p.m. ET on Tuesday of that particular game week.

For away games, all requests must be e-mailed to Susanna Nickell (nickells@redskins.com) and must include attending media members' name, job title, media affiliation and pick-up preference (Redskins Park or Media Will Call). All requests must be submitted 10 days in advance of the requested road game.

GAME DAY

There are a limited number of season-long parking passes at FedExField for media members to purchase. All media members are welcome to park, free of charge, at the Media Parking Lot at the Grey Lot at FedExField.

In addition, television trucks that provide satellite, uplink or microwave functions will be parked in Lot B1. Media that wish to bring a truck to a Redskins game must contact both Josh Epstein (epsteinj@redskins.com) and Susanna Nickell (nickells@redskins.com) no later than Monday of that particular game week.

MEDIA ENTRANCE AND WILL CALL

The media entrance and Media Will Call are located at the South Field Tunnel by Gate B. All media members that have been confirmed by the Redskins Public Relations department must enter through the media entrance.

The appropriate game credential must be presented at the media entrance for admission into the stadium. For security purposes, the Redskins do not send out game-by-game credentials prior to game day. All media picking up credentials on game day must do so at Media Will Call.

A valid form of government-issued photo identification is required to pick up credentials. Media Will Call will open 3.5 hours prior to kickoff.

FREQUENCY COORDINATOR

All credentialed media members who will be using a wireless radio frequency device such as a wireless microphone, communications radio, etc. (cell phones excluded) on FedExField property must register their frequency information. To do so, please contact the NFL Game Day Coordinator, Bill Sien, via email at redskinsgdc@yahoo.com or by phone at 730-915-8501 no later than Tuesday of game week.

INTERNET AND PHONE LINES

FedExField features complimentary wireless internet in the press box and photo room. You will be supplied with access information in those areas. Media interested in setting up a game day phone line at FedExField should fill out a request form which can be obtained by emailing Susanna Nickell at nickells@redskins.com no later than Monday of that particular game week.

PHOTOGRAPHERS

Photographers who are credentialed for sideline access will be required to wear a photo vest. Sideline access for NFL games is limited to photographers on assignment for recognized news organizations. No one except network television personnel and authorized game personnel will be admitted on the field without a camera. All field photographers must remain outside the bench areas and outside the yellow border surrounding the playing field.

POSTGAME INTERVIEWS AND LOCKER ROOM ACCESS

Members of the media needing to conduct post-game interviews will be given access to the Redskins' and visiting team's interview rooms after the game, as well as the home and visiting locker rooms. No B-Roll, still photography or autographs are allowed in the Redskins locker room. A Redskins PR representative will escort media down to the interview areas with four minutes remaining in the game. NO INTERVIEWS ARE ALLOWED ON OR COMING OFF THE FIELD FOLLOWING THE GAME. Following the customary 10-minute cooling off period at the conclusion of the game, the Redskins' and visiting team's locker rooms will be open to the media. Redskins Head Coach Jay Gruden will be available in the postgame interview room. To get there, take the stairs to the field level and follow the signs to the locker and interview rooms. Following Coach Gruden, additional players may be brought into the interview room. Press conferences will also be shown on the televisions in the press box as they occur.
